Employee Resource Groups

Momentum

Momentum, the women's network of the San Francisco Giants, is an Employee Resource Group dedicated to moving women forward. As the first and largest ERG, Momentum empowers women to develop their leadership skills, pursue guidance and connect on a personal and professional level at the Giants.

Leadership: Sophie Lair Wallner, Erica Cash, Chrissy Camilleri, Lyz Lowry, Rachel Heit

Black Excellence

Black Excellence, the professional network of Black employees of the San Francisco Giants, is dedicated to building equity and inclusiveness to boost the trajectory of diversity within the Giants organization. Leveraging our collective expertise, we work to build a stronger work culture and more successful team for the future.

Leadership: Erica Davis, Darron Nelson, Herb Canada, Roscoe Mapps

Corazón Gigante

Corazón Gigante is dedicated to fostering a supportive community by strengthening the internal Giants Familia through meaningful community engagement, career development, and the celebration of the Latin identity. Corazón is committed to honoring our rich Latin/Hispanic cultura within our organization, our Latin fanbase and across the Bay Area.

Leadership: Pedro Flores, Vivian Padilla, Matt Valdez

Families with Special Needs

The Families with Special Needs ERG strives to create community amongst family, friends and acquaintances of anyone with special needs. We come together to learn from one another, share resources, create connections and host inclusive programming tailored to the needs of our members and partners.

Leadership: Rebecca Miles, Joey Nevin

Asian Pacific Alliance

Asian Pacific Alliance (APA) provides an inclusive space to advocate for the diverse needs of our Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander employees. Greg Johnson ▸▸▸ Chairman

Greg Johnson is the chairman of the board of directors and control person of the San Francisco Giants. A long-time Giants fan, Mr. Johnson's family has been part of the team's ownership group since 1993. Beyond this role at the Giants, he is a member of Major League Baseball's Executive Council and Competition Committees.

Mr. Johnson serves as the executive chairman and chairman of the board of Franklin Resources, Inc. He previously held leadership roles as CEO (2004–2019) and president (1999–2015) at the company. He also serves on the board of Zand, the UAE's first digital bank offering both personal and corporate banking services.

His personal pursuits include serving on the boards of the U.S. Olympic and Paralympic Foundation, Jumpstart, a national early literacy nonprofit, and the San Francisco Symphony, where he is a Life Governor. He earned a B.S. in accounting and business administration from Washington and Lee University in 1983 and became a certified public accountant (CPA) in 1985.

Rob Dean ▸▸▸ Vice Chairman

Robert Dean is the president and founder of Harmony Capital LLC, a private investment management firm based in Redwood City, CA. Since its founding in 2007, Harmony Capital has provided tailored services in investment management, asset allocation, estate planning, and family office solutions to clients, including family limited partnerships, high-net-worth individuals, and foundations. Dean also serves as the managing member of Harmony Services LLC, focusing on real estate development opportunities.

In addition to his professional roles, Dean is a trustee for The Queen's Health System in Hawaii and recently completed his term on the Board of Trustees at the University of San Diego.

Before establishing Harmony Capital, Dean was vice president and portfolio manager at Franklin Templeton Investments, where he managed the Franklin Aggressive Growth Fund. He specialized in equity research across the IT services, computer hardware, and data storage sectors and joined the firm in 1995.

Dean earned his Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of San Diego in 1994.

Larry Baer ▸▸▸ President & Chief Executive Officer

A fourth generation San Franciscan, Larry Baer has gained a national reputation as one of professional sports' leading visionaries. Baer joined the team in 1992 as the executive vice president after he and Peter Magowan led the effort to assemble a new ownership group that kept the Giants in San Francisco. A limited partner and board member of the ownership group, Baer was named CEO on January 1, 2012. In his first year as president and CEO, the Giants won their second World Series Championship in three years. In 2014, the Giants won their third World Series title in five years. In 2021, the Giants won an all-time franchise record 107 games and the National League West title.

Baer is responsible for the overall day-to-day operations of the organization. Under his direction the Giants developed and constructed Oracle Park -- the first privately financed Major League ballpark. Since opening in 2000, Oracle Park has been widely praised as one of the "best ballparks ever built." In 2008, Oracle Park was named Sports Business Journal's Sports Facility of the Year, and in 2011 the Giants received Sports Business Journal's Professional Sports Organization of the Year award. The Giants enjoyed a National League home record sellout streak of 530 games spanning six seasons from 2011–2016.

Baer also serves as a key strategist and negotiator of the club's major transactions. This includes the Barry Bonds signing in November 1992, the naming rights agreement with AT&T (then Pacific Bell) in 1996, the naming rights agreement with Oracle in 2019 and other strategic partnerships. He led the effort to host the 2007 All-Star Game in San Francisco and was the driving force behind the Giants partnership with Comcast to create the NBC Sports Bay Area regional sports network.

Baer serves as Chairman and CEO of Giants Development Services overseeing Mission Rock – the new, mixed-use urban neighborhood located on a 28-acre site across McCovey Cove from Oracle Park. At full completion, Mission Rock will include parks and open space, residential units, office space (including the global headquarters of Visa, Inc.), retail, restaurants and a parking structure. Phase I of the project is nearing completion with two residential towers offering below market units for middle-income families, an eight-story commercial building and the 13-floor office building housing Visa's global headquarters. In addition, restaurants and retail stores have opened, along with China Basin Park – a five-acre park with walking and biking trails and open spaces for the community to gather.

In 2021, Baer helped launch and was named co-chair of "Advance SF"–a coalition of San Francisco CEO's and business leaders committed to building a vibrant city that works for all. In January 2022, Baer joined the advisory board of the American Journalism Project, based in New York City, aiming to expand the voices in local and regional media.

Baer has served on numerous Major League Baseball boards including chairing the Strategic Planning Committee, the Business and Media Board, and the International Committee. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Bay Area Council and NBC Sports Bay Area. Baer also serves on the Bay Area Host Committee, which was instrumental in bringing the 2026 FIFA World Cup to the Bay Area. He is a past governing board member of the United States Holocaust Memorial Council, appointed by President Barack Obama in 2016.

A graduate of UC Berkeley and Harvard Business School, Baer previously worked in the media industry for Westinghouse Broadcasting and CBS, Inc. At CBS, Baer was special assistant to Chairman Laurence Tisch. Baer has been the recipient of prestigious awards throughout his career with the Giants. In 2010, Baer was named "Person of the Year" by San Francisco Boys and Girls Clubs, and in 2012 he was honored as the Harvard Business School's "Alumnus of the Year." In 2014, Baer was honored by the University of California, Berkeley with its "Excellence in Achievement" award and received the Civic Leadership Award from the American Jewish Committee. Baer was also a recipient of the 2025 Silver SPUR award for his contributions to the community.

Baer and his wife, Pam, co-chaired the Campaign to Rebuild San Francisco General Hospital, which was completed in 2016.

Larry and Pam reside in San Francisco and have four children.

Buster Posey ▸▸▸ President of Baseball Operations

A three-time World Series Champion and seven-time All-Star as a player, Buster Posey enters his second season as the president of baseball operations for the Giants, moving into the role on September 30, 2024. Posey was the Giants' fifth overall pick in the 2008 draft and spent his entire 12-year playing career in the Giants' organization beginning with his Major League debut on September 11, 2009. After retiring from the field in November, 2021, Posey joined the Giants' ownership group in September 2022, becoming the 31st principal partner in the Giants' ownership group. He also joined the team's six-person board of directors. Posey was the first former player to join the Giants as a principal partner and serve on the board of directors. He is also the youngest member of the ownership group.

In 2010, Posey helped lead the Giants to the first of their three World Series titles in San Francisco while also being named the National League Rookie of the Year after hitting .305 with 18 homers, 67 RBI and an .862 OPS. Posey finished 11th in the MVP voting that season. After his 2011 season ended prematurely due to injury after 45 games, Posey burst back on to the scene in 2012 to help lead the Giants to their second World Series title in three seasons. Named the 2012 National League MVP and the NL's Comeback Player of the Year, Posey led the NL in batting average (.336) while posting the best OPS+ of his career (171). He was named an All-Star for the first time and won the first of his five Silver Slugger awards after setting career-bests in batting average, doubles (39), homers (24), RBI (103), walks (69), OBP (.408), slugging (.549) and OPS (.957). By winning the World Series and being voted the league's MVP, Posey became the third catcher in MLB history to accomplish the feat, joining Yogi Berra (1951 Yankees) and Roy Campanella (1955 Dodgers).

Posey helped lead the Giants to their third World Series title in five seasons in 2014, won his second Silver Slugger Award and finished sixth in the MVP voting after hitting .311 with 22 homers, 89 RBI and an .854 OPS. He was named to four straight All-Star teams from 2015-2018, won two more Silver Sluggers (2015, 2017) and captured his first Gold Glove award in 2016.

After opting out of the 2020 season, Posey returned to his All-Star form in 2021, earning his seventh Midsummer Classic selection and his fifth career Silver Slugger. He was named both The Sporting News and the MLB Player's Choice National League Comeback Player of the Year during his final season after hitting .304 with 23 doubles, 18 homers, 56 RBI and an .889 OPS in 113 games for the National League West Division champs.

In San Francisco Giants history (1958-present), Posey ranks among the club's all-time leaders in batting average (min. 3,000 PA) (3rd, .302), doubles (4th, 293), home runs (11th, 158), RBI (7th, 729), walks (7th, 540), OBP (5th, .372), SLG (11th, .460), OPS (9th, .831) and games played (6th, 1,371). His 1,063 starts behind the plate are the most all-time in franchise history.

In postseason play, Posey caught 511 career innings across his five postseason appearances with SF, eighth-most all-time behind Jorge Posada (996.1), Yadier Molina (868.1), Will Smith (565.2), Berra (544.1), Jason Varitek (528.0), Martín Maldonado (521.0) and Russell Martin (518.2). Posey's 2.71 career postseason catcher's ERA is fourth-best all-time (min. 200 postseason innings caught) behind Mike Scioscia (2.41), Bill Dickey (2.51) and Mickey Cochrane (2.63). Posey was behind the plate for 14 total shutouts in the postseason, the most of any catcher in postseason history ahead of Molina (eight) and Berra (seven). Posey's 58 career postseason games, 57 postseason hits and his 25 postseason RBI are all the most by a Giant in franchise history. He is also one of six Giants to hit at least five postseason homers.

Posey ended his Major League career as one of the game's greatest catchers, posting a career 44.8 WAR according to Stathead, eighth best for any catcher since 1950 behind Johnny Bench (75.1), Gary Carter (70.2), Ivan Rodríguez (68.7), Carlton Fisk (68.5), Mike Piazza (59.5), Yogi Berra (53.6) and Thurman Munson (46.1). All of that group but Munson have been elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Overall, his 44.9 career WAR is 12th-best among catchers in Major League history. The Leesburg, GA native finished his playing career with a .302 career average, exactly 1,500 regular season hits, 293 doubles, 158 homers, 729 RBI and an .831 career OPS. He is one of three catchers to win at least three World Series titles and catch at least three no-hitters.

Off the field, Buster and his wife, Kristen, have committed their unwavering support to finding better treatments and cures for pediatric cancer. In 2016, the Posey's established BP28 with a commitment to stand with those families affected by pediatric cancer and focus on awareness, fundraising and patient/family support. In addition to his work with BP28, Posey served as the Junior Giants Commissioner for most of his playing career and as a supporter of the Giants Community Fund, most notably hosting a Glove Giveaway each season and contributing to the Fund's mission of using baseball and softball to promote health, education and character development for youth in underserved communities.

Zack Minasian ▸▸▸ General Manager

Zack Minasian (mih-NASS-ee-en) was promoted to General Manager on Nov. 1, 2024, becoming the club's 11th GM in the San Francisco era (since 1958), joining Chub Feeney (1947-1969), Horace Stoneham (1970-1975), Spec Richardson (1976-1981), Tom Haller (1981-1985), Al Rosen (1986-1992), Bob Quinn (1993-1996), Brian Sabean (1996-2015), Bobby Evans (2015-2018), Scott Harris (2019-2022) and Pete Putila (2022-2024).

The 42-year-old Minasian was promoted to vice president, professional scouting of the Giants in 2022 after joining the organization by way of the Milwaukee Brewers in 2019. In his 14 seasons with the Brewers organization, Minasian served as a special advisor – baseball operations, director – professional scouting, manager of minor league scouting, personnel/coordinator of pro scouting and as a baseball operations assistant. During his time with Milwaukee, he played a role in acquiring All-Star players such as CC Sabathia, Zack Greinke, Carlos Gómez, Josh Hader, Corey Knebel, Jean Segura and Will Smith.

Minasian grew up in a Major League clubhouse beginning at age five and worked as a batboy/clubhouse attendant for his father, Zack Sr., who was the longtime clubhouse manager with the Texas Rangers. Minasian's brother, Perry, is the general manager for the Los Angeles Angels and his brother, Calvin, is the director of equipment & clubhouse services for the Atlanta Braves. Minasian is godson to late Hall of Fame manager Tommy Lasorda and his wife, Jo.

Jeremy Shelley ▸▸▸ Senior Vice President, Assistant General Manager

Jeremy Shelley has been a part of the Giants organization for over 30 years. He currently serves as senior vice president and assistant general manager. He assists President of Baseball Operations Buster Posey and General Manager Zack Minasian with the day-to day operations of the baseball department including roster management, player acquisitions, player evaluations, Major League rules administration and interpretation, contract negotiations and salary arbitration.

During his time with the Giants he has been a part of nine postseason berths, including four World Series appearances and three Championships.

The Concord, CA native began his career for the Giants as a baseball operations intern in 1994. He was hired full-time as administrative assistant, baseball operations in 1996. Shelley was later promoted to director, baseball operations in 2006, senior director, baseball operations/pro scouting in 2009 and vice president, pro scouting and player evaluation in 2013.

He earned a BS in finance from Santa Clara University in 1995. Shelley and his wife, Suzanne, live in San Mateo with their two daughters.

Paul Bien ▸▸▸ Assistant General Manager, Baseball Analytics

Paul Bien was promoted to his current position of assistant general manager, baseball analytics in December 2025 after spending the prior four seasons as the vice president of baseball analytics. In his role, Bien is responsible for overseeing the organization's baseball analytics department in utilizing data and technology to deliver information to scouting, player development, and Major League coaching staffs. He also provides quantitative research and analysis in support of all aspects of baseball operations, with a focus on evaluating potential player acquisitions at all levels.

The Palo Alto, CA native began his career with the Giants in 2012 after previous experience with Northrop Grumman and Accenture. Bien graduated with Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in Electrical Engineering from UCLA, and currently resides in Berkeley with his wife Karen and son Cameron.

Randy Winn ▸▸▸ Vice President of Player Development

Randy Winn was named the Giants' vice president of player development in November 2024. With over a decade of high-level experience in Major League Baseball, Winn has established a versatile career spanning front-office strategy, professional scouting, and on-field player development. Between 2012 and 2018, he served as a special assistant to General Manager Bobby Evans, where he was involved in trade deadline operations, free agent target meetings and end of year organizational evaluations. From 2012-2015, Winn assisted with player development, focusing on hitting, outfield defense and baserunning, while also evaluating the Giants minor league system. He served as the Giants outfield and baserunning Coordinator in 2016 before evaluating talent both at the Major and minor league levels for the Giants from 2017-2018. In 2019, Winn served as a pro scout, working under then Director of Pro Scouting Zack Minasian.

In addition to his duties with the organization over the years, Winn worked as an analyst covering Giants baseball for NBC Sports Bay Area from 2013-2024. Winn was voted as the chairman of the board for the Giants Community Fund in September 2024. He's also been a board member for the Baseball Assistance Team (BAT) since 2002, serving nine years as president from 2011-2020.

Winn played nearly five of his 13-year big league seasons with the Giants from 2005-2009 after coming over in a trade with Seattle in July of 2005. In 666 games as a Giant, he slashed .290/.345/.432 with 343 runs, 169 doubles, 18 triples, 51 home runs, 262 RBI and 73 stolen bases. His 11 leadoff home runs as a Giant rank third-most in the SF-era and he remains one of 23 players in franchise history to hit for the cycle, doing so on August 15, 2005.

Born in Los Angeles, Winn attended San Ramon Valley High School (Danville) and Santa Clara University in the Bay Area before being selected by the Marlins in the third round of the 1995 draft.

CAREER NOTES |

Guided Tennessee to its first-ever National Championship in 2024. That club became the first SEC team to win 60 games in a season, finishing the year 60-13. Tennessee also became the fourth program in SEC history to win the SEC regular season crown, the SEC Tournament title and the National Championship in the same year.

OMAHA!

Led the Volunteers to the College World Series (Elite 8) in 2021, 2023 and 2024. Prior to Vitello, Tennessee had made the College World Series four total times in program history.

DRAFT

Had 52 players taken in the MLB draft during his time at Tennessee from 2018-2025, averaging 6.5 picks per year. Since 2021, the Vols' 42 total draft picks led the nation. In his tenure in Knoxville he helped recruit and develop 10 first-round picks. Of those 10, four were taken in the 2025 draft and one of those four was Gavin Kilen, taken by the Giants 13th overall.

SHOW ME...

Began his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater, Missouri, in 2003. He had 22 years of college coaching experience at Mizzou, TCU, Arkansas and Tennessee.

16

Over his 22 years of full-time Division I coaching, Vitello signed and developed 16 first-round MLB draft picks, one of which was All-Star lefty Garrett Crochet. Other notable MLB players coached by Vitello include Max Scherzer, Andrew Benintendi, Ian Kinsler and Brandon Finnegan.

During his eight years in Knoxville, Vitello's clubs made six NCAA regional appearances (2019, 2021-25) and five super regional appearances (2021-25).

The Giants announced Tony Vitello as the 40th field manager in club history on October 22, 2025.

Vitello completed his eighth season as the head coach of the University of Tennessee baseball team in 2025. In those eight seasons, Vitello had a record of 341-131 (.722), helping Tennessee become a perennial contender in the Southeastern Conference (NCAA Division I).

He won the National Championship in 2024, and earned six NCAA regional appearances (2019, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2025), five super regional appearances (2021, 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2025) and three Men's College World Series appearances (2021, 2023 and 2024).

The St. Louis, MO native was named the National Coach of the Year by a trio of publications in 2024 (Baseball America, American Baseball Coaches Association and D1Baseball.com). In 2022, Perfect Game tabbed him as the National Coach of the Year for a second consecutive season. He was also named the SEC Coach of the Year in 2022 and the NCBWA Coach of the Year in 2021.

Prior to joining Tennessee, Vitello was an associate head coach with the Salinas Packers (2002), then an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at his alma mater, the University of Missouri (2003-2010). He served as the pitching coach, while also working with the team's hitters and serving as the first base coach during his time in Columbia. He worked for Texas Christian University (2011-2013) and the University of Arkansas (2014-2017) as an assistant coach & recruiting coordinator.

As a full-time coach, Vitello had 14 recruiting classes ranked inside their respective year's top-15 and saw 10 players from his time coaching at Tennessee get selected in the first round (52 overall players drafted), including San Francisco outfielder Drew Gilbert, Los Angeles-AL infielder Christian Moore, Colorado outfielder Jordan Beck, Colorado right-hander Chase Dollander and two-time All-Star Boston left-hander Garrett Crochet. He also coached Giants prospects Blade Tidwell, Maui Ahuna, and 2025 first-round pick Gavin Kilen at Tennessee.

As an assistant, he coached MLB players including All-Star outfielder Andrew Benintendi, four-time All-Star Ian Kinsler, and three-time Cy Young Award winner and eight-time All-Star Max Scherzer.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

AT TENNESSEE

- Led the Volunteers to their first-ever National Championship in 2024.
- Led Tennessee to five straight NCAA Super Regionals (2021-25).
- In 2024 he guided the Volunteers to a 60-win season and the SEC regular season and SEC Tournament titles.
- Piloted Tennessee to the College World Series in 2021, 2023 and 2024.
- Had 52 players drafted in eight seasons in Knoxville and an NCAA-best 42 players drafted since 2021.
- Coached and developed 10 first-round picks.
- In 2022 he led the Vols to the SEC regular season and Tournament titles for the first time since 1995.
- Guided Tennessee to its first-ever No. 1 ranking and first No. 1 national seed in 2022.
- Set a then-program record with 57 victories in 2022.
- Helped lead the Vols to their third 50-win season in program history in 2021. Tennessee won the SEC Eastern Division title that year, its first since 1997.
- In his second year on campus in 2019 his team logged its first-ever 40-win season and its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2005.
- In 2018 his team amassed 29 wins, the most by a first-year head coach in program history.

AT ARKANSAS

- Helped the Razorbacks average nearly 38 wins per year, winning 40 games three times. They appeared in three NCAA Tournaments and went to one College World Series (2015).
- Coached 22 Razorbacks who were selected the MLB draft.

AT TCU

- Lured some of the top players in the country to Fort Worth and helped the Horned Frogs to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances, including a super regional berth in 2012.
- Vitello's final recruiting class ranked 17th in the nation.

AT MISSOURI

- Recruited and developed 19 players who were drafted by MLB teams including Ian Kinsler, Max Scherzer, Aaron Crow and Kyle Gibson.
- Made the postseason seven times.
- Served as the pitching coach while also working with the team's hitters and serving as the first base coach.

AT SALINAS

- Finished 50-14 and helped the Packers earn their first trip to the NBC World Series in his lone season there.

HE HAS A VISION TO BE GREAT, NOT JUST FOR HIMSELF, BUT THAT'S GOING TO RUB OFF ON THOSE AROUND HIM.

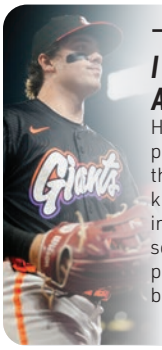
There's an expectation that he'll get the best from everybody he comes in contact with. Tony's a teacher, motivator, tireless worker, someone who understands how to build culture. We believe his leadership will not only impact our clubhouse but also our organization and entire fan base as well."

Buster Posey

I'M JUST SO HAPPY FOR HIM. HAPPY HE GOT THE OPPORTUNITY TO BE ABLE TO GET TO THE BIG LEAGUES.

I've been friends with him my whole time ever since Mizzou. I've known the fire in him. I know the passion that he has. I've always believed in him. Even when he got the job in Tennessee, I knew he was the right man for the job then. He showed you what he can do at the college level. I'm sure there's going to be doubters here at the big league level, but kudos to Buster Posey for recognizing what a leader is. I know Tony is a leader. He's going to bring an energy and a fire to that clubhouse, and the players are definitely going to respond because of that."

Max Scherzer



I THINK HE IS KIND OF LIKE A SWISS ARMY KNIFE IN TERMS OF LEADERSHIP

He knows how to get the most out of each player. I think that's his biggest strength. He is the best motivator I've ever been around. He knows how to get people to buy in. He does it in a way that's a blend of an old-school, new-school sort of mentality. He just toes the line of player to coach so well. I've never seen anybody be able to do that. It's super impressive."

- OF Drew Gilbert (Tennessee alum)

I THINK OUT OF ALL THE PEOPLE THAT ARE IN COLLEGE BASEBALL, THERE ARE PROBABLY THREE OR FOUR THAT COULD MAKE THE JUMP TO BEING A MLB MANAGER. I THINK VITELLO IS ONE OF THEM. HE'S A WINNER.

I played against him while I was at LSU. Obviously watched him coaching for a few years. He's going to have a good support staff and good coaches around him . I think in terms of a learning curve he'll figure it out pretty quick. He's sharp, he's a winner."

Paul Skenes via CBS Sports

THE GIANTS ARE GETTING A FIERY COMPETITOR WHO WANTS TO WIN, BUT ALSO CARES ABOUT EACH AND EVERY GUY ON THE TEAM COMPLETELY.

I think he's just a players-first guy but he really preaches the importance of playing good fundamental baseball. He's effective because he works harder than anyone and you can see how much he cares."

- Angels RHP Ben Joyce (Tennessee alum)

FULL NAME | FRANK DWIGHT ANDERSON

BIRTHPLACE | GRANT, NE, USA

COLLEGE | EMPORIA STATE (KS) / UNIV. OF NEBRASKA AT KEARNEY / MID-PLAINS JC

COLLEGIATE COACHING EXPERIENCE | 42 SEASONS

Frank Anderson makes the jump from collegiate athletics to the professional ranks with Tony Vitello and embarks on his first season in the Giants organization in 2026. One of the most respected collegiate pitching coaches in the country, Anderson will be the director of pitching on Vitello's staff in San Francisco.

The 67-year-old Anderson brings 42 years of coaching experience at the college level that was spent mostly as a pitching coach on various staffs. Most recently, Anderson was on Vitello's staff for the past eight seasons at Tennessee. During that time, Tennessee finished in the top-20 nationally in ERA, WHIP and strikeout-to-walk ratio in each season from 2019-2025. In his 42 years working with pitchers his pitching staffs have finished in the top-25 in the country in ERA 18 different times (including 11 top-10 finishes).

The Nebraska native has coached over 100 pitchers that have heard their name called in the MLB draft, including 10 first-round picks (four at Tennessee). With the Vols, 25 different pitchers who worked under Anderson were drafted in eight seasons including All-Star Garrett Crochet, Chase Dollander (ninth overall in 2023 to Colorado), Liam Doyle (fifth overall to St. Louis in 2025) and Marcus Phillips (33rd overall to Boston in 2025).

In total, Anderson has been a part of Division I coaching staffs of teams that have advanced to 24 NCAA regionals, 10 NCAA super regionals and have made six trips to the College World Series.

Anderson played collegiately at Mid-Plains Junior College in North Platte, NE where he was an infielder for two seasons. In 1979, his second season at Mid-Plains, he was named a junior college All-American. He then transferred to the University of Nebraska at Kearney and was an outfielder before continuing to Emporia State. His coaching journey began directly after finishing his degree in physical education at Emporia State in 1983 (also earned a master's in 1985). As a coach at Emporia he helped them reach the NAIA World Series in 1984.

After three seasons coaching at Emporia, he took a job teaching eighth grade science and coaching junior high baseball and football. He then was back coaching for two seasons at Howard College (TX) from 1987-1990. He made the jump to Texas Tech in 1990 and spent 10 seasons working with the Red Raiders staff. In 2000 Anderson moved to Austin where his staffs helped lead Texas to three consecutive trips to Omaha (2001-03) and a National Championship in 2002. Texas led the Big 12 in ERA during each of his four seasons there and finished among the top five in the nation three times.

He then was the head coach at Oklahoma State for nine years from 2004-2012. He led the Pokes to six NCAA regional appearances during his nine seasons at OK State. He guided OSU to its first Big 12 Tournament Championship in 2004 in school history. From 2006-2008, Anderson's club posted three straight seasons of 41 or more victories. They were the No. 1 national seed in the NCAA Tournament in 2006 and reached the super regionals in 2007. The Pokes climbed as high as a No. 5 national ranking in 2008 and finished each of the three seasons from 2006-08 ranked.

At Houston from 2013-2017, his pitchers helped the Cougars to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including a NCAA Super Regional in 2014. His staff's finished in the top-10 nationally in ERA during three of his five years on campus.

Anderson and his wife, Sandra, have two children: a daughter, Katelyn, and a son, Brett. Katelyn was on the track team at the University of Texas and recently graduated with her law degree from UT's School of Law. Brett spent 13 years in the Major Leagues from 2009-2021 after being selected in the second round of the 2006 draft out of Stillwater (OK) High School. Brett made his Major League debut on April 10, 2009 for Oakland vs. Seattle. In his 13 seasons in the Majors, Anderson was 67-74 in 222 career games (210 starts). He enjoyed most of his success across the bay in Oakland from 2009-13, going 43-43 with a 3.91 ERA in 132 games (121 starts).

Oscar Bernard embarks on his second season in the Giants organization after spending the previous nine years with the San Diego Padres organization. He spent seven seasons as the Padres' minor league hitting coordinator, most recently in 2024 (also held the same position from 2017-2022). In 2019, he was the hitting coach for the Peoria Javelinas of the Arizona Fall League.

Under then-Padres' Manager Bob Melvin in 2023, Bernard served as an assistant hitting coach on the Major League staff.

Bernard originally joined the Padres in 2016 as hitting coach for the Tri-City Dust Devils after spending the previous three seasons with the Chicago Cubs organization. With Chicago, Bernard served as a hitting coach for the Cubs DSL affiliate from 2013-14 before holding the same title at Rookie-level Mesa in 2015.

He spent the 2008-12 seasons as a coach in the Texas Rangers organization serving as hitting coach for the DSL Rangers from 2008-2009, hitting coach for the AZL Rangers from 2010-2011 and hitting coach for the Spokane Indians in 2012.

The Dominican Republic native originally signed with the Cubs as a non-drafted free agent in April 2001 and spent five seasons as a position player (2001-05) and two as a pitcher (2006-07).

Bernard's brother, Miguel Bernard, played six seasons as a catcher in the Atlanta Braves system from 2000-2005. Upon retirement, Miguel became a coach in the Royals and Blue Jays systems, totaling a 103-166 (.383) record in the DSL.

Hector Borg joins the Major League staff for the 2026 season as the third base coach. The 2026 campaign will be his 19th with the Giants organization as a coach and his first at the Major League level.

The 40-year-old spent the past two seasons as the coordinator of the Giants Arizona Complex. Prior to that, Borg, a native of the Dominican Republic, spent four seasons from 2020-2023 as the club's coordinator of Latin American development.

His work as a coach in the Giants system began in 2008 when he served on the DSL Giants coaching staff for four seasons from 2008-2011. He was an infield instructor with Short-Season Salem-Keizer in 2012 before coaching on Single-A Augusta's staff from 2013-2016. He managed for the first time in 2017, taking the helm of the Rookie-level AZL Giants in the Arizona Complex League. That year the club went 34-22, finished in first place in the AZL East and had the second-best record in the league. Borg was named the AZL Manager of the Year for his work with the club. In 2018 he managed Salem-Keizer of the Northwest League to a 36-40 finish.

After beginning 2019 as the DSL Giants fundamentals coach, Borg became the interim manager of High-A San Jose in mid-July after Bill Hayes resigned mid-season. Borg guided that club to a 25-19 record the remainder of the season and overcame a 5.5 game deficit to make the California League postseason with a wild card berth.

The Dominican Republic native has also coached extensively in the Dominican in addition to his work with the Giants. He's coached in the Dominican Winter League for 17 seasons, currently doing so for Licey as the bench coach. Licey won the Dominican Winter League for the 2023-24 and 2024-25 seasons with Borg on staff as the bench coach. Prior to his work with Licey, Borg was a part of the Toros del Este staff that won the LIDOM crown in 2019 and the Caribbean Series later that year. Borg spent 13 seasons with the Toros in various capacities ranging from third base coach to GM assistant. He actually started coaching in Venezuela in the Liga Paralela de Béisbol, which is like an AAA / alternate site winter league in the country for a month in 2007.

Borg was also the manager for the Dominican Republic squad during the 2020 Tokyo Olympics (played in 2021) that received a bronze medal. That club featured current Mariners star outfielder Julio Rodríguez, who had yet to make his MLB debut, six-time All-Star and three-time Silver Slugger winner José Bautista as well as former Major Leaguers Melky Cabrera and Emilio Bonafacio, among others.

As a player, Borg was signed as an International free agent by the Giants in 2004 and played four seasons in SF's minor league system through 2007. An infielder who played third base, shortstop and second base, Borg reached as high as Single-A Augusta in 2006.

In 2025, Bailey led the Majors with a +31 Fielding Run Value, +25 Catcher Framing Runs, +19 Defensive Runs Saved, a 47.7% shadow strike rate (min. 4,100 pitches) and was tied for first in pop time to second base (1.86s).

Burg had a nine-year pro playing career, a span which included three seasons in the Giants system from 2009-12. Originally selected by the Giants in the 24th round of the 2009 June draft, he saw action in the San Francisco (2010-12), Miami (2013-14), Texas (2015-16), and Los Angeles-NL (2018) organizations, as well as one season with Long Island (2017) in the independent Atlantic League.

Burg was drafted out of Washington State University, where he batted a team-high .346 as a senior in 2009 while leading the Cougars to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1990. He also attended Clemson University and played in 47 games as a freshman and sophomore for the Tigers. Burg was the Washington State Player of the Year at Mount Rainier High School as a senior in 2005. The Des Moines, WA native resides in Dallas with his wife, Sindhu.

He appeared in 657 games and made 85 starts during his Major League career, amassing a 4.27 career ERA with 1,044 strikeouts in 1,142.0 innings. He won a World Series with Atlanta in 2021 and appeared in 11 career postseason games (seven of the 11 came in 2021) with a 1.42 ERA during his career.

He enjoyed one of the best regular-season performances of his career in 2018 when he pitched in 62 combined games between Texas and the Cubs while logging a 2.55 ERA in 95.1 innings. After joining Chicago, Chavez posted a 1.15 ERA in 32 appearances while striking out 42 in 39.0 innings. He'd make his first appearance in a postseason game later that year. With the Braves from 2021-2024, Chavez appeared in 172 games (six starts) and posted a 2.91 ERA with a 1.20 WHIP and a 9.13 K/9ip ratio.

The California native was also used mostly as a starter in three of his 18 Major League seasons, two of which came in 2014 and 2015 when he pitched across the bay in Oakland. He also made 21 starts for the Angels in 2017.

Originally drafted by the Cubs in the 39th round of the 2001 draft out of A.B. Miller High School in Fontana, CA, Chavez elected to attend Riverside City College. He was then selected by Texas in the 42nd round of the 2002 draft and began his journey to the Majors at Short-Season Spokane as a 19-year-old in 2003. In addition to his 657 career games in the Majors, Chavez appeared in 344 games in the minors from 2003-2025. In total, Chavez brings over 1,000 career games of experience to his role as bullpen coach in 2026.

Justin Meccage joins the Giants as a pitching coach on Tony Vitello's staff for the 2026 campaign. The 2026 season will be his 16th season coaching in professional baseball (eighth at the MLB level) and 23rd as a coach since he began his coaching career in the college ranks in 2004.

Meccage spent the 2025 season as one of the pitching coaches at Triple-A Nashville in the Brewers organization. The Sounds had the third-best ERA (3.91) in the 20-team International League, allowed the second-fewest homers, issued the second-fewest walks and had the third-best WHIP in the circuit.

Prior to his work in Nashville, Meccage spent seven seasons on the Pirates Major League staff serving as the assistant pitching coach (2018-2019) and bullpen coach (2020-2024).

Overall, Meccage spent 14 seasons in the Pirates organization from 2011-2024 working his way up from pitching coach at Short-Season State College in 2011 to his roles on the Major League staff. During his time in the Pirates system he worked through the system with many of the organization's top pitching prospects including Tyler Glasnow, among others.

From August 2007-2010, Meccage was a coach at Arkansas State University. He served as Arkansas State's pitching coach in 2010 and was named the Sun Belt Conference Assistant Coach of the Year by SEBaseball.com.

As a player, Meccage was drafted in the 32nd round of the 2002 draft out of Oklahoma State University by the Yankees. He pitched two seasons in the Yankees system (2002-2003) at Short-Season Staten Island where he played for current Twins manager Derek Shelton in 2002.

In his two seasons at Oklahoma State, Meccage was 6-2 with a 4.60 ERA and 75 strikeouts in 31 games for the Pokes. He played for two years at Arizona Western College before attending OSU.

Meccage and his wife, Stacee, have three sons: Kyler, Hudson and Rylan. Kyler, an outfielder and left-handed pitcher at the IMG Academy in Bradenton, FL, recently committed to play collegiately at Mississippi State following his graduation in 2027.

Justin's brother, Jeremy, was a four-year starter at Iowa during his collegiate days and was drafted twice by the Dodgers (once out of high school and again after his junior season at Iowa). Jeremy also coached collegiately, spending 13 years as an assistant coach at Princeton. Jeremy's son (Justin's nephew), Bryce, is currently a pitcher in the Brewers organization and made 19 starts at Single-A Carolina in his first season of pro ball in 2025. Bryce was a second-round pick of the Brewers in 2024 out of The Pennington School (NJ).

2018	New Hampshire (AA) Hitting Coach
2019-2022	Minor League Hitting Coordinator
2022-2025	Assistant Hitting Coach
SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS
2026-pres.	Hitting Coach

Mense was initially brought to the Major League staff in 2022 to help Jays' hitters focus on swing mechanics and drill design. Prior to joining the Major League staff, Mense was a hitting coach at Double-A New Hampshire in 2018 and then promoted to minor league hitting coordinator in 2019. His other professional coaching stop came in 2017 where he was the hitting coach at Short-Season Tri City in the Padres organization.

The Liberty, MO native's coaching career began where his playing career started, the University of Missouri. A Tigers player from 2004-2006 under a Mizzou staff that included current Giants skipper Tony Vitello, Mense returned to school following his playing career to finish his degree and join the coaching staff. He coached for six seasons at Mizzou from 2011-16 as an assistant coach. His first four seasons were spent as an undergraduate and graduate assistant on staff before he was the team's hitting coach in 2015 and 2016.

As a player at Mizzou, Mense was an All-American in 2006 and was a 2005 All-Big-12 honoree as well. He played for three NCAA regional teams and the '06 club that reached the super regionals. Mense was teammates of Max Scherzer for all three of his seasons on campus.

He was a member of USA Baseball's 2005 College National Team. He was teammates on that squad with future Major Leaguers Sean Doolittle, Ian Kennedy, Mark Melancon, David Price, Max Scherzer, Drew Stubbs and Matt Wieters among others. Current Giants first base coach Shane Robinson was also an outfielder on that 2005 USA squad with Mense.

A 17th-round draft pick of the Marlins in 2006 as a first baseman/outfielder, Mense played in the minors from 2006-2010 among various Marlins affiliates. He was named a Mid-Season All-Star with Short-Season Jamestown in 2006 and reached as high as Triple-A New Orleans during his final season. Across his time in pro ball, Mense appeared in 349 career games and batted .254 with 61 doubles, seven triples, 19 homers and 124 RBI.

He also played Independent baseball with Kansas City in 2010 (when they were a member of the Northern League) and 2012 (when they were in the American Association).

Off the field, Mense earned his master's degree in sports psychology from Mizzou in 2016. He and his wife, Nici, currently make their offseason home in Liberty, MO with their son, Mason, and daughter, Peyton.

Shane Robinson joins a Major League coaching staff for the first time in his coaching career as the first base coach for Tony Vitello. In addition to his role as first base coach on Vitello's staff, Robinson will also help oversee the outfield and baserunning at the Major League level.

An outfielder during his playing career, Robinson has primarily been an outfield and baserunning coach or coordinator since he transitioned to the coaching ranks. His first season as a coach came in 2022 as the bench coach with the Padres' Double-A affiliate in San Antonio. That year, the Missions finished 68-68 but ranked in the top third of the 10-team Texas League in triples (29, 1st), batting average (.266, 2nd) and stolen bases (165, 3rd).

2026-pres.	First Base Coach

Following one season in that role, Robinson went to the New York Mets where he was the minor league outfield and baserunning coordinator in 2023 and the outfield coordinator in 2024. He joined the Giants in 2025 as their minor league outfield and baserunning coordinator and. Last season, Giants minor leaguers at full season affiliates stole a combined 639 bases, an increase of 58 steals from 2024 all while maintaining the same amount of times they were caught (157) from 2024.

As a player, Robinson appeared in 461 career Major League games for St. Louis (2009, 2011-2014), Minnesota (2015), Los Angeles-AL (2016-2017) and New York-AL (2018). He appeared in a career-best 102 games in 2012 for St. Louis and hit .253. Overall, Robinson slashed .221/.288/580 in his Major League career. In 717 career minor league games from 2006-2019, Robinson slashed .286/.348/.390 with 129 doubles, 24 triples, 33 homers, 276 RBI and 115 steals. He played mostly center field during his minors career, appearing in 463 games there and posting a .991 fielding percentage.

In college, Robinson was a standout at Florida State University from 2004-2006 and is a member of the school's Athletics Hall of Fame. As a freshman in 2004, Robinson started all 68 games and finished the year by being named the ACC Tournament MVP after going 11-for-26 during the tournament.

He broke out during his sophomore campaign, turning in one of the best seasons in FSU history. He was a consensus first-team All-American and was named Collegiate Baseball's National Player of the Year. He led the nation in hits (122)and runs scored (96) and finished in the top-5 nationally in on-base percentage (.532), doubles (25), steals (49), steal attempts (56), games played (73) and games started (73). During his remarkable season he also put together a school-record 40-game hitting streak, which was also the ninth-longest ever in Division I history.

He was a member of USA Baseball's 2005 College National Team following his sophomore year at FSU. He was teammates on that squad with fellow future Major Leaguers Sean Doolittle, Ian Kennedy, Mark Melancon, David Price, Max Scherzer, Drew Stubbs and Matt Wieters among others. Current Giants hitting coach Hunter Mense was also an outfielder on that 2005 USA squad with Robinson.

In total, Robinson started all 206 games during his Seminoles career. He was teammates with current President of Baseball Operations Buster Posey for Posey's first season on campus (2006) before Robinson was taken in the fifth round of the 2006 draft by the Cardinals.

A native of Tampa, Robinson graduated from Tampa Jesuit High School, the same school that produced baseball personnel like Lou Pinella, Brad Radke, Jason Michaels, Lance McCullers Jr. and Dave Magadan. Robinson lettered all four years in both baseball and football and earned first-team All-State honors in both sports during his junior and senior seasons.

Robinson and his wife, Jess, have two children: Tinley and Harper and make their offseason home in Atlanta.

TOTAL COACHING EXPERIENCE | 19 SEASONS
PRO COACHING EXPERIENCE | 19 SEASONS

Jayce Tingler embarks on his first season in the Giants organization and will serve as bench coach under Tony Vitello, his former teammate at the University of Missouri. The 2026 season marks Tingler's 20th season as a coach, manager or front office executive in professional baseball.

Tingler spent the last four seasons working as the bench coach on Rocco Baldelli's staff in Minnesota. The Twins made the postseason once in Tingler's time there, winning the American League Central in 2023 by going 87-75. That club advanced to the ALDS before falling to Houston in four games. Overall, the Twins finished above the .500 mark in two of Tingler's four seasons on staff.

Prior to coaching in Minnesota, Tingler was the manager of the San Diego Padres from 2020-2021 and guided the Padres to a postseason berth in the shortened 2020 campaign. Tingler's club finished that season 37-23 to clinch a Wild Card spot. He finished second in the NL Manager of the Year voting in 2020, receiving six first-place votes and 71 points overall.

The first 13 seasons of Tingler's coaching career were spent in the Rangers organization from 2007-2019. He held various roles in the minor leagues before his first role on a Major League staff from 2015-16 when he served as the Rangers field coordinator when the club captured back-to-back AL West division titles. Tingler was responsible for outfield and baserunning on that staff. In 2017 he moved to the front office as assistant general manager where he oversaw the club's player development system. He remained in that capacity until 2018 when he re-joined the Major League staff as interim bench coach for the final 10 games of the season. He returned to a front office role in 2019 when he served as the Major League player development field development coordinator.

As a player, Tingler was selected by Toronto in the 10th round of the 2003 draft out of Mizzou and played parts of four minor league seasons with the Blue Jays (2003-05) and Rangers (2006). He batted .271 over 389 career games. He earned two All-Star nods (2004 with High-A Dunedin and 2006 with High-A Bakersfield). He reached Double-A Frisco in his final playing season in 2006.

At Missouri, Tingler was a Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American in 2000 and finished his Tigers' career as the school's all-time leader in hits, walks and runs (he's still the school leader in walks and runs). In addition to playing with Vitello at Missouri, Tingler also played with Ian Kinsler at Mizzou in 2003.

Prior to Mizzou, Tingler starred at Smithville (MO) High School where he played both baseball and basketball. As a senior he earned USA Today All-American honorable mention in baseball and a McDonald's All-American nomination in basketball. Tingler still owns Smithville school records for points, assists, steals and three-pointers.

Tingler and his wife, Callie, have two sons Gabe and Gio. His parents, Diana and Steve, were both college basketball players. Diana also played college softball and coached high school basketball, track and softball for 30 years en route to her induction into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2017. Steve is an inductee in the Missouri High School Fastpitch Coaches Association Hall of Fame, honoring his 20 years of coaching softball at the high school and NAIA levels.

Ron Washington joins the Giants organization for the 2026 season, serving as the Major League infield coach on Tony Vitello's staff. The 2026 season will be Washington's 36th as a coach in professional baseball and his 55th overall season in pro ball including his playing career.

Washington, 73, most recently went 99-137 in two seasons as the Angels manager. His club was 36-38 in 2025 before he had to step away for health reasons in June of 2025. He later underwent quadruple bypass heart surgery.

It was Washington's second stint as a Major League manager after he skippered the Texas Rangers from 2007-2014 and led them to consecutive American League pennants in 2010 and 2011. His Rangers' squad had four straight 90+ win seasons from 2010-2013 and five straight 85+ win seasons from 2009-2013.

No stranger to the Bay Area, Washington spent a good chunk of his coaching career across the bay with Oakland. He served as their first base coach in 1996 before a 10-year run as the A's third base coach. After managing in Texas, Washington returned to the A's as a special instructor in 2015 before getting back on the field as the third base coach later that season through 2016.

He took up the same role with the Atlanta Braves from 2017-2023 and was part of the coaching staff in 2021 when the Braves won the World Series.

Known for his work with infielders, Washington helped Freddie Freeman win his only Gold Glove in 2018 while also helping Dansby Swanson and Ozzie Albies to being finalists at their respective positions for the award. Josh Donaldson was also a Gold Glove finalist at third base in the one season he was in Atlanta working with Washington. During his time with the A's, Washington was instrumental in the development of six-time Gold Glove winner Eric Chavez.

As a player, Washington played parts of 10 seasons in the Majors (1977, 1981-1989) for the Dodgers, Twins, Orioles, Indians and Astros. In 564 career games, Washington hit .261 as an infielder. He batted .368 in 10 games in 1977 with the Dodgers after making his MLB debut but did not return to the Majors until 1981 with Minnesota. All told, Washington played professionally from 1971-1990 before getting into coaching.

Ron and his wife, Gerry, reside in New Orleans in the offseason. Washington, a New Orleans native, attended John McDonogh High School before attending Mantaee Junior College in Bradenton, FL. He was honored by his high school on February 3, 2009 in what was declared "Ron Washington Day" in the city of New Orleans.

AWARDS |

WILLIE MAC AWARD
2025

2025 RECAP |

- Made his seventh Opening Day roster, first as a Giant.
- Became the first Giants player to reach 30 home runs in a season since Barry Bonds had 45 home runs in 2004...he became the first Giants infielder and right-handed hitter to reach 30 homers in a season since Jeff Kent (37 homers in 2002).
- Adames also became one of six players to have three or more seasons with 30+ homers in a season when playing 90% or more of their games as a shortstop, joining Álex Rodríguez (seven), Francisco Lindor (six), Miguel Tejada (four), Ernie Banks (four) and Corey Seager (three).
- Led the club with 30 homers and 12 steals, becoming the first shortstop to lead the Giants in both categories in a season since George Davis in 1897.
- His 30 homers as a shortstop were tied with Francisco Lindor for most in the Majors while his 87 RBI ranked third.
- Appeared in 160 of SF's 162 games made 158 starts at shortstop...marked the second-most games by a Giants SS in franchise history behind only José Pagán (164 games) in 1962.
- Logged four multi-homer games (5/4 vs. COL, 7/19 at TOR, 8/22 at MIL, 8/28 vs. CHC)...his four multi-HR games were the most by a Giant since Barry Bonds (2004) and the most by an infielder since Matt Williams, who had five in 1994.
- Is one of two Giants shortstops since 1900 to have four multi-homer games in a season, joining Travis Jackson (1929).

- Drew a career-high 80 walks on the season.
- His 26 go-ahead RBI were fifth-most in the NL.
- Recorded his sixth career walk-off hit and RBI with an 11th-inning, two-run single in the Giants' home opener on April 4 vs. Seattle.
- Became the fourth Giants player with a walk-off hit in his first home game with the team, since 1900, joining Rey Sanchez (April 7, 1998), Fran Healy (April 15, 1971) and Moe Solomon (Sept. 30, 1923).
- Hit his first home run as a Giant on April 14 at Philadelphia, a solo shot off RHP Taijuan Walker.
- Recorded his eighth career multi-home run game on May 4 vs. Colorado...also included his first home run as a Giant at Oracle Park.
- His 1st-inning two-run HR on June 11 at Coors Field traveled 452 feet, the second-farthest home run of his career (462ft - Sept. 21, 2019).
- Received a standing ovation in his return to American Family Field on August 22 and homered twice for his 10th career multi-homer game...also marked his first career game with two homers of left-handed pitchers (LHP Jose Quintana & LHP Aaron Ashby) in the same game.
- Both he and Rafael Devers hit nine HRs in August, which were the most by a Giant in a single month since Brandon Belt also homered nine times in September/October 2021.
- With his 28th homer on Sept. 9 vs. Arizona, he became the first Giant to hit a home run in eight straight series since Barry Bonds did it in 2003.
- Hit a leadoff homer on the first pitch he saw in the final game of the season on September 28 vs. COL for his 30th home run of the season...it was his first career leadoff home run.

OFF THE FIELD

Grew up in a small mountain town called Jánico in the Santiago province of the Dominican Republic. Was raised there with his sister, Nixzali, by their parents Ana Sobeida and Romulo Rafael. Romulo worked in construction and then operated a warehouse.

Left home when he was 14 so that he could go train at the academy in the city. Adames sat down with Diggin' Deep last spring and detailed his baseball journey. Scan or click the QR code below to watch the 45-minute episode.

Adames' Untold Journey From The DR To MLB
Diggin Deep

When Adames was five-years-old he'd tag along when his uncles and cousins played baseball every Sunday. He'd wear a miniature version of their uniform.

To help Adames become a better hitter, Hall of Famer Barry Larkin taught to box. Larkin says the key is being rotational with the lower half while staying linear with the upper half. Adames trained with Larkin in Orlando in the 2018-19 offseason.

Willy's sister, Nixzali, is currently engaged to Milwaukee's William Contreras (Adames' former teammate).

Choose to wear #2 with the Giants because Derek Jeter was his favorite player growing up.

Is the commissioner of the Junior Giants program, following in the footsteps of PBO Buster Posey, who also served as the player ambassador his entire playing career.

Was Milwaukee's nominee for the MLBPAA's Heart and Hustle Award in both 2021 and 2024.

- Since his rookie campaign in 2019, Arraez boasts a Major League-best 6.1% strikeout rate.
- He also leads the Majors with a .317 batting average and 92.5% contact rate in that span.
- Arraez's .317 career average is highest among all active players in MLB and third-highest since 2000 (min., 3,000 PA).
- His 97 games with three or more hits since 2019 are tied with Freddie Freeman for most in the Majors.
- His 1,028 hits since his MLB debut on May 18, 2019 are fourth-most in the Majors behind Trea Turner (1,113 in 901 games), Freddie Freeman (1,103 in 947 games) and Vladimir Guerrero Jr. (1,064 in 958 games)...Arraez, however, has played in the fewest games of any of those four (840).
- For his career he's slashed .349/.401/.437 in 712 plate appearances with RISP...with RISP and two outs he's slashed .322/.403/.386 in 335 PA's.

2025 RECAP

- Appeared in a career-high 154 games with San Diego and hit .292 with 30 doubles, four triples, eight homers, 61 RBI and a career-best 11 stolen bases.
- Led the National League in hits (181) for a second consecutive year and posted the lowest strikeout rate (3.1%) and best contact rate (94.7%) in MLB for a fourth straight season.
- His 181 hits were tied with Bo Bichette for second-most in the Majors, trailing only Bobby Witt Jr. (184), while his 19 three-hit games ranked third in MLB behind Francisco Lindor and Trea Turner (20 three-hit games apiece).
- Arraez's 49 multi-hit games were tied for second-most in the NL.
- Named the Padres Heart & Hustle Award winner.
- Struck out for the first time of the season on April 9 at the A's in the 9th inning (52 consecutive at-bats)...was the only player in the Majors entering that game without a strikeout (min. 20 AB).
- Placed on the 7-day concussion IL on April 21 after colliding with HOU's Christian Walker sprinting out a sacrifice bunt in the 1st inning on April 20 at Houston...was reinstated on April 29.
- Went 112 plate appearances without a strikeout from May 26 to June 22, marking the longest stretch without a strikeout in the Majors all season and the longest in MLB since his career-long stretch of 141 straight PAs without striking out from Aug. 10 to Sept. 16, 2024.
- Logged his 1,000th career hit on Sept. 1 vs. BAL in his 818th career game...since 2000, he became just the fifth player (and fourth fastest) to reach the 1,000th hit milestone in 825 or fewer games, joining Ichiro Suzuki (692g), Albert Pujols (800g), Juan Pierre (813g) and Ryan Braun (822g).
- Ended the season hitting safely in 15 games, where he slashed .383/.415/.450 with five multi-hit efforts, a homer and seven RBI.
- The streak fell one game shy of matching his career-best stretch of 16 games from July 18 to Aug. 3, 2025 and was the longest active hitting streak to end the season.
- Appeared in three games in the Wild Card series with San Diego, going 2-for-11...it marked his fifth career trip to the postseason (also: 2019-20 w/MIN, 2023 w/MIA, 2024-25 w/SD).

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Became the only player in Major League history to win three consecutive batting titles with three different teams. Led all National League batters with 200 hits and a .314 average.

Named an All-Star for the third consecutive season.

Acquired by the Padres from Miami on May 4. Went 4-for-6 that day at AZ to become the first Padre to collect four hits in his team debut.

Named NL Player of the Week on May 26 after hitting .472 (17-for-36) with a HR, four RBI, two doubles, .611 SLG & a .472 OBP in eight games.

Did not strike out in 141 consecutive plate appearances from August 11-September 15. It marked the longest such streak since Juan Pierre's stretch of 147 PAs without a strikeout from Aug. 15-Sept. 20, 2004.

Became the first MLB player since Jason Kendall (2002) to strike out fewer than 30 times across 600+ plate appearances.

Underwent surgery on his left thumb on Oct. 16 after playing with a torn ligament since June 25 vs. WSH, when he originally injured the thumb while sliding into third base on a triple.

2023 SEASON

Acquired by Miami from Minnesota on January 20 in exchange for RHP Pablo López, IF Jose Salas and OF Byron Chourio.

Crowned the NL batting champion with Miami. Became the first player in MLB history to win a batting title in both leagues in consecutive seasons. Also won his second Silver Slugger.

Set career highs in batting average (.354), OBP (.393), SLG (.469), OPS (.862), hits (203), homers (10) and RBI (69).

Made his second consecutive All-Star team and went 2-for-2 with hits on the first pitch he saw in each of his at-bats in the Midsummer Classic in Seattle.

On April 11 vs. Philadelphia, he became the first player in Marlins history to hit for the cycle. His cycle came with a double in the 1st inning, triple in the 6th inning, a homer in the 7th inning and a single in the 8th. He was just the sixth Venezuelan-born player to accomplish the feat.

Became one of just two players in the Wild-Card Era (since 1995) to post an average above .500 through 14 games (min. 45 PA), joining SF's Barry Bonds who hit .500 (19-for-38) through 14 games in 2004.

Played for Venezuela in the World Baseball Classic and went 4-for-17 with four runs, a double, two homers and four RBI in five games His two home runs both came on March 18 vs. Team USA to mark the first-ever multi-HR WBC game by a Team Venezuela player.

Was named a finalist for the 2023 Luis Aparicio Award, given to the league's best Venezuelan player.

2022 SEASON

Had a breakout season. Was crowned the AL Batting Champion and earned Silver Slugger honors after hitting .316 in 144 games with Minnesota.

Named AL All-Star, marking his first career All-Star selection.

His average reached a low-water mark of .296 just three times in the season and under .300 just four times.

Recorded his 400th career hit (single) on Aug. 16 vs. KC in his 348th career game, becoming the fastest Venezuelan-born player in baseball history to reach 400 hits, one game ahead of Miguel Cabrera, who did it in his 349th career game.

2021 SEASON

Made his second career Opening Day roster and appeared in 121 games with the Twins. Played 55 games at third base, 48 games at second base and 27 games in left field.

Placed on the injured list on May 4 with a concussion after a collision at home plate, attempting to score on May 3 vs. TEX. Was reinstated a week later.

2020 SEASON

Made his first career Opening Day roster. Hit .321 (36x112) with 16 runs, nine doubles, 13 RBI, eight walks and a .765 OPS in 32 games.

2019 SEASON

Made his Major League debut May 18 at Seattle, going 1-for-2 with a double.

Arraez's 29 strikeouts on the season were the fewest in MLB among players with at least 350 plate appearances.

Appeared in three games for the Twins in the 2019 ALDS vs. the Yankees, going 5-for-11 with four doubles.

2018 SEASON

Named Florida State League Player of the Month for June after hitting .449 (48-for-107) with nine doubles, three triples, a homer, 13 RBI, 19 runs scored and a .487 OBP in 26 games for the Fort Myers Miracle.

Played for Navegantes del Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League. Hit .336 (46-for-137) with a .370 OBP in 33 games.

2017 SEASON

Missed the majority of the season with a right knee sprain.

2016 SEASON

Named to the Midwest League Mid-Season and Postseason All-Star teams with Low-A Cedar Rapids. =

Won the Midwest League batting title after hitting .347 (165-for-475) and finished second in the league in hits (165) and fourth in OBP (.386).

2015 SEASON

Selected as a GCL Postseason All-Star and Baseball America Rookie All-Star. Was also named the second baseman on the Twins Organization All-Star team by MiLB.com.

His 23.30 PA/SO ratio was the best in the GCL and ranked as the 3rd-highest in all of minor league baseball.

Luis and his wife, Gladys, live in Doral, FL with their three daughters: Emma, Esther, and Esthela.

His favorite Venezuelan food is arepas.

LA REGADERA

His nickname is La Regadera, which means "The Sprinkler" because he sprays balls all over the field.

Luis' parents came to the U.S. from Venezuela during the final homestand of the 2023 season to see Arraez play in the Major Leagues for the first time. His father, Ernesto, spoke about his early hitting lessons with Luis at 2 years old where he would tie a ball to a mango tree in their backyard where he taught him to hit the ball to the opposite field.

Some of his favorites musicians are El Alfa, Gilberto Santa Rosa and Antony Santos. His favorite type of dance is Merengue and he also likes salsa.

2025 RECAP |

- Slashed .277/.347/.449 (.796 OPS) with 124 hits, 61 runs, 24 doubles, a triple, 17 home runs, 54 RBI and 11 stolen bases in 146 games between the Twins (96) and Phillies (50).
- Set career-bests in hits, batting average, doubles, home runs, RBI, on-base percentage and OPS while tying his career-high in runs scored.
- Slashed .258/.339/.439 (778 OPS) in 96 games (307 PA) with the Twins before being acquired by the Phillies at the July 31 trade deadline in exchange for OF Hendry Mendez and RHP Geremy Villoria.
- Hit .305 with 30 runs, 11 doubles, five home runs, 16 RBI and an .824 OPS in 50 games for the Phillies.
- His .305 average from August 1 through end of the season was seventh best in MLB (min. 50 games).
- Ranked T-7th among all MLB outfielders with 13 DRS...was worth +7 OAA for the year as well.
- Made his Phillies debut as a pinch-hitter on August 1 vs. Detroit and had his first hit on August 4 vs. Baltimore (a three-run homer to give Philadelphia) a 6-3 lead in the 6th inning.
- Slashed .273/.347/.477 with an .824 OPS with RISP and two outs.
- Had a four-hit game (tied for career-high) on August 28 vs. Atlanta.
- Had a career-high 16-game on-base streak with Minnesota from April 25-May 14 (G2).
- Started in center field in Game 1 of the NLDS vs. LAD and recorded a sacrifice fly and was hit by a pitch before being removed from the game with groin tightness.
- Was used as a pinch-hitter the rest of the series, going 1-for-2.

2024 SEASON

Spent his only season with the New York Mets, setting career-bests (at the time) in RBI (51), plate appearances (437), games played (143) and at-bats (402).

Went 1-for-1 with a pair of runs in Game 1 of the NLDS at Philadelphia after entering the game as a pinch-runner in the 8th inning. He joined Melvin Mora (1999 NLCS Game 2 at Atlanta) and Benny Agbayani (NLCS Game 6 at Atlanta) as the only players in Mets history to score two runs in a Postseason game off the bench.

2023 SEASON

Appeared in 98 games between New York-AL (84 games) and Cincinnati (14 games) while logging his first career 20-steal season.

Had three separate trips to the IL, missing time with the Yankees for a strained left oblique March 27 to May 2) and a right hamstring strain (May 30-June 20). His final IL stint came with the Reds, missing the final two weeks of the season with a sports hernia and right adductor muscle strain.

Was designated for assignment by the Yankees and subsequently claimed off waivers by Cincinnati on August 31.

2022 SEASON

Appeared in games for both the Cardinals (72 games) and Yankees (14 games) after a trade deadline deal sent him to the Yankees.

Logged a career-high 11-game hitting streak from May 17 (G2)-May 31.

Placed on the 10-day Injured List on June 27 (right foot plantar fasciitis) by the Cardinals and was out until being activated on September 20 by the Yankees.

Acquired by the Yankees on August 2 in exchange for LHP Jordan Montgomery.

Hit five homers in his first nine Postseason games with NYY, tying Bernie Williams for a club record. He batted .333 with a 1.262 OPS during the 2022 Postseason.

Became the fifth Yankee in franchise history to hit 5+ home runs in a single Postseason joining Giancarlo Stanton (6, 2020), Álex Rodríguez (6, 2009), Bernie Williams (6, 1996) and Reggie Jackson (5, 1977).

Was the first Yankee to homer in his first Postseason at-bat with the team since Shane Spencer (Game 2 of the 1998 ALDS vs. Texas).

Joined Raúl Ibañez, Álex Rodríguez, Joe Pepitone, Phil Rizzuto and Lou Gehrig as the only New York-born players to homer for the Yankees in the Postseason (at the time).

2021 SEASON

Won a Gold Glove Award with +18 defensive runs saved. His .973 zone rating was the best by an OF since the stat started being tracked in1987 (min. 103g) (Stats, LLC).

Turned in his best offensive season to date as well, clubbing 16 homers with 21 doubles, 50 RBI and a .785 OPS in 103 games.

Also missed 58 games due to a pair of IL stints, the last one because he sustained a hairline rib fracture on an attempted diving catch on May 24 at the White Sox.

Named the NL Player of the Week on for the span of September 20-26, his first career POW award in the Majors. He batted .517/.548/1.000 with 10 runs, five doubles, three homers, six RBI and two stolen bases during the span.

Homered in three-straight games from September 24 (G2) - 26, the longest such streak of his career.

Was 0-for-1 with a walk and was hit twice in the Cardinals' lone Postseason game, a loss to the Dodgers in the NLWC Game. Was the 10th player in MLB Postseason history to draw 1+ walks and be hit 2+ times in a game. He also became the first Cardinal to be hit twice in a Postseason game.

2020 SEASON

Played 49 of his 50 games in center field while ranking third in the Majors with a .974 outfielder zone rating.

2019 SEASON

Named the "Best Defensive Outfielder" in the NL in a Baseball America survey voted by managers, coaches, scouts and executives.

Ranked inside the NL's top-5 in outfield double plays (4, 1st), zone rating (.956, 2nd) and outs above average (13, third).

Was one of eight players in the Majors in 2019 to record 10+ home runs (12), stolen bases (11) and hit by pitches (10).

2018 SEASON

Named to both the Baseball America and Topps All-Rookie Teams.

Ranked inside the top-10 among NL rookies in runs scored (4th, 61), doubles (5th, 20), home runs (5th, 12), walks (6th, 31), SLG (7th, .422), hits (6th, 100), multi-hit games (t-5th, 23), total bases (5th, 160) and extra base hits (5th, 34).

Became the first Cardinal rookie with two outfield assists in a game since Leon Durham (1980) on June 15 vs. Chicago-NL.

2017 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on July 25 vs. Colorado, starting in center field. Logged his first MLB hit with a double in the 9th inning.

Hit first major league homer on September 1 at San Francisco off Johnny Cueto in the 3rd inning.

Became the ninth player in Cardinals history to have three or more home runs in his first 11 MLB games.

Named the Cardinals Minor League Player of the Year after slashing .283/.347/.469 with 74 runs, 18 doubles, 20 home runs and 55 RBI in 123 games with Triple-A Memphis.

2016 SEASON

Named an MiLB.com Organization All-Star, an AFL Rising Star, a TEX Mid-Season All-Star and to the AFL All-Prospect Team.

2015 SEASON

Named Midwest League Player of the Week on August 31 while playing for Peoria. Went 13-for-29 (.448) with six runs, a double, two triples, two home runs and six RBI in seven games.

Selected in the third round (100th overall) by St. Louis out of the University of Florida.

AT FLORIDA

Became the 11th player in Florida Gators baseball history to reach 20+ home runs, 100+ RBI and 30+ stolen bases in a career.

In 2015, was named a Dick Howser Award Semifinalist, Perfect Game Second-Team All-American, NCBWA Third-Team All-American, NCAA College World Series All-Tournament Team and NCAA Gainesville Regional All-Tournament Team.

Graduated from Horace Mann School in the Bronx where he starred on the baseball team. Famous alumni from Horace Mann include The West Wing's Joshua Malina, former Pirate Pedro Álvarez and Robert Tishman (real estate developer and co-founder of Tishman Speyer) among countless others. The Mission Rock project across McCovey Cove was done in conjunction with Tishman-Speyer.

Bader's father, Louis, is a retired tax attorney, while his mother, Janice, was a talented youth basketball player and later Sports Illustrated marketing executive. Harrison also has a sister, Sasha.

Bader grew up a Yankees fan idolizing Derek Jeter. His father, Louis, grew up idolizing Mickey Mantle and Roger Marris. Harrison was actually at home in Bronxville rehabbing an injury when he heard about the trade from St. Louis to the Yankees and ran downstairs to tell his dad.

Bader's first cousin is Chris Baio, the bassist for the band Vampire Weekend. Vampire Weekend's second album, Contra, reached No. 1 on the Billboard 200 in 2009. Bader appears in the band's video for Oxford Comma wearing a cowboy hat and red bandanna.

His first cousin once removed is Scott Baio, who is an actor that starred in Happy Days and Joanie Loves Chachi.

Teammates at Florida included Pete Alonso, Danny Young, A.J. Puk and former Giant Shaun Anderson. Alonso, Young and Bader reunited with the Mets in 2024.

THE OUTFIELD

His favorite athletes growing up were outfielders Jim Edmonds and Torii Hunter.

Bader was selected to play for Team Israel in the 2023 World Baseball Classic but withdrew because of an injury. Bader is slated to play for Israel in this year's WBC.

Mother, Janice is of Sicilian ancestry, is a great cook and baker. His favorite cookies she makes are white chocolate chip.

HEY NAPOLEON...

Bader got his nickname "Tots" his freshman year at Horace Mann. A teammate made a comment in a gym full of people, saying "give me a side of Bader Tots" and it stuck. Some of the teams he's played for in his MLB career have sold special "Bader Tots" in their ballparks with proceeds benefiting charities.

GOLD GLOVE
2024, 2025

FIELDING BIBLE AWARD
2024, 2025

2025 RECAP |

- Won his second-consecutive Gold Glove Award from Rawlings in early November...became the first catcher in the NL to win the award in back-to-back seasons since STL's Yadier Molina won in eight consecutive seasons from 2008-2015.
- Is the first catcher in franchise history to take home multiple Gold Gloves as a Giant.
- Led the Majors with +25 Catcher Framing Runs...was worth +14 on balls outside the zone (turning them into strikes) and +11 in the strike zone (keeping strikes a strike).
- Also ranked among MLB's best in Defensive Runs Saved (+19, 1st), shadow strike rate (47.7%, 2nd) and pop time to 2B (1.86s, T-1st).
- Made his second career Opening Day roster.
- Recorded his fourth career walk-off hit and RBI with a pinch-hit single in the bottom of the 9th inning on April 26 vs. Texas.
- Placed on the 10-day Injured List June 11 with a neck strain...missed a total of eight games before being reinstated from the IL on June 18.
- Charged with two passed balls in his game July 1 at Arizona, marking the first time in his career he's had two passed balls in a game.
- Logged his first walk-off homer of the season and third of his career with an inside-the-park walk-off on July 8 vs. Philadelphia...it was the first inside-the-park walk-off HR in MLB since CLE's Tyler Naquin on August 19, 2016 vs. Toronto.
- It was the second walk-off inside-the-park home run by a Giant since the start of 1932, with the other being Ángel Pagán on May 25, 2013 vs. Colorado (Sarah Langs).
- Became the third catcher with a walk-off inside-the-park home run, joining Bennie Tate (8/11/1926) and Pat Moran (8/4/1907).

- Was also the first Giants catcher with an inside-the-park home run since Bob Brenly on August 29, 1984 vs. the Expos.
- Hit a walk-off grand slam on September 12 vs. LAD, marking his second career grand slam...it was also his sixth career walk-off hit and fourth career walk-off home run (last: 7/8/25 vs. PHI).
- The feat marked the seventh walk-off grand slam in franchise history.
- Bailey became the first player in MLB history with a walk-off inside-the-park home run and a walk-off grand slam in a season (Sarah Langs).
- He was also the second catcher in Giants history with a walk-off grand slam (other: April 25, 1969 by Jack Hiatt in the bottom of the 13th).

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Finished his second MLB season, appearing in a career-high 121 games while winning his first career Gold Glove.

Led MLB in catcher framing runs (16) and strike rate (52.5%). His six catcher stealing runs were second most in MLB behind LAD's Will Smith (seven).

Bailey's 10 catcher's caught stealing above average were second-best behind Smith (11) while his 1.85 pop time to second base was tied for best in MLB.

Led all catchers in defensive runs saved with 20. His 20 DRS were tied for second-most at any position with CLE's Andrés Giménez (2B). MIL's Brice Turang led MLB with 22 DRS at second base.

Landed on the 7-day Concussion List on May 4 after taking a foul tip to his mask the night before in Philadelphia. Was activated on May 11.

Continued to have concussion symptoms and was placed back on the concussion list on May 14. Visited Dr. Mickey Collins in Pittsburgh two days later, who was pleased with his progress. Was cleared from concussion protocol and reinstated from the 7-day IL on May 21 in Pittsburgh.

Hit his first career grand slam on May 24 at the Mets in the 8th inning. Became the seventh Giants catcher (eighth occurrence) to hit a go-ahead grand slam in the 8th inning or later.

2023 SEASON

Named one of three finalists for a National League Gold Glove award in his first MLB season.

His +16 catcher framing runs and 52.9% strike rate were both tops in MLB (Statcast). His pop time of 1.87 to second base was tied for second-best in MLB behind PHI's J.T. Realmuto (1.83).

Bailey's +13 DRS led SF and were third in MLB among catchers, behind ARI's Gabriel Moreno (20) and TOR's Alejandro Kirk (17).

His 20 catcher caught stealings were the most by a rookie since Jorge Alfaro had 21 in 2018 with Philadelphia.

His 12 RBI through his first 11 career games were second-most in franchise history, behind only Willard Marshall's 15 in 1942.

2022 SEASON

Earned a MiLB Gold Glove at High-A Eugene. He played 72 games at catcher and posted a .989 fielding percentage. He caught 29-of-97 basestealers (29.9%).

Named to the NWL Post-Season All-Star team and was named an MiLB.com Organization All-Star.

2021 SEASON

After initially struggling at High-A Eugene to begin the year, Bailey flourished at Single-A San Jose mid-season. Played 47 games for the SJ Giants and posted a .946 OPS while helping them to a Low-A West Championship.

AT NORTH CAROLINA STATE

In 2018, Bailey led all ACC freshmen in batting average (.321), total bases (113) and slugging (.604) while also setting a new NC State freshman home run record (13) on his way to being named the ACC Freshman of the Year.

As a sophomore in 2019, Bailey was named First Team All-ACC, ABCA All-Region and Collegiate Baseball Third Team All-American.

14

Was one of 14 semifinalists for the Buster Posey Award in 2019, given to the nation's best catcher. He was named to USA Baseball's Collegiate National team roster.

Despite the shortened 2020 season, he ranked tied for second in RBI (20), third in walks (17) and tied for fourth in home runs (six) among all ACC players.

Married NC State college sweetheart, Leigha Bruce. They have one daughter, Briella, who was born September 2022 and a son, Banks Lee, born in October 2024.

In 2025, wore the above B² logo at the top of all of his chest protectors when behind the dish in honor of his two children who's names both begin with the letter B.

Leigha graduated from NC State as a sports management major with a minor in journalism. She worked as a sportswriter and broadcaster during and after college.

START 'EM YOUNG

When Bailey was eight years old he began attending North Carolina Baseball Academy run by Scott Bankhead, a former big-league pitcher. By the age of 12 or 13 he was catching exclusively. The first big leaguer he ever caught was Yimi Garcia.

Patrick was home-schooled through middle school and then decided to attend high school at Wesleyan Christian Academy in High Point, NC where he joined the same baseball program that produced Wil Myers.

As a junior at Wesleyan Christian in 2016, he was selected for the U-18 US national baseball team. As a senior, he batted .510 with 5 HRs and 33 RBI.

After finding out he was being called up to SF, his first call was to his wife, Leigha. His second was to Craig Albernaz, former Giants Bullpen Coach and Catching Coordinator, who was a mentor to Bailey. Albernaz is now the manager of the Baltimore Orioles.

Faith is really important to Bailey and is something that has always been important in his life.

2025 RECAP |

- Appeared in 31 games for SF...paired with his 19 Triple-A games, his 50 total games pitched were a career-high...came one year after missing the majority of the 2024 season recovering from surgery that removed an aneurysm in his upper right arm
- Recalled three times (May 23, July 5 and July 25).
- Had two saves while posting a 2.87 ERA (5er, 15.2ip) in eight September games as he assumed a set-up role at end of season.
- Left-handed batters batted .202 (20x99) with 18 strikeouts off him.
- Batters were 9x64 (.141) with 18 strikeouts off his sweeper...opponents hit .215 (14x65) with 15 strikeouts vs. his four-seamer.
- Recorded at least four outs in 18 of 31 MLB games...pitched 2.0 innings in 11 of 19 games at Triple-A.
- Went 3-0-2 with a 2.59 ERA (9er, 31.1ip), 38 strikeouts and a 1.12 WHIP in 19 games with Triple-A Sacramento.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Missed the first 137 games of the season after undergoing surgery to remove an aneurysm from his upper right arm on March 4 at Stanford Medical Center. The surgery was performed by Dr. Jason Lee.

Beck had entered Spring Training with a chance to be a mainstay on SF's Major League roster before the aneurysm.

2023 SEASON

Appeared in 30 games as a reliever for SF in his first MLB season, going 3-2 with a 3.33 ERA (27er, 73.0ip) and a .235 opponents average. Made three starts for the Giants and posted a 0-1 record with a 7.50 ERA (10er, 12.0ip) and a .340 opponents average.

In his first career MLB start on August 27 vs. Atlanta, Beck retired the first 12 batters he faced through 4.0-perfect innings before allowing five-consecutive batters to reach base to start the 5th inning.

Recorded his first career save on May 26 at Milwaukee, pitching the final 3.1 innings in SF's 15-1 win.

2022 SEASON

111.1 Worked a total of 111.1 innings between Double and Triple-A, the highest of any season in his pro career.

2020 SEASON

Did not play due to the Covid-19 pandemic. He and his younger brother, Brendan, were catch partners during the shutdown.

2019 SEASON

Acquired by the Giants at the deadline from Atlanta as part of the package in return for Mark Melancon

Selected to participate in the AFL. In six starts with Scottsdale he went 1-2 with a 3.63 ERA (9er, 22.1ip) with 23 strikeouts.

AT STANFORD

Selected by Milwaukee in the 34th-round of the 2015 draft but elected to attend Stanford.

In 2016 Beck became the third Stanford freshman to start Opening Day since 1988. Was named a first-team Freshman All-American by Perfect Game/Rawlings and Baseball America.

Drafted again, this time by the Yankees in the 29th round of the 2017 MLB Draft as a sophomore despite not playing all season due to a stress fracture in his back. Elected to return to school for his junior year.

Drafted by Atlanta in the fourth round of the 2018 First-Year Player Draft as a junior. Beck received All-Pac-12 honors that year.

OFF THE FIELD

Graduated from Corona High School where as a senior he was named the 2015 Corona High School Male Athlete of the Year and earned 2015 First-Team All-State and All-Section honors.

He was a two-year starting quarterback during high school. He now enjoys throwing the football around pregame to help loosen up his arm before getting into his baseball routine.

Loves coffee. The first thing he does when he gets to the ballpark is grab a cold brew and pour it over ice. He has anywhere from 7-10 cups of coffee a day.

Considers Smucker's Uncrustables an essential item and a perfect snack. Has between 5-9 every day (either grape or strawberry).

Tristan's grandfather, Donald Piper, is a native of Wales who earned a PhD in chemistry, was hired in the US at Boeing and worked on several high-level projects such as space shuttles.

Because of their mother's ancestry, Tristan and his brother, Brendan, are playing for Great Britain in the 2026 WBC.

Always carries a book on him. Gets a lot of reading done during flights and when he has downtime. Says the best book he read in 2025 was King Leopold's Ghost: A Story of Greed, Terror, and Heroism in Colonial Africa by Adam Hochschild.

The Yankees have actually drafted both Beck brothers, taking Tristan in 2017 (he returned to school) and Brendan in the second round in 2021 (he signed). After missing all of 2024 due to injury, Brendan went 13-5 with a 3.36 ERA in 36 games (24 starts) between Double-A and Triple-A in 2025.

- Had a 0.64 ERA (1er, 14.0ip) with 22 strikeouts in 10 games from August 1 through September 2.

CAREER NOTES |

2024 SEASON

Transitioned to the bullpen in early August and struck out 26 batters in 19.0 innings (13 games, one start).

2023 SEASON

Had a back injury which limited him to just four games (three starts) in the ACL and six games in relief for the AFL's Scottsdale squad.

2022 SEASON

Entered the season ranked as the Giants' sixth-best prospect per Baseball America.

Named CAL Pitcher of the Week with San Jose for the week of May 1. Struck out five while allowing two walks, a hit batter and no hits over 5.0 innings vs. Modesto on April 22.

STARK INDUSTRIES

Bednar was a standout for Mississippi State in its run to the 2021 NCAA Baseball National Championship. Below are some of his highlights from that season. Photo courtesy of Mississippi State Athletics.

Named the 2021 Men's College World Series Most Outstanding Player as he went 3-0 with a 1.47 ERA (3er, 18.1ip) in three starts in Omaha, including the win in the clinching game vs. Vanderbilt (6.0 hitless innings).

Went 9-1 with a 3.12 ERA (32er, 92.1ip) in 19 games (16 starts) for the Bulldogs in 2021 Notched 139 strikeouts as a sophomore in 2021, tied for sixth-most in Division I.

Earned honors such as third-team All-American (NCBWA), NCAA Starkville Regional All-Tournament Team, College World Series All-Tournament Team and SEC Newcomer of the Week (May 24).

OFF THE FIELD

Graduated from Mars Area High School just outside of Pittsburgh, where he played for his father, Andy. Was primarily a catcher as a sophomore in 2017 and pitched 15.0 innings. He broke out his junior year, going 8-0 with a 0.64 ERA for the Fightin' Planets.

Is the middle child with an older brother, David, and a younger sister, Danielle.

David and Will share season tickets to the Pittsburgh Steelers (they each have two seats apiece).

David, a two-time All-Star with his hometown Pirates in 2022 and 2023, is a reliever for the Yankees. You can read more on David and Will's journey through baseball courtesy of The Athletic here.

Danielle attends Louisville and was a member of their rowing team. During the summer of 2024, Danielle was an intern with the Pirates PR department.

LET'S GO BUCS

The Bednar family grew up in Valencia, PA, 30 minutes north of Pittsburgh. They were all Pirates fans. Will's favorite players were Gerrit Cole & Andrew McCutchen.

His father, Andy, played baseball and football at Cornell and is now a math teacher and coach (baseball and football) at Mars Area High School.

Will originally committed to playing collegiately at Ohio State before switching his commitment to Mississippi State.

Will officially signed his pro contract at Oracle Park on July 23, 2021, hours before the SF was set to take on his brother's Pittsburgh Pirates. The two got a photo on the field after the game.

BEFORE THE GIANTS

Up until signing with the Giants as an international free agent in 2018, Bericoto had played catcher his entire life. It dated back to when he first stared playing baseball on his family's team, called Las Vegas, in a stadium near his hometown of Maracay. The Giants thought given his body type he'd be better suited for the outfield.

OFF THE FIELD

His grandfather (José Bericoto) and father (also Victor) were the ones that helped teach him baseball. Bericoto thinks he was about four years old when he started playing baseball.

His younger brother, José, is currently an outfielder in the Padres organization.

Growing up he played against fellow Giants NRI Diego Cartaya when they were about 10/12 years old.

- 2023 CAL POST-SEASON ALL-STAR (SAN JOSE)
- 2023 BASEBALL AMERICA SINGLE-A ALL-STAR (SAN JOSE)
- 2023 MILB.COM ORGANIZATION ALL-STAR (SAN FRANCISCO)

2025 RECAP |

- Made his first career Opening Day roster...began the season in the bullpen after having been a starter most of his pro career.
- Made his first big league relief appearance on April 2 at Houston, entering the game in the 6th inning, with SF leading the Astros, 5-3.
- Went 1-0 with a 2.31 ERA (6er, 23.1ip) in 11 relief outings.
- Joined the rotation with his first start on May 20 vs. Kansas City, taking the slot of Jordan Hicks, who was moved to the bullpen...earned the win with one unearned run allowed over 5.0 innings.
- In his start on July 21 at Atlanta, he did not record an out, allowing five runs on a base hit, a hit batter and four walks before being removed from the game.
- Did not record an out on July 21 at Atlanta, giving up five runs on one hit and four walks...he became the first SF starter to not record an out since Scott Alexander on August 8, 2023, and the first Giants starter (not including openers) since Gil Heredia on June 4, 1992.
- He was optioned postgame on July 21 and did not return to the Majors the remainder of the season.
- Was 3-4 with a 6.17 ERA (29er, 42.1ip) as a starter with the Giants in 2025.
- Went 1-3 with a 6.23 ERA (27er, 39.0ip), 47 strike-outs and a 1.85 WHIP in 10 games (all starts) for Triple-A Sacramento.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Made his MLB debut with SF, making 16 starts and going 5-6 with a 4.75 ERA.

Had his contract selected from Triple-A Sacramento on June 26 and made his MLB debut that night vs. CHC (4.2ip, 6h, 3r, 5k).

Began the year at Double-A Richmond and was 4-2 with a 2.05 ERA (11er, 48.1ip) with 61 strikeouts in 11 starts before being promoted to Triple-A on June 11.

Made two starts for Sacramento after the promotion and posted a 5.00 ERA (5er, 9.0ip) with 14 strikeouts before his eventual MLB debut on June 26.

Recorded 12 strikeouts in his start against Colorado at Coors Field on July 21, the most he'd ever accumulated in an outing in his pro career. His 12 punchouts were the most by a Giants pitcher ever at Coors Field.

2023 SEASON

Split the season between three levels and combined to go 2-5 with a 3.31 ERA (37er, 100.2ip) with 149 strikeouts overall.

His 3.31 season ERA was best among SF Minor Leaguers (min 100.0ip)

Was the fourth player from the 2022 Giants draft class to reach the upper minors, joining second-rounder Carson Whisenhunt, eighth-rounder Wade Meckler, and tenth-rounder John Michael Bertrand.

AT EASTERN ILLINOIS

Attended Eastern Illinois and led the team in ERA (3.35) in 2022 while going 5-4 with 66 strikeouts in 45.2 innings. He was a first-team All-Ohio Valley Conference pick in '22.

Selected by SF in the sixth round of the 2022 draft, the ninth Panther to be taken by SF all-time. Before Birdsong it was current Giants Farm Director Kyle Haines in 2004.

OFF THE FIELD

Played baseball at Mattoon (IL) HS and was selected to the All Apollo Conference First Team. He helped Mattoon win the 2019 Conference Championship.

Hayden's father, Stacey, coached him through several levels of baseball, including summer baseball with Mattoon Post 88.

Majored in Exercise Science at EIU.

Growing up in Mattoon, IL (three hours south of Chicago), Hayden grew up a Cubs fan. His first career start in the Majors came against the Cubs at Oracle Park on June 26, 2024.

According to his parents, Hayden's first word was ball. He slept with a baseball when he was young.

When he was a kid, his mother, Paula, mowed a diamond into the grass during the summer to play baseball (with a tennis ball), drawing a constant stream of neighborhood kids. If the ball hit a neighbor's house it was a homer.

- Was a perfect 3-for-3 in save opportunities, including recording saves in each of the Giants' last two games of the season.
- Tied his career-high with 54 appearances (had 54 games between MLB and Triple-A in 2024).
- Went 2-0-3 with a 2.89 ERA (9er, 28.0ip), 18 strikeouts and a 1.36 WHIP in final 19 games.
- Recorded at least four outs in 26 of his 54 games...threw 2.0+ innings in 18 of his 54 games.

THE JOURNEY |

Bivens' journey to the Major Leagues had many twists and turns. For further details on Bivens' road to the Majors, click or scan the QR codes below that link to a pair of articles: one by Jon Sauber that appeared in the Centre Daily Times in 2024 (the hometown newspaper in State College, PA) and an article by Zach Buchanan that appeared in The Athletic in November, 2022 after Bivens signed with the Giants as a minor league free agent.

2024 SEASON

Had his contract selected on June 16 and made his MLB debut that day against the Angels, earning the win after working 3.0 innings.

At 29 years, 354 days old, Bivens became the oldest Giants pitcher to make his debut since Jean Machi on Sept. 3, 2012 (30.215).

Also became the oldest Giants pitcher to earn the win in his MLB debut since Ace Adams on April 15, 1941 (31.044).

Made his first career start on June 30 vs. the Dodgers and threw a career-high 5.0 innings. Prior to the start, Bivens had only reached the 5.0-inning mark twice in his minor league career (81 games).

Logged his first career save on Sept 28 vs. STL, striking out two in 1.0ip.

2023 SEASON

Split the season between High-A Eugene and Double-A Richmond, going 8-4 with a 3.68 ERA in 33 games (four starts). Struck out 92 batters over 93.0 innings.

He followed that up with a stint for Culiacan in the Mexican Winter League where he rattled off a 1.69 ERA in 27 games with 14 saves and 28 strikeouts.

2022 SEASON

Signed up for Tread Athletics, a pitching development company that offers training online, before the 2022 season. He added 25 pounds of muscle and worked with former Braves farmhand Troy Allen prior to returning to Gastonia in 2022.

Made three appearances with Gastonia, working 6.2 scoreless innings with nine strikeouts before he was signed by the Giants on May 16.

Posted a 2-1 record with a 2.70 (9er, 30.0ip) with 36 strikeouts in 21 games with Single-A San Jose after signing, his first experience in professional ball.

Promoted to Triple-A Sacramento and went 1-1 with a 6.75 ERA (10er, 13.1ip) in six games with the River Cats.

Named an Arizona Fall League Rising Star after posting a 0.87 ERA (1er, 10.1ip) with 11 strikeouts and a 0.97 WHIP in seven games.

2021 SEASON

Played for the Washington (PA) Wild Things but only appeared in nine games before being released.

Latched on with the West Virginia Power of the Atlantic League following his stint with the Wild Things. He played for the Power for two weeks before being traded to the Gastonia Honey Hurlers (NC) at the end of a two-week road trip.

2020 SEASON

Was lined up to play for a Czech club called Kotlářka Praha in Prague. The spot came with an apartment as well as flights in and out of the country. Two weeks before he was set to leave, the pandemic hit and there was no season in Prague.

He returned stateside to pitch for the Steel City Slammies in the Washington (PA) COVID Pod League, one of very few leagues playing in 2020. He appeared in six games, making three starts.

2019 WITH SAVIGNY (FRANCE)

After going undrafted, he began his professional career pitching for the Savigny-sur-Orge Lions in French Division One earning $500 per month and playing only on the weekends. Posted a 2.51 ERA in about 75 innings with the Lions.

COLLEGIATE CAREER

Played two years at Louisburg College in Louisburg, NC (2013 and 2014). He then transferred to Penn State after his sophomore season. He made the team his first fall on campus and then failed a drug test for marijuana. He remained on campus for the next two years while weathering a shoulder surgery hoping for another chance to crack PSU's team.

The chance never came and Bivens later told The Athletic, smoking "totally ruined my chances of playing there," he said. "It's a regret I'll have with me until the day I die."

Used an old couch on a giveaway site as a throwing partner in an unfinished basement in his apartment at State College to get his arm back in shape after surgery.

Landed a spot at Rogers State, a former NAIA program in Oklahoma that had recently jumped to Division II, for the 2017 and 2018 seasons.

Graduated from State College (PA) Area High School. Grew up with the hopes and dreams of playing collegiately (in some sport) for Penn State University.

Bivens has a tattoo on his left wrist of his home state of Pennsylvania. A star in the tattoo marks his hometown of State College.

Took a surprise trip to Dodger Stadium when he was roughly 10 years old with his mom, Caran Aikens. A young Bivens pretended to throw pitches from behind the mound and crashed into the wall making imaginary catches.

He and his wife, Carla, were married in January of 2025.

HALO TOP

The first MLB stadium he ever visited was Angel Stadium against the Red Sox. An agency he was meeting with took him to the game. The agency also happened to rep Rafael Devers at the time and Cartaya was able to meet Devers at their offices before the game

Was MLB.com's top international prospect when he signed in July of 2018 for $2.5 million.

TRANSACTIONS

Signed by Los Angeles-NL to a minor league contract on July 2, 2018.

Acquired by Minnesota from Los Angeles-NL on January 9, 2025 in exchange for RHP Jose Vasquez.

Signed by San Francisco to a two-year minor league contract on July 28, 2025.

SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY

When the Covid-19 pandemic struck in 2020, Cartaya was a young 18-year-old kid who had not played above rookie ball. Being from Venezuela and having no way to get home due to the pandemic, he had to make a decision on what to do when camps were shut down. He could not work out at the Dodgers' facility because he wasn't on the 40-man roster.

Cartaya's teammate and friend, Chase Barbary, had a solution. He could come live with him and his family in South Carolina during the shutdown. Barbary is the son of Travis Barbary, who at the time was the manager of Triple-A Oklahoma City in the Dodgers system. He stayed with the Barbarys for 3.5 months in their Greenville home, working out daily with Chase and other pros from the area at Flour Field, the home of the minor league's Greenville Drive, and honing his English-speaking skills along the way.

The Venezuelan introduced the Barbarys to arepas - corn-based patties filled with a variety of cheeses or meats that are staples of Venezuelan diets. He also called Raquel Barbary, Travis' wife, "mom" during his stay in Greenville.

"It has been an adventure," Raquel Barbaray told the Greenville News in a 2020 article. "We've learned from him, he's learned from us. It was basically like having another child and he just fit like a glove. Of course I'll miss him. I feel like half the house is leaving. But he knows he can always come back, and once Travis gets settled out there we'll fly out and stay for a week."

This wasn't the first time the Barbarys hosted a young, up-and-coming catcher. They did the same with Dodgers' prospect Keibert Ruiz a few years earlier during the offseason.

You can read more about Cartaya's stay with the Barbarys from The Oklahoman or Greenville News.

HOLY HORSESHOES CHAPMAN! |

Matt Chapman won his fifth career Gold Glove (first in the NL) in his first season in SF in 2024. He joined former Giants third baseman Matt Williams and longtime White Sox star Robin Ventura as the only third basemen in the award's history (since 1957) to win the award as a 3B in both leagues. Williams won it with the Giants (1993 and 1994) and then Cleveland (1997). Ventura won it five times with the White Sox (1991-93, 1996 and 1998) and once with the Mets (1999). Below are Chapman's defensive rankings since his first MLB season (2017) entering 2026 according to FanGraphs.

Defensive Runs Saved (Any Pos.)

1. Matt Chapman, 3B..... 108
2. Nolan Arenado, 3B 104
3. Ke'Bryan Hayes, 3B 95
4. Matt Olson, 1B 86
5. Andrelton Simmons, SS..... 81

Defensive Runs Saved (As a 3B)

1. Matt Chapman 108
2. Nolan Arenado 104
3. Ke'Bryan Hayes 95
4. Manny Machado 37
5. Alex Bregman 20

Outs Above Average (As a 3B)

1. Nolan Arenado 92
2. Ke'Bryan Hayes 80
3. Matt Chapman 69
4. José Ramírez 38
5. Maikel Garcia 36

2025 RECAP

- Made his eighth career Opening Day roster and his second with the Giants.
- Appeared in just 128 games, his fewest in a full season since his rookie year in 2017 with Oakland (84 games)...landed on the IL twice, missing a total of 32 games.
- His two-run homer off Milwaukee's Abner Uribe on April 24 came on a 100.4 mph pitch, the fastest pitch a Giants player has homered off under pitch tracking (since 2008).
- Hit his third career grand slam on May 3 off Colorado's Jake Bird, turning a 3-2 Giants deficit into a 6-3 lead in the 6th inning.
- Hit a two-run walk-off home run in the bottom of the 9th inning against the Braves on June 7...it was his third career walk-off home run.
- Landed on the 10-day Injured List on June 10 (retroactive to June 9) with right hand inflammation...suffered the injury two days prior while trying to slide headfirst back into first base and his hand got caught underneath him.
- Reinstated from the Injured List on July 5...missed a total of 23 games.
- Logged multi-homer games on July 27 vs. NYM and September 3 at COL for the 13th and 14th multi-homer games of his career.
- Placed back on the 10-day Injured List with right hand inflammation on August 15 (retro to August 13)...his right hand did not fully heal from his injury in June and it had been bothering him so he sat out the game of August 13 and had an off day the next day...the inflammation in his hand was not healing so he had two cortisone shots to help the inflammation...was reinstated on August 23 after missing nine games.
- Hit his 200th career home run on Aug. 27 off Cubs' LHP Jordan Wicks.
- Recorded his 1,000th career hit on September 26 vs. Colorado (a single).

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Willie Mac Award winner led the Giants in hits (142), doubles (39), home runs (27), RBI (78), runs (98), walks (64) and total bases (266).

Won his fifth career Gold Glove (first in the National League). He was also one of three finalists for the NL Silver Slugger Award at third base.

His 7.1 bWAR was second-best in the NL behind LA's Shohei Ohtani (9.2) and was seventh-best in MLB overall. It was his first 7+ bWAR season since his 2019 All-Star season with the A's (7.8). His .790 OPS was also his best in a full year since 2019 (.848).

10

Reached base safely in 10-straight plate appearances from May 17-19, the longest such streak by a Giant since Brandon Belt reached base in 11 consecutive plate appearances in 2020.

Missed three games on the Paternity List from September 18-20. In his first game back on Sept. 21 at KC he recorded his 12th career multi-homer game (and second of the season).

Logged his first career inside-the-park homer on Sept. 23 at Arizona.

2023 SEASON

Won his fourth career Gold Glove, finishing with a .968 fielding percentage.

Was worth +12 defensive runs saved according to FanGraphs, best among American League third basemen and third-best in the Majors among third basemen.

Named AL Player of the Month for April, posting a .372/.459/.691 slash line with 17 runs, 15 doubles, five home runs and 20 RBI in 26 games.

Played through a finger injury for most of the year before landing on the IL on August 28 with a right middle finger strain. He was activated from the IL on September 14.

2022 SEASON

Traded from Oakland to Toronto on March 16 in exchange for RHP Gunnar Hoglund, LHP Zach Logue, IF Kevin Smith and LHP Kirby Snead.

Led MLB third basemen with a .988 fielding percentage, which was also the highest fielding percentage by a Blue Jays third baseman in franchise history.

2021 SEASON

Won his third Gold Glove in four years in what turned out to be his final season in Oakland.

100

Hit his 100th career home run on August 14 at Texas off RHP Jordan Lyles.

2020 SEASON

Placed on the injured list Sept. 12 with a strained right hip and underwent surgery that day and missed the remainder of the season.

Started his first career game at shortstop on August 29 at Houston, his first start at a position other than third base.

2019 SEASON

Set career highs with 102 runs, 36 home runs, 91 RBI, and 75 extra-base hits. Finished sixth in the AL MVP voting.

Won his second straight Rawlings Gold Glove, his second straight Wilson Defensive Player of the Year, his 2nd straight AL Platinum Glove Award and his second straight Fielding Bible award.

Named an All-Star for the first time in his career.

Led third basemen with a .981 fielding percentage, 466 total chances, 146 putouts, and 28 defensive runs saved. He also had the best UZR (14.8) in MLB.

Set the A's franchise record for home runs by a third baseman (36), surpassing the mark of 32 by Eric Chavez in 2001.

2018 SEASON

Earned an AL Gold Glove at third base after finishing second in MLB with +23 DRS, and also won the AL Platinum Glove and was named Wilson Defensive Player of the Year.

Tied for seventh in the AL with 42 doubles, tied for eighth with six triples, ninth with an .864 OPS, 10th with 100 runs, and 10th with 72 extra-base hits.

Finished seventh in AL MVP voting and was one of seven players named on all 30 ballots.

Became the first Athletic to score 100 runs since Nick Swisher had 106 in 2006.

30 Reached base safely in a career-high 30 consecutive games from July 11-August 17.

2017 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on June 15 vs. New York-AL, logging his first hit one day later off RHP Jonathan Holder.

Was the third baseman on Baseball America's All-Rookie team.

AT CAL STATE FULLERTON

Named a Baseball America and Louisville Slugger Third-Team All-American during his junior season. Chapman batted a career-best .312 with six homers and 48 RBI that season. Also made only six errors in 157 chances at third base.

Selected in the first round (25th overall) by Oakland in the 2014 First-Year Player Draft.

REMEMBER THE TITANS |

Cal State Fullerton has always held a close place to third baseman Matt Chapman's heart, even before he played there in college and even more so now as a professional.

- He attended his first game at Goodwin Field when he was eight years old.
- Years later he'd attend Titans Summer Baseball Camps to help his skills as a baseball player.
- His participation in the camps helped lead him to his first "dream role" on the field - becoming at bat boy.
- "Picking up Shane Costa and Justin Turner's bats was a highlight of my childhood," Chapman told CSUF in 2025 at a fundraising event. "I had a front row seat to how to carry yourself on the field, how to compete and how to never back down to a challenge. The Titans were my heroes."
- In January of 2025, Chapman attended the Dinner with the Titans fundraiser (pictured on the right) and donated $50,000 to the program that he's been around seemingly his entire life.
- "Cal State Fullerton holds such a special place in my heart. It's where I grew as a person, where I became the player I am today, and where I learned what it truly means to be a Titan," said Chapman.

Five-Time Gold Glove Award Winner Matt Chapman Built Baseball Foundation at CSUF
By Taylor Arrey, CSUF
January 27, 2025.

Married his wife, Taylor, on December 11, 2021. The two make their offseason home in Phoenix. They welcomed their first child, a daughter named Gia Alexandra, on September 19, 2024 and are expecting their second child, a boy, this coming July.

Attended El Toro High School (CA), the same high school as D-Backs third baseman Nolan Arenado. Chapman had his #6 retired by the school on January 29, 2022.

Wore "Hurtado" on the back of his Players Weekend jersey, honoring his college teammate and friend, Nick Hurtado, who died of bone cancer in 2013. "I know it was his dream, like a lot of my friends, to play in the major leagues, and he never got that opportunity," Chapman told reporters in 2019. "So I figured it would be the best way to represent him and be able to get his last name on a major league jersey and play a game in the big leagues, in a sense, so I thought it would be pretty cool."

Attended Cal State Fullerton for college. As a child, Chapman was a bat boy for the Titans from 2003-2005.

Bo Davidson's journey to this point in his career has been untraditional to say the least. An undrafted prospect singed out of Caldwell Tech CC in 2023, Davidson actually gave up on baseball for a brief period before re-enrolling at Caldwell that year. The stories below talk to Giants scouts who first saw him and Davidson himself about his journey thus far. Click/Scan the QR codes below to read.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Enjoyed a breakout season in his first full year in the Giants organization

Batted .328 in 53 games for Single-A San Jose with 12 doubles, seven triples, nine homers, 40 RBI and a 1.046 OPS. Also appeared in 10 rehab games in the ACL after missing a month and a half on the IL with a hamstring injury.

Raked in the month of August at San Jose, earning a pair of Player of the Week awards. In 15 August games he slashed .471/.597/.941 (1.538 OPS) with five homers and 19 RBI.

Named the second-half team MVP by San Jose after hitting .440 with seven homers and 31 RBI in 26 games.

Made up for lost time in the Arizona Fall League after the season, hitting .283 with six extra-base hits and nine RBI in 19 games for Scottsdale.

2023 SEASON

Made his organizational debut with the ACL Giants after signing as an undrafted free agent in late July. In 58 plate appearances he batted .286 with six extra-base hits and seven RBI.

AT GUILFORD TECH (NC) / CALDWELL CC (NC)

Began his college career at Guilford Tech in Jamestown, NC in 2021 and appeared in 14 games before deciding to walk away from baseball.

He told MLB.com in October 2024 that there was some family stuff going on when he walked away but that he "really low-key gave up on baseball. I was done with it. Then, something kept telling me to come back."

Returned to collegiate athletics in 2023 at Caldwell CC, in part to play with his friend Breon Ishmael. Davidson batted .412 with 16 homers and 56 RBI in 38 games.

Caldwell CC is 3.6 miles from South Caldwell High School where former SF hurler Madison Bumgarner went as a youth.

Giants' Scout Paul Falk first spotted Davidson as an opposing player when he was scouting someone else at Cleveland Community College in Shelby, NC

Following his season at Caldwell, Davidson played 10 games for the Coastal Plain League's High Point-Thomasville HiToms.

Signed with the Giants as an undrafted free agent on July 25. Was the first Caldwell baseball player to sign a pro contract.

OFF THE FIELD

Attended South Mecklenburg High School in Charlotte, N.C., which also produced former NBA All-Stars Bobby Jones and Walter Davis as well as former MLB players Stu Cole and Carlos Crawford.

Also played quarterback in football, going against New England Patriots quarterback Drake Maye in conference competition, and basketball at South Mecklenburg.

During his time away from the game between his junior college stints he was playing slow pitch softball before his high school best friend, Breon Ishmael, talked to the Caldwell coach about Davidson.

His mother, Donna, father, Kym and brothers Shakym and Rae-Kwon all played slow-pitch softball. When Bo was little he always wanted to pick up their bigger bats and swing them around.

Started getting called Bo by his father when he was little after Debo from Friday because he was taking all of his older brothers stuff like Debo took stuff in the movie. Then when he played sports it became Bo Knows for Bo Jackson so it's been with him one way or another for most of his life.

2025 RECAP

- Acquired by the Giants from Boston on June 15 in exchange for LHP Kyle Harrison, RHP Jordan Hicks, RHP Jose Bello and OF James Tibbs III.
- Ranked among the top of MLB in games played (1st, 163), walks (112, 3rd), RBI (109, 9th) and on-base percentage (.372, 9th).
- Made his Giants debut on June 17 against the Cleveland Guardians at Oracle Park and went 2-for-5 with one RBI...received a standing ovation in all five of his plate appearances.
- Hit his first Giants home run against his former team, the Red Sox, on June 21, hitting a two-run shot off righty Brayan Bello in the 3rd inning.
- Became the seventh player all-time to hit at least 15 homers in both the AL and NL in the same season... the others are Mark McGwire (1997), Carlos Beltrán (2004), Manny Ramírez (2008), Alfonso Soriano (2013), Yoenis Céspedes (2015) and J.D. Martínez (2017).
- Had his first multi-homer game as a Giant on July 23 at Atlanta.
- Was a part of back-to-back home runs with Heliot Ramos on August 18 at San Diego to open up the Giants' 1st inning...became the first Giants to go back-to-back to start a road game since Chuck Hiller and Duke Snider in 1964.
- Named NL Co-Player of the Week for the week of Aug. 25-31...went 11x23 (.478) with two 2Bs, three HRs, 10 RBI and four walks in 6g.
- His 114.5 mph home run on Sept. 1 at Colorado was the hardest hit homer by any Giants player in the Statcast era.
- Lined his first career Splash Hit (108th by a Giant) on September 24, 2025 vs. St. Louis.
- Was one of five players with 100 RBI and 100 walks (also: Kyle Schwarber, Aaron Judge, Juan Soto, Shohei Ohtani).
- Hit his 20th homer with SF in the final game of the season on Sept. 28...became one of four Giants all-time to hit 20 homers in their first 90 games with the franchise, joining Jeff Kent (20, 1997), Barry Bonds (25, 1993) and Willie McCovey (22, 1959-60).
- Played in 163 games (73 games with Boston before the trade to SF)...became the first player to appear in 163g in a single season since MIN's Justin Morneau, who played in 163 in 2008 with the help of a tiebreaker game...the last player to do it without the help of a tiebreaker game was Todd Zeile in 1996 when he was traded from Philadelphia to Baltimore.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Finished the season ranked among the AL's top 10 in doubles (T-7th, 34), SLG (9th, .516), OPS (9th, .870), OBP (10th, .354) and XBH (T-10th, 67). Also ranked , 14th in runs (87), 15th in home runs (28), 16th in RBI (83) and 16th in batting average (.272).

Homered in six straight games from May 15-20, becoming the first player in Red Sox history to homer in six consecutive games.

1K

Recorded his 1,000th career hit on July 6 at the Yankees, a 3rd-inning single off RHP Gerrit Cole.

BOOM!

On August 25 vs. Arizona, Devers hit his 200th career home run. He became the 31st player with 200 HRs before turning 28 and only the 11th player with 200+ HR and 250+ doubles at the age of 27 or younger.

Joined Shohei Ohtani as the only players with at least 500 PA and a .500 SLG in each season from 2021-2024.

2023 SEASON

Completed his seventh MLB season at only 26 years old, hitting .271 with an .851 OPS while earning his second Silver Slugger Award at third base.

Recorded 30+ HR and 100+ RBI for the third time in his career (also 2019 and 2021).

BOOM!

Led AL hitters with 252 hard-hit balls (95+ MPH), second most in MLB behind only Ronald Acuña Jr. (309).

150

Hit his 150th career homer on May 4 vs. Toronto in the 721st game of his career.

2022 SEASON

Started at third base for the AL in the All-Star Game and became the first Red Sox player to start consecutive All-Star Games at third base since Wade Boggs (1986-92).

XBH

Recorded 22 XBH in May, tied for his most in any month during his career (also July 2019).

2021 SEASON

Named an All-Star for the first time in his career and started at third base for the American League.

Won his first Silver Slugger after posting his second 30+ homer, 100+ RBI season.

ALL MLB

Named to the 2021 All-MLB Second Team at third base.

Honored as the Red Sox Team MVP by the Boston BBWAA. Named the Red Sox winner of the MLBPAA Heart and Hustle Award.

2020 SEASON

Made a team-high 55 starts, all at 3B. Hit .297 with 40 RBI and an .874 OPS in 41 games from August 13 through the end of the season. Led the Red Sox in RBI (43), total bases (112), XBH (28), and was tied for the team lead in homers (11) and doubles (16).

2019 SEASON

Led the Majors in extra-base hits (90) and total bases (359) at only 22 years old. Recorded the 25th 30-HR/50-double season in MLB history, but only the second ever by a third baseman (also Alex Bregman in 2018).

Recorded his first 30+ HR and 100+ RBI season.

Earned the 2019 Tommy Harper Heart & Hustle Award from the Boston baseball writers. Also named the Red Sox winner of the MLBPAA Heart and Hustle Award.

2018 SEASON

Won the 2018 World Series title with the Red Sox. Devers and Babe Ruth are the only Red Sox ever to bat in the Postseason prior to turning 21 years old.

Made his first career Opening Day roster and hit 21 home runs in 121 games.

2017 SEASON

Entered the season ranked by Baseball America as baseball's No. 18 prospect.

Played for the World Team in the 2017 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game.

Made his MLB debut on July 25 2017 at Seattle, at only 20 years old. At 20 years and 275 days old, was the youngest Boston position player to appear in a game since Luis Alvarado (20y, 259d) in 1969. His first career hit was a homer the following day.

In his first 20 Major League games from July 25-August 19, Devers went 28-for-77 (.364) with eight HR and 16 RBI.

The only other players since 1913 to hit safely in at least 17 of their first 20 games before turning 21 were Roberto Clemente (1955) and Iván Rodríguez (1991).

Is the only player ever to hit 8+ HR in his first 20 MLB games, all before turning 21 (Elias).

2016 SEASON

Named Red Sox Minor League Defensive Player of the Year and tabbed a Baseball America High Class A All-Star.

2015 SEASON

Played for the World Team in the 2015 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game. At 19, became the youngest Red Sox ever to participate in the game.

START 'EM YOUNG

Originally signed by the Red Sox on August 9, 2013 at 16 years old.

OFF THE FIELD

His nickname is "Carita", which means baby face.

Is one of 10 children in his family (three boys and seven girls). Devers himself has two daughters, Rachell and Rachelese.

His dad, Rafael Sr., played baseball and would sometimes take Rafael to local games on his scooter.

Growing up, he loved playing baseball and riding horses. Grew up playing vitilla (baseball with bottle caps and a broomstick) in his neighborhood when he moved to Santo Domingo.

Established his charity, Donación Carita 11, in the Dominican Republic, which since its inception has worked tirelessly to provide support to our community in two areas that Devers considers fundamental: education and baseball.

In December 2024, Devers donated three ambulances to his hometown of Sánchez. The ambulances were donated through his foundation, and were allocated to hospitals of Samaná, Terrena, and Sánchez.

PRIMOS

His cousin, José, has played in the Yankees (2017), Marlins (2018-19, '21-'24), and Braves (2025) organizations. The two cousins took the same field during the Marlins' series at Fenway Park in 2021 (5/28-29, 6/7).

2025 RECAP |

- Was selected from Triple-A on Sept. 15 and made his MLB debut that night in Arizona as the DH.
- Became the youngest Giant to make his MLB debut (20 years, 330 days) since Madison Bumgarner did so at 20 years, 38 days on Sept. 8, 2009...also became the youngest Giants position player to debut since Jeff Ransom (20y, 298d) on Sept. 5, 1981.
- Finished as SF's top prospect, as the No. 12 prospect overall according to MLB Pipeline and the game's No. 19 prospect per Baseball America.
- His first career hit came in his fourth game on Sept. 20 at the Dodgers, hitting a three-run double off RHP Tyler Glasnow in his first at-bat in the 1st inning.
- Per Sarah Langs, Eldridge (20y, 335d) became the youngest Giant with multiple RBI in a game since Jack Clark on September 12, 1976 (20y, 307d, also three RBI).
- Drew seven walks in his 10 games (35 PA)...the 10 walks were the most by a Giant in his first 10 career games since Brian Bocock had seven in 2008.
- Made his home debut on Sept. 22 vs. STL...at 20 years and 337 days old, he was the youngest SF position player to play at Oracle Park & youngest player since Madison Bumgarner (20yr, 330d) on June 27, 2010.
- Recorded his first career multi-hit game on Sept. 24 vs. STL...his 3rd inning double had an exit velocity of 109.7 mph, the hardest-hit ball by a Giant age 22 or younger in Statcast era.
- Had a 68.8% hard-hit rate in his brief time w/SF.
- In 66 games at Triple-A, he slashed .249/.322/.514 (.836 OPS) with 13 doubles, 18 homers and 63 RBI.
- Across three levels that included 34 games in Double-A and two rehab games in the ACL, Eldridge slashed .260/.333/.510 (.843 OPS) with 21 doubles, 25 homers, 84 RBI, 42 walks and 127 strikeouts.
- He owned a 63.5% hard-hit rate at AAA, tops in Triple-A among players with at least 250 PA.

2024 SEASON

Produced one of the greatest minor league seasons in recent Giants history, playing 116 games across four levels from Single-A to Triple-A, posting a .291 average with 23 home runs and an .890 OPS.

Flew through the Giants system as he began the season at Single-A San Jose, rose to High-A Eugene on June 28, reached Double-A Richmond on September 3 and was promoted to AAA on September 14.

Named the Giants 2024 Minor League Player Of The Year by Baseball America after slashing .291/.374/.516 with 76 runs, 27 doubles, two triples, 23 homers, 92 RBI and 59 walks across all four Minor League levels and was named to the 2024 All-MiLB Prospect Team at DH by MLB Pipeline.

Earned Northwest League Player of the Week honors after going 11-for-20 (.550) and hitting safely in all six games (four multi-hit games) and mashing five homers from Aug. 26- Sept. 2.

Started the Futures Game in Texas at first base for the National League squad and went 1-for-2 with a run scored and a strikeout.

Played in 10 games for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall league , hitting .293 with two homers and seven runs scored. Was removed from the roster to let him focus on recovery from a long season and getting ready for 2025.

2023 SEASON

Hit .294 (17-for-58) with a .905 OPS over 31 games for the Rookie-level ACL Giants (16 games) and Single-A San Jose Giants (15 games) in 2023.

Ended the 2023 season ranked by MLB.com as the Giants' No. 4 prospect.

Played exclusively in the outfield in his first taste of pro ball with the ACL and San Jose Giants.

JAMES MADISON (VA) HIGH SCHOOL

Named the 2022-23 Gatorade Virginia Baseball Player of the Year, going 9-0 with a 1.06 ERA and 66 strikeouts in 39.2 innings for James Madison High School, while batting .422 with eight home runs, 23 RBI and a 1.716 OPS.

Was a member of Team USA's 18U National Team, which won the Gold Medal at the 2022 World Cup, and won the tournament's MVP award. He was also named the Richard W. "Dick" Case Award winner, which is annually awarded to USA Baseball's top player.

In the 18U World Cup, Eldridge was 6-for-19 (.316) with 10 runs, three home runs, 13 RBI and an .842 slugging percentage in eight games. On the mound, Eldridge went 1-0 with five strikeouts and a save in 3.0 scoreless innings across three games.

Grew up about 100 miles from the Giants' Double-A affiliate, the Richmond Flying Squirrels.

He idolized Bryce Harper growing up.

Committed to the University of Alabama before signing with the Giants. Was also recruited by current Giants manager Tony Vitello at Tennessee before choosing Alabama.

Bryce's grandfather, Ben Eldridge, is regarded as one of the greatest banjoists in the history of the genre. He was a founding member of The Seldom Scene, an influential bluegrass jam band that was nominated for four Grammy Awards. They recorded with stars like Linda Ronstadt and Emmylou Harris. The group was inducted into the International Bluegrass Music Hall of Fame in Owensboro, KY.

Bryce's uncle, Chris, is a nine-time Grammy Award nominee. His band, Punch Brothers, won the Grammy for Best Folk Album in 2019. You can read more about it in The Athletic by clicking here.

Cole Foster, who was drafted by the Giants in 2023 out of Auburn, became a role model for Eldridge as he was one of the more mature players for the San Jose Giants. "I call Cole Foster, 'my little, big bro,' because he's a few years older than me but much smaller than I am. He's been my older brother figure out here. He's been through it."

Prior to focusing strictly on baseball full time, Bryce also played wide receiver and safety.

2025 RECAP |

- Had an injury-marred season, landing on the IL for lengthy stays three different times for three different injuries...appeared in only 19 games for SF.
- Started the season on the 10-day Injured List with a left hand fracture...sustained the injury in a spring game on March 21 against the Guardians while trying to make a catch in right field.
- Was a candidate to be the team's designated hitter and was having an excellent spring with two home runs and 14 RBI while hitting .302.
- Underwent successful surgery on March 28 with Dr. Steve Shin in Los Angeles to repair his left-hand fracture.
- Began a rehab assignment at Triple-A Sacramento on May 10 but it was stopped due to his injury causing him some issues...restarted his rehab on May 27.
- Returned from his rehab assignment and reinstated off the 60-day Injured List on June 2 after missing SF's first 59 games of the season.
- Landed back on the 10-day Injured List on June 17 with a left oblique strain...suffered the injury the day prior while taking extra swings on the Giants' off day.
- Removed from the 10-day IL on August 4 after missing 40 more games...hit a 415-foot home run in his first game back at Pittsburgh on August 5, then the next day he hit a 442-foot blast...however, he exited the game on August 6 after pulling his right hamstring while trying to beat out an infield single.
- Made his third trip to the IL on August 7 with a right hamstring strain...activated on September 13 after missing another 32 games.
- In total, missed 131 games between the three injuries.
- Was 11-for-55 (.200) with two HRs and seven RBI in 19 games w/ SF.
- Played for the Águilas Cibaenas of the Dominican Winter League following the season...hit two homers with 11 RBI in 14 games...was his fourth consecutive offseason playing for the Águilas.

2024 SEASON

Hit .366 with 33 runs, 19 home runs, 36 RBI and a 1.429 OPS in 26 games for Oaxaca, his first season in the Mexican League.

Prior to his release to join the Giants, Encarnacion was leading the Mexican League in home runs, runs scored and OPS.

Signed with the Giants on May 22 and reported to SF's Arizona complex.

Logged a 1.054 OPS in 146 plate appearances at Triple-A Sacramento after signing. Had 10 homers, three doubles, 33 RBI and 21 runs scored in 33 games.

Appeared in 35 games for the Giants after having his contract selected from Triple-A on August 2. Homered in his second game with SF the next day.

2023 SEASON

Spent the year at Triple-A Jacksonville. He slashed .228/.347/.452 (.799 OPS) with 63 runs, 17 doubles, 26 home runs and 76 RBI in 122 games.

His 26 homers and 76 RBI were both career bests but he struck out a career-high 200 times.

2022 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on June 19 at the Mets, hitting a grand slam and stealing a base.

Became the second player in Marlins history to hit a grand slam in his MLB debut, joining Jeremy Hermida (August 31, 2005). He also became the first Dominican-born player to hit a grand slam in his debut.

He became the first player since 1901 to hit a grand slam, steal a base and record an outfield assist in his MLB debut.

Entered the season as the Marlins' No. 24 prospect according to MLB.com.

2019 SEASON

Named a Midwest League Mid-Season All-Star with Clinton after hitting .298 with 16 doubles, 10 homers and 43 RBI in 68 games.

Played for the Salt River Rafters of the Arizona Fall League at the end of the season and hit a game-deciding grand slam in the Championship Game.

2025 RECAP |

- Made his second career Opening Day roster.
- Fell a single shy of hitting for the cycle in his game on April 14 at Philadelphia... became the first Giants player batting 9th in the order to record three-plus XBH in a single game.
- Placed on the 10-day Injured List on May 1 with a left rib fracture, an injury he suffered while diving for a ball and landing on his chest on April 25 vs. Texas... missed a total of 13 games while on the IL before being reinstated May 16.
- Scored the walk-off run on June 6 vs. Atlanta in the 10th inning to give the Giants a 5-4 win...Fitzgerald, who was picked off first base the previous inning, became just the third player in the Majors since 1974 to be picked off in one inning and then score the walk-off run in the following inning, joining Tampa Bay's Sam Fuld on August 10, 2011 and San Francisco's Von Joshua on May 2, 1975.
- Optioned to Triple-A Sacramento on June 23 after a slash line of .230/.289/.320 with two home runs and 10 RBI in 57 games with SF.
- Recalled from Triple-A Sacramento on June 30, replacing Casey Schmitt (IL) on the roster...was optioned back to Triple-A on July 7 with Schmitt being reinstated from the IL.
- Recalled again on August 12 in place of LHP Carson Whisenhunt (optioned)...made his first start in right field that night against the Padres.
- Optioned once again on August 23 with IF Matt Chapman being reinstated from the IL...was 2-for-19 (.105) with eight Ks in final MLB stint.
- Spent the remainder of the season with Sacramento...overall, hit .246 with 10 doubles, six homers and 27 RBI in 54 games in Triple-A.

2024 SEASON

Enjoyed a breakout rookie campaign for SF with his 132 wRC+ leading qualified rookies. Also ranked among MLB rookies (min 60g) in OPS (.831, 1st), average (.280, 2nd), SLG (.497, 2nd), OBP (.334, 5th) and home runs (15, T-6th).

Led the Giants with 17 stolen bases. The last Giants rookie with 17 (or more) steals was Rajai Davis who also had 17 in 2007.

Finished the year with 3.0 fWAR. Out of the eight MLB rookie position players to have a fWAR of at least 3.0, Fitzgerald was the only one to do so in less than 100 games (Sports Info Solutions).

Homered in five consecutive starts from July 9 to July 23, the longest homer streak by a Giant since Barry Bonds did it in seven-straight contests (with an at-bat) in 2004 (eight homers). No Giants rookie (since 1900) had ever homered in five straight games.

He joined Bonds (4x), Robby Thompson (1993), Jack Clark (1978), and Willie Mays (2x) as the only Giants to homer in five consecutive games since the franchise moved to San Francisco in 1958.

Named July's NL Rookie of the Month, the fourth Giant to win the award all-time.

Became the first Giant to homer 11+ times in a 17-game span since Bonds in 2003. The only other Giants in team history to do this besides Fitzgerald and Bonds are Willie McCovey, Jim Ray Hart, Willie Mays, Walker Cooper and Mel Ott.

2023 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on Sept. 21 at Los Angeles-NL and logged his first career hit, a double, in that game off Shelby Miller. He hit his first home run a day later, a two-run homer off Ryan Yarbrough.

Won Eastern League Player of the Month in April, and PCL Player of the Week May 14.

His 34 combined stolen bases between MiLB and MLB were a career-high and second-most in the SF organization behind Grant McCray (52).

Turned in his second consecutive 20+ homer, 20+ steal campaign.

Logged his first two MLB steals on September 27 vs. SD. He had a sprint speed of 29.5 ft/sec on the first stolen base, which was tied for the fastest stolen base by a Giant in 2023.

2022 SEASON

Was named the Flying Squirrels Most Valuable Player. Became the first 20-20 player in team history, clubbing 21 home runs and stealing 20 bases.

Set single-game Flying Squirrels team records with 13 total bases and five runs scored while also tying the team record with five hits on May 29 against Hartford.

2021 SEASON

Spent the year with High-A Eugene, hitting .262 with a .495 slugging percentage. He logged 28 doubles and 19 home runs over 103 games.

2020 SEASON

When the Covid-19 pandemic shut down minor league baseball the Lexington Legends and Florence Freedom formed the Battle of the Bourbon Trail league. The league was comprised of four teams: the Legends, the Leyendas, the Freedom and the Y'alls. They played Wednesday through Sunday for a seven-week span.

Fitzgerald played on the Y'alls and told the Richmond Times he used that time to tinker with his swing, adding a leg kick at the plate to better his timing.

AT LOUISVILLE

Selected by Boston in the 30th round of the 2016 draft out of high school but elected to attend Louisville.

Started 66-of-69 games at shortstop as a junior, hitting .315 with eight homers and a team-best 65 RBI.

Helped lead the Cardinals to a College World Series berth in 2019. Louisville lost to eventual champs Vanderbilt in the semis.

Graduated from Rochester (IL) High School where he played four seasons of baseball. In 2016, he was the No. 2 player in the state of Illinois according to Perfect Game and he was also the Illinois Gatorade Player of the Year after hitting .500 with 15 doubles, nine homers and 42 steals as a senior.

He and his wife, Sadie, were married in 2024 in Louisville, KY.

Tyler and Sadie have a golden doodle named Kaiser.

THE FAM

His father, Mike, was a two-time first-round choice (1983 January and 1984 June secondary Drafts) and appeared in 13 games for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1988. He's now an investigator for the state of Illinois.

Tyler's mom, Leann, works part-time for a law firm.

Has two older siblings, Allie and Michael. Michael played collegiate baseball at Indiana State and professionally with the San Diego Padres organization.

He grew up rooting for the Atlanta Braves and the Atlanta Falcons despite living in Illinois. One of his favorite players was Chipper Jones.

Fitzgerald also used 2020 as a time to finish his finance degree at Louisville. He officially graduated in December of 2020.

2025 RECAP |

- Missed most of the 2025 season while recovering from right shoulder surgery to repair his anterior capsule, performed by Dr. Keith Meister in May.
- Optioned to Triple-A Toledo out of Spring Training with Detroit.
- Appeared in five games for the Mud Hens, striking out nine in 6.2 scoreless innings.
- Landed on the injured list at Toledo in late April and had his shoulder surgery in May.

CAREER NOTES |

2024 SEASON

Appeared in 69 games for Detroit and served as their primary closer down the stretch as they secured a postseason berth.

His 28 saves were tied for fifth-best in the American League and tied for ninth-best in the Majors. His 69 games pitched were tied for 12th-most in the AL.

Posted a 2.70 ERA (8er, 26.2ip) after the All-Star break while limiting opposing hitters to a .179 batting average against.

2023 SEASON

Appeared in a career-best 70 games and logged a 2.61 ERA in his second full season in the Majors with Detroit.

Set career-bests in games pitched, ERA, innings (69.0) and strikeouts (55).

His 28 holds were tied for fourth in the American League while 70 appearances tied for 10th-most in the AL. Among AL relievers with at least 50.0 innings, Foley's 1.96 BB/9ip was sixth-best and his 2.59 FIP was 10th.

2022 SEASON

Earned a spot on his first career Opening Day roster and went on to pitch in 60 games for the Tigers.

Picked up his first career win on August 2 vs. Minnesota.

2021 SEASON

Appeared in the Major Leagues for the first time in his career, pitching in 11 games for Detroit. Made his Major League debut on June 6 at the White Sox and threw 1.0 scoreless inning.

Began the season at Triple-A for the first time. Foley hadn't pitched above High-A Lakeland prior to the pandemic.

2016-2020 SEASONS

Worked his way up the ranks of Detroit's minor league system after signing as a non-drafted free agent in 2016.

Made only 24 appearances in 2017 after suffering a midseason elbow injury. Underwent Tommy John surgery and missed the rest of 2017 and the entire 2018 season.

Returned to the mound in 2019 and pitched the entire season at High-A Lakeland.

SACRED HEART UNIVERSITY (CT)

Made 48 career appearances (37 starts) on the mound for Sacred Heart from 2014-2016, going 10-13 with a 4.84 ERA and 154 strikeouts.

Voted to the Northeastern Conference All-Tournament Team in 2015 after he helped propel Sacred Heart to their seventh consecutive NEC Championship game.

OFF THE FIELD

Pitched on the Cape for Chatham in 2016. He also pitched for the Mystic of the New England Collegiate Baseball League in 2015 and 2016. Tigers' scouts signed him while he was playing for the Mystic.

Started throwing his sinker during Spring Training of 2020 when the Tigers brought in someone from Driveline to consult with some of their minor league pitchers on pitch design.

They told him his four-seam fastball, while he threw it hard, was extremely average from a metrics standpoint. They encouraged him to throw more two-seamers (sinkers) to have more arm-side run and depth.

"It pretty much entirely changed the landscape of my career. Up until that point I threw exclusively four seams and I would get away with it at the lower levels in the minor leagues because it was hard," Foley told reporters in 2023.

Is very into coffee and enjoys finding new coffee shops in the cities he travels to on the road. With the Tigers he was part of a group of guys who'd go search for new coffee shops. His go-to coffee order is an iced honey latte.

ALL HEART

When Jason Foley made his Major League debut for the Tigers on June 6, 2021 at the White Sox he became the third player from Sacred Heart University (CT) to play in the Major League. Coincidentally enough, one of the other two was fellow Tigers infielder Zack Short, who had just been optioned back to Triple-A Toledo a day earlier.

Tigers Manager AJ Hinch, however, let Short stay another day to watch his college teammate make his debut. Foley and Short took photos on the field to commemorate the moment.

2025 RECAP |

- Returned to the mound after missing the entire 2024 season...was recovering from right elbow UCL reconstruction with flexor repair surgery undergone following the 2023 season.
- Pitched for four different organizations and six teams, including two games with the Cubs and one with the Red Sox...posted a 4.76 ERA (3er, 5.2ip) with three strikeouts in his three MLB games.
- Totaled 45 games (four starts) in Triple-A with Worcester, Iowa, Omaha and Tacoma, totaling a 1-3 record with a 3.39 ERA (25er, 66.1ip), five saves, 86 strikeouts and a 1.24 WHIP.
- Began the season with Triple-A Worcester (Boston) before having his contract purchased on April 13...was designated for assignment and elected free agency on April 20.
- Signed a minor league deal with the Cubs on April 22 and had his contract selected on June 23...pitched in two games before being designated for assignment on June 29 and electing free agency on June 30.
- Signed a minor league contract with Kansas City on July 3 and pitched in 15 games for Triple-A Omaha before being released on August 16.
- Finished the season in Triple-A with Tacoma (Seattle) after signing a minor league deal with the Mariners on August 19...posted a 0.75 ERA (1er, 12.0ip) in 12 games.

2023 SEASON

Pitched in 58 games for the Cubs, the second-most in his career.

Placed on the 15-day Injured List on September 16 with a right forearm strain and missed the remainder of the year. Underwent right elbow UCL revision surgery on October 18, 2023 and missed the entire 2024 season.

2022 SEASON

Pitched in a career-high 67 games for the Tigers and Twins. He finished the year tied for third in the American League with 25 holds (tied for sixth in MLB). He limited right-handed batters to a .188 average.

Acquired by Minnesota from Detroit on August 2 for RHP Sawyer Gipson-Long.

500

Recorded his 500th career strikeout on August 28 vs. San Francisco (Austin Slater).

2021 SEASON

Moved to the bullpen full time, appearing in 52 games (four starts) while posting a career-best 2.97 ERA (23er, 69.2ip).

Earned the win in a start n April 14 at Houston, his first win since June 14, 2018 .

Recored his first MLB save May 5 at Boston to become the first Tigers pitcher since saves became an official stat in 1969 to log a start and a save in consecutive days (Elias).

Spent time on the IL with a right shoulder strain (June 3-14) and with a right cervical spine strain (June 27-July 27).

Had five multi-inning saves, the most by a Tiger since 2002 (Juan Acevedo, seven).

2020 SEASON

Returned from Tommy John surgery to make 10 starts. He pitched 3.0 innings or fewer in each start.

2019 SEASON

Missed the season recovering from Tommy John surgery performed on March 27.

2017 SEASON

Selected to his first All-Star team. Fulmer ranked among the AL leaders in homers per 9.0 innings (0.71, 1st), WHIP (1.15, 6th), BB/9ip (2.19, 6th) and opponent's batting average (.243, 9th).

Began the season with 10 straight quality starts from April 7-May 27. The streak tied Justin Verlander (March 31-May 19, 2011) for the longest by a Tigers pitcher to begin a season since 1913.

2016 SEASON

Named the AL Rookie of the Year, becoming the fifth Tigers player to earn the honor and the first since Justin Verlander in 2006.

Was also named the AL Outstanding Rookie in the Players Choice Award balloting, and finished 10th AL Cy Young Award voting.

Ranked third in the AL in ERA (3.06) and seventh in WHIP (1.12) among pitchers with at least 150.0 innings pitched.

Struck out 132 batters, which were the second-most by a Tigers rookie, trailing only Les Cain (156 in 1970).

DEBUT

Made his major league debut on April 29 at Minnesota. Earned the win, allowing two runs on seven hits with one walk and four strikeouts in 5.0 innings.

Recorded his first career double-digit strikeout game (11) on May 21 vs. Tampa Bay.

Became just the second Tigers pitcher since 1913 to have consecutive starts of 7.0-or-more shutout innings with three-or-fewer hits allowed May 27 and June 1.

Was the second Tigers pitcher since 1913 to win five of his first seven career starts (also Zach Miner, 2006).

Allowed three or fewer hits in four straight starts (May 27-June 12) and became just the second pitcher in MLB history since 1893 to record four consecutive starts of 6.0-or-more shutout innings with three-or-fewer hits allowed (Elias).

Did not allow a run over 33.1 innings from May 21-June 17, which was the second longest streak by a rookie since 1971 (Fernando Valenzuela, 35.0ip in 1981) per Elias.

Went 7-1 with a 0.83 record from May 21-July 17. Per Elias, that was the best ERA over a 10-consecutive start span in a debut season since runs began being tracked.

2011-2015 SEASONS

Named Eastern League Pitcher of the Year in 2015 after leading the league with a 2.14 ERA (28er, 117.2ip). Was also an EL Post-Season All-Star

Was the key return piece for Detroit in a July 31 trade with the Mets for OF Yoenis Céspedes. RHP Luis Cessa also went to Detroit in the deal.

Named a Minor League All-Star and a Double-A All-Star by Baseball America

Selected as the Competitive Balance Round A (44th overall pick) by the Mets in 2011.

He and his wife, Kelsey, have two children: a son, Miles, and a daughter, Sadie. Miles was born three weeks after Michael had his first Tommy John surgery in 2019.

Graduated from Deer Creek High School in Edmond, OK. Was teammates there with IF/OF Brian Anderson, who has played parts of eight seasons in the Majors with the Marlins (2017-2022), Brewers (2023) and Braves (2024).

Worked as a plumber's assistant in the offseason early in his career, even after he made it to the Major Leagues for a short while. "I helped out a little bit still, nothing too dangerous," Fulmer told MLB.com in 2018. "It's always nice to just get out and not think about anything, especially not baseball, just try to get out there and do something and stay active."

Was the Tigers nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award in 2018. Helped raise money as one of the 30 "Real Men" to participate in the American Cancer Society's 'Real Men Wear Pink' Campaign in 2017 and 2018.

2025 RECAP |

- Appeared in 36 games between the Rookie-level ACL Giants, Single-A San Jose , High-A Eugene and Double-A Richmond after returning to the field in late July...slashed .369/.493/.607 with six doubles, one triple, seven homers, 22 RBI and 31 runs scored in those games.
- Spent the first half of the season recovering from right shoulder surgery that he underwent in October 2024 while still with the Guardians organization.
- Spent a majority of his year at High-A Eugene, appearing in 21 games for the Emeralds while batting .364 with six homers and 15 RBI.
- Tabbed as the Northwest League's Player of the Week for the week of August 25-31, going 11-for-24 (.458) with five homers and 11 RBI in six games.
- Promoted to Double-A Richmond in September and went 12-for-31 (.387) with two extra-base hits and five RBI in nine games.
- Did equal damage versus lefties and righties, batting .342 versus left-handed pitching and .381 with all seven of his homers versus right-handed pitching.
- Made 22 starts at second base and 14 as the DH during his 2025 season.

SWINGMAN |

After his first season in professional baseball with Cleveland, Furman made some swing adjustments at the recommendation of some coaches in the Guardians system. When they were looking at different swings for examples, one of the swings they landed on was that of now fellow Giants teammate Will Brennan, who was rising through the Cleveland system at the time.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Missed the second half of the season after suffering a right shoulder strain during a game on June 27 while playing for Double-A Akron in the Guardians system. Underwent surgery on his shoulder on October 16, 2024.

Furman raked at High-A Lake County, hitting .338 with seven homers in 37 games before a promotion to Double-A Akron on June 3.

Acquired by the Giants from Cleveland on August 26 as the PTBNL to complete the Alex Cobb move at the trade deadline. The other player acquired by SF in that trade was LHP Jacob Bresnahan.

2023 SEASON

Led the Guardians system in on-base percentage (.397) and finished second in steals (37), third in walks (65) and tied for fourth in runs scored (74) after appearing in a combined 108 games between Single-A Lynchburg and High-A Lake County.

AT UNC CHARLOTTE

Spent two seasons on campus for the 49ers, slashing .351/.482/.468 with 28 extra-base hits and 47 RBI over 94 career games (85 starts).

His career .482 OBP was second-best in school history when he left while his .351 career batting average was ninth-best.

Named the Team MVP of the 49ers' 2022 squad and was one of two players to start and play in all 58 games. He reached base in all but two of the games.

Selected by Cleveland in the fourth-round of the 2022 First-Year Player Draft. He was the highest-drafted player from UNC Charlotte since 2017.

OFF THE FIELD

Starred at Monsignor Bonner (PA), helping them to back-to-back Philadelphia City Championships in 2017-2018. Was a four-year varsity starter and took home team MVP honors in 2018.

Considers himself a movie, TV show and Netflix buff and enjoys watching those in his spare time.

Grew up a Phillies fan and his favorite players were Chase Utley and Jimmy Rollins. He loosely models his game after Utley. Furman also grew up an Eagles fan with Donovan McNabb as his favorite player.

Was a Cape Cod League All-Star with the Orleans Firebirds in 2022. Was teammates on that team with current A's infielder Jacob Wilson.

Was playing for Orleans when draft day came around so his parents, Tom and Terri, brothers, Dan and Steve, two aunts and an uncle made the trip to the Cape to spend draft day with him.

Steve was a catcher at Iona during his playing days while Dan was a pitcher at the University of Pittsburgh.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Was a part of four different organizations during the calendar year (Houston, New York-AL, Los Angeles-NL and New York-NL).

However, only pitched in games at Triple-A Oklahoma City (Dodgers) and Triple-A Syracuse (Mets).

2023 SEASON

Claimed off of waivers by Houston on February 13 and played a majority of the season with Triple-A Sugar Land.

In five relief appearances across two stints with Houston, he went 0-0 with a 2.70 ERA (2er, 6.2ip) with eight strikeouts.

2022 SEASON

Signed by Toronto to a minor league contract with an invitation to MLB Spring Training.

Added to the Jays' active roster on June 6 and made his Major League debut that night at Kansas City, tossing a scoreless ninth inning with two strikeouts.

Had three Major League stints, making 11 appearances for the Blue Jays and posting a 1.38 ERA (2er, 13.0ip) and a 0.92 WHIP.

At Triple-A Buffalo, he was 2-2 with 12 saves and a 2.34 ERA (11er, 42.1ip) in 41 games. He allowed a .197 opponent average and struck out 46 in 42.1 innings pitched.

2020 SEASON

Played for Eastern Reyes del Tigre in the Constellation Energy League in 2020, making 11 appearances (three starts) while fashioning a 3.07 ERA (5er, 14.2ip).

2019 SEASON

Spent a year playing in the Mexican League with the Diablos Rojos del Mexico. He appeared in 25 games, making 24 starts.

2018 SEASON

Made starts with four different teams and two different organizations, suiting up for Richmond and Binghamton at the Double-A level, while taking the hill for Sacramento and Las Vegas in Triple-A.

Began the year with the Giants organization before being released. Signed with the Mets as a minor league free agent on August 4.

2017 SEASON

Named an Eastern League Mid-Season All-Star with Double-A Richmond. He was later promoted to Triple-A Sacramento.

OFF THE FIELD

He and his wife, Paige, have a son named Raymond who was born in January of 2024. Paige played college softball at Siena University .

In 2013, he played collegiate summer baseball with the Chatham Anglers of the Cape Cod Baseball League and was named an All-Star.

Gage starred for Siena University (NY) from 2012-14 and became the program's fourth-highest Major League Baseball draft pick following his junior season, when he established a then-program single-season record with 90 strikeouts.

Originally drafted by the Giants in 2014. "Coming back to the organization is just a full-circle moment," Gage said after getting called up to San Francisco in 2025. "Baseball will take you to funny places. Coming back to the team that originally drafted you, seven years later, to get to the big leagues is amazing."

AWARDS |

AL ROOKIE OF THE MONTH
JULY 2021

2025 RECAP |

- Opened the year with Milwaukee and appeared in 30 games before being designated for assignment and outrighted.
- Served as the backup catcher to William Contreras in Milwaukee, but never saw more than 20 at-bats a month through July.
- Was DFA'ed on July 28 after Milwaukee acquired Danny Jansen...was outrighted to Nashville on July 31 and spent the rest of the year in Triple-A.
- Owned a 3.81 catcher's ERA in his 28 games (18 starts) behind the plate for Milwaukee.
- Went 4-for-25 (.160) versus left-handed pitchers in his limited Major League action...was 12-for-45 (.267) in 51 plate appearances versus righties.

CAREER NOTES |

2024 SEASON

Designated for assignment at the end of Spring Training by Milwaukee despite a strong spring (.395/.465/.868 slash line with five homers in 18 games).

Cleared waivers and was outrighted to Triple-A Nashville, where he opened the year. Played 41 games for the Sounds and hit .279 with nine homers before having his contract selected by Milwaukee on June 26.

Spent the remainder of the year with the Major League club, appearing in 30 games while serving as William Contreras' backup. Was on Milwaukee's Wild Card Series roster but did not play in the series.

2023 SEASON

Appeared in 89 games in the Majors with 86 of them coming with the Tigers and three with the Guardians. Made 72 starts (55 at catcher, 15 in left field and two as a DH).

Caught his second career no-hitter, a combined effort from Tigers pitchers Matt Manning, Jason Foley and Alex Lange on July 8 vs. Toronto. In doing so he became the first Tigers player in club history to catch two no-hitters.

Signed a Major League contract with Milwaukee on December 20.

2022 SEASON

Made his first career Opening Day roster with Detroit and went on to set career-highs in games played (110), doubles (17), and OPS (.748) for a full season.

Notched a career-high five hits on September 7 at the Angels, going 5-for-5 with two doubles and a home run.

2021 SEASON

Set career bests in home runs (22) and RBI (61) while appearing in 98 games for his hometown Tigers. Also turned in four multi-homer games en route to his first 20-homer season.

Caught Spencer Turnbull's no-hitter on May 18 at Seattle in the Tigers' 5-0 win.

Named the American League Rookie of the Month and the Tigers Player of the Month for July after tying for the AL lead in home runs (nine) and leading the Majors in RBI (29).

2020 SEASON

Acquired by the Tigers, the team he grew up rooting for as a kid in Dearborn, MI, in exchange for cash on January 8.

2019 SEASON

Played predominantly at Triple-A Columbus in the Guardians system where he slugged 28 homers (tied for fifth-most in the International League). Named a Mid-Season and Post-Season All-Star with Columbus.

Appeared in 10 games in the Majors for Cleveland. His lone hit in the Majors in 2019 was his first career homer, a three-run shot off Patrick Corbin on September 28 at Washington.

2018 SEASON

Made his Major League debut on September 2 vs. Tampa Bay. Logged his first MLB hit and RBI a few weeks later on September 16 vs. Detroit. He spent nearly eight years in the minors before making his MLB debut.

Named an International League All-Star for Columbus after hitting 20 homers with 71 RBI in 120 games

OFF THE FIELD

He and his wife, Maria, have four children: a son, Santino, and three daughers named Francesca, Giorgia and Cecilia. Eric and Maria were high school sweethearts, started dating when they were sophomores and were married at 19.

MR. BASEBALL

Graduated from Divine Child (MI) High School where he was named "Mr. Baseball" by the Michigan High School Baseball Coaches Association as a senior. The award is given to the state's top prep player and had previously been won by notable future Major Leaguers Derek Jeter (1992) and D.J. LeMahieu (2007). He was also the Gatorade Player of the Year for Michigan in 2011.

Haase grew up a Tigers fan with his parents. His mom told the Detroit Free Press in an interview a few years ago "every season I would get the best tickets I could get right above the dugout. He'd want me to take him to watch batting practice and he would just stand there and be in awe of those guys."

His favorite Tigers growing up were C Iván "Pudge" Rodríguez and C/IF Brandon Inge.

His mother, Lori, has worked as a labor and delivery nurse for the last 30 years.

THANKS BUT...

Haase had committed to Ohio State to play collegiately before being drafted by Cleveland in the seventh round of the 2011 draft and signing.

Haase helped hone his swing as a kid in a 12-car pole barn in his backyard that his father converted into a batting cage. When Eric graduated from high school, they held the graduation party in the barn.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Slashed .269/.389/.449 (21x78) with 19 runs, seven doubles, two triples, one homer and 19 RBI in 23 games with Single-A Tampa after signing with New York-AL as a non-drafted free agent.

AT NORTH CAROLINA

Set career-highs in AVG (.343), OBP (.425), SLG (.648), homers (20), RBI (63), hits (80) and walks (35),while being named NCBWA Second Team All-American and Second-Team All ACC in his lone season (2024).

AT GEORGIA

Played three seasons at Georgia, appearing in 145 games. Recorded 109 RBI over his final 110 games as a Bulldog.

OFF THE FIELD

Starred at The Westminster (GA) School despite missing most of his junior year with a wrist injury and having his 2020 senior season canceled due to the Covid-19 pandemic. As a sophomore, he was named first-team All-State and the 2018 Class 3A Player of the Year by the Georgia Dugout Club.

Was a quarterback on Westminster's football team where he was a three-year letter winner. He helped lead the team to the Georgia 3A state playoffs in 2018.

Has a fraternal twin brother, Robson. The duo went to rival high schools growing up. The two never played on the same teams growing up (started in Little League) as they wanted to each have their separate paths. In high school, Robson's school, Lovett, beat Parks' high school for the state championship. Robson ended up going to Auburn (did not play baseball at Auburn).

Grew up a Georgia Bulldogs fan and went to many football games as a child. Parks' father, Gene, attended the school for college.

Played on the Cape during the summer of 2022, playing for the Brewster Whitecaps.

"I saw [going undrafted] as motivation," Harber told Baseball America this past October. "People didn't see me as good enough to get drafted. It was up to me to put in the work to get myself to a place where I could be considered good enough."

CAREER NOTES |

2024 SEASON

Named the Giants Pitching Prospect of the Year by MLB.com after making his way from Single-A San Jose to Double-A Richmond by season's end.

His 2.00 ERA ranked second lowest among Eugene pitchers (min. 30ip), while his .196 opponent average ranked fourth lowest (min. 30ip).

AT UNC PEMBROKE/HIGH POINT

Played both infield and pitcher, posting a career average of .277 with a .772 OPS in 434 plate appearances while going 8-7 with a 3.75 ERA and 120 strikeouts across 108.0 innings on the mound.

Underwent Tommy John surgery in 2021 while he was at High Point. He transferred to UNC Pembroke and missed the 2022 season.

Went undrafted out of UNC Pembroke. Signed as a free agent on July 27, 2023 by scout Paul Faulk. Jr.

OFF THE FIELD

Attended Pro5 Baseball Academy in Raleigh, NC for his senior year of high school. Harris was one of the first to graduate from Pro5, the first full-time academy for baseball in North Carolina. Days at Pro 5 begin at 9am where Harris would take BP, infield grounders and then occasionally pitch until noon. After lunch he'd return to school for an hour of weight training and then independent study hall until 4:30 p.m. The academy was at the home of the Holly Springs Salamanders in the summer wood-bat Coastal Plain League.

Because Pro5 doesn't offer academic curriculum, high school students who attend can take courses online. As far as the competition level, they play against junior college and NCAA Division II opponents as well as other academies.

Harris' junior year of high school were completed at Heritage High School in Wake Forest where he was Conference Player of the Year as a junior after recording a program-record 0.51 ERA in 51.2 innings. He also lettered in basketball at Heritage.

His father, Greg W. Harris, pitched parts of eight seasons in the Majors with San Diego (1988-1993), Colorado (1993-1994) and Minnesota (1995). He went 45-64 with a 3.98 ERA, 605 strikeouts and a 1.30 WHIP in 243 games (109 starts).

Trent's older brother, Drake, was an infielder who spent three seasons at USC Upstate before transferring to Queens University of Charlotte.

FREAKY FRIDAY

Trent's delivery reminds some evaluators of former Giant Tim Lincecum's delivery, in part because of their slim builds but also for the arm angle. Harris told the San Francisco Chronicle at the Futures Game last year: "I hear Lincecum a bunch. I think it's being so over the top. And I was a huge Lincecum fan, just loved the way he went about his business and he has so much success. He really figured it out and I would love to do the same."

LICKETY-SPLIT

Added a splitter to his pitch arsenal last season (2025) at the advice of Giants assistant minor league pitching coordinator Matt Yourkin. Harris said he worked with him in Arizona playing around with different grips until they found one that stuck: a mix between a kick change and a split (birdy).

HI-DI-HO NEIGHBOR

After spending the 2023 season still as a two-pay player at UNC Pembroke, Harris decided to focus solely on pitching for the Wilson Tobs of the Coastal Plain League. He ended up winning Pitcher of the Year honors after leading the summer league with a 0.30 ERA in 29.2 innings (six appearances). His performance there caught the eye of Giants' scout Paul Faulk Jr., another UNC Pembroke alum.

"I love Trent Harris, man," Faulk told MLB.com's Maria Guardado in 2025. "The thing about Trent, he had some big cojones. He really did. I watched him on the mound, and he just attacked hitters. He went at them with everything he had. That was the thing that really impressed me."

Harris was resigned to going back to UNC Pembroke when things started to happen with the Giants.

"I was actually packing my bags to go back to school for a sixth year," Harris said last March. "And then Paul Faulk, he called me. That was actually really cool. I would have signed for a bus ticket. It's always a good time to keep playing.".

Faulk, now a Royals scout, also found SF's No. 3 prospect (according to Baseball America) Bo Davidson.

2025 RECAP |

- Missed the entire 2025 season while recovering from left shoulder surgery that was performed by Dr. Neal ElAttrache in Los Angeles on September 18, 2024...the expected return time was 12-14 months.
- During his rehab, he developed some right knee soreness and underwent arthroscopic surgery in August, 2025, which had an expected recovery time of three to four months.

CAREER NOTES |

2024 SEASON

Appeared in only 25 games as he was limited by a pair of injuries. Began the year on the IL with a left middle finger sprain suffered in Spring Training.

Made his season debut on May 6 and was on the active roster until July 10. 19 of his 25 outings with the Guardians were scoreless.

Left shoulder soreness shut him down on July 11. He tried a rehab assignment from July 30-August 7 before being shut down again. After multiple opinions it was recommended he undergo surgery.

2023 SEASON

Rattled off a 14-game scoreless streak from July 29-August 29. He also didn't allow an earned run over 25 games from July 29-September 21 (23.1ip).

Posted a 0.35 ERA (1er, 25.2ip) over his final 27 games from July 29 to the end of the season.

Allowed only two of his 29 inherited runners to score (6.9%), leading all MLB pitchers (min. 25 inherited runners).

2022 SEASON

Established career bests in games (57), strikeouts (72), WHIP (0.97), FIP (2.42) and ERA (2.32) as part of his breakout season with the Guardians, his first full year as a reliever.

Logged first career save on September 19 vs. Minnesota.

Had a terrific second half, posting a 0.30 ERA in 25 games after the All-Star break. He struck out 36 batters in 29.2 innings and held opposing hitters to a .121 average.

2022 POSTSEASON

Appeared in three games for Cleveland in the postseason, going 1-0 with a 2.84 ERA (2er, 6.1ip). Was the winning pitcher in Cleveland's 15.0-inning, Wild Card-clinching win over Tampa Bay. He worked the final 3.0 innings and struck out six in the win.

2021 SEASON

Broke into the big leagues after six years (plus the Covid year) in the minors. Appeared in 30 games (12 starts) for Cleveland.

Began the year at the Alternate Site in Columbus before being promoted to the Major League roster on April 17. Made his debut three days later in relief on April 20 vs. Chicago-AL.

Went 0-4 with a 7.90 ERA in his 12 starts. Was used primarily as a reliever in September and logged a 1.74 ERA (2er, 10.1ip) in eight games with 12 strikeouts.

2019 SEASON

Spent the entire year at Double-A Akron, making 26 starts for the RubberDucks. Hentges' 126 strikeouts were fourth-most in the Eastern League as well as fourth-most in the Cleveland system.

2018 SEASON

Named a Carolina League Mid-Season All-Star with High-A Lynchburg in his first full season back from Tommy John surgery.

2017 SEASON

Returned to game action on July 8 with the AZL club, his first game action since undergoing Tommy John surgery in 2016. Made a total of 11 starts between the AZL and Short-Season Mahoning Valley.

2016 SEASON

Made 14 starts at Low-A Lake County before a left elbow strain ended his season. He underwent left elbow reconstruction in July and missed the rest of the season.

OFF THE FIELD

He and his wife, Caitlin, have one son, Jaxson and make their offseason home in Arizona.

Graduated from Mounds View High School in Arden Hills, MN (Greater Minneapolis Area). Helped lead Arden Hills to a Class 3A Minnesota state baseball title during his junior and senior seasons. Went 8-0 with a 0.56 ERA and 85 strikeouts in 50 innings as a senior.

Was tabbed as the 2013-2014 Gatorade Minnesota Baseball Player of the Year his senior season.

Hentges' high school is a 30 minute drive from where Giants OF Drew Gilbert went to high school (Stillwater HS).

Hentges was one of the most active Guardians players in the community as a member of the "Ready to Respond" program. He attended multiple outings to visit with local first responders as well as making a trip to the Cleveland Animal Protective League (APL) to interact with the animals at the shelter.

2025 RECAP |

- Turned in one of the better seasons of his career between the White Sox and Rays, making 21 starts at the Major League level.
- Was a non-roster invite for Texas in the spring and started the year at their Triple-A affiliate in Round Rock...appeared in nine games (eight starts) for the Express and went 2-2 with a 5.03 ERA.
- Released by Texas on May 15 and signed a Major League deal with the White Sox five days later.
- Had a 2.10 ERA (16er, 68.2ip) in 11 starts with the White Sox with a 1.22 WHIP
- Chicago went 8-3 in his 11 starts while Houser himself was 6-2.
- Was acquired by Tampa Bay at the trade deadline in exchange for IF Curtis Mead, RHP Duncan Davitt and RHP Ben Peoples.
- Went 2-3 with a 4.79 ERA (30er, 56.1ip) in 10 starts with the Rays following the trade.
- Turned in one of his best starts as a Ray against the Giants at Oracle Park on August 16, firing 5.0 scoreless innings with no walks, six strikeouts and four hits allowed.
- For the year, Houser had a 2.19 ERA (13er, 53.1ip) in nine starts against National League opponents while owning a 4.14 ERA (33er, 71.2ip) in 12 starts versus AL foes.

2024 SEASON

Spent a majority of the season with the New York Mets but also spent time in the Cubs and Orioles organizations late in the year.

Made 23 appearances (seven starts) for the Mets and ended up pitching mostly in relief after owning an 8.16 ERA through six starts.

Logged his first career save on June 26 vs. the Yankees with 3.0 scoreless innings of relief to close out a 12-2 win.

Signed by Chicago-NL to a minor league deal on August 6 after being DFA'ed and released by the Mets in late July. Made four starts at Triple-A Iowa, posting a 3.86 ERA (8er, 18.2ip) before being released on August 31.

Was then signed by Baltimore and made three starts at Triple-A Norfolk before the season ended.

2023 SEASON

Appeared in 23 games (making 21 starts) for Milwaukee while also having two trips to the injured list. Posted a 3.99 FIP in his seventh season with Milwaukee.

Didn't make his season debut with Milwaukee until May after he was sidelined by right groin tightness.

Struck out a career-high tying 10 batters on July 22 vs. Atlanta.

Acquired by New York-NL with OF Tyrone Taylor on December 20 in exchange for RHP Coleman Crow.

2022 SEASON

Made 22 appearances (21 starts) for the Brewers while working around two trips to the injured list.

Missed nearly two months from July 1-August 23 with a right flexor strain and then missed the final few games of the year when he hit the IL on September 28 with a right groin strain.

Owned a 2.98 ERA (14er, 42.1ip) in his first eight starts of the campaign.

2021 SEASON

Set career-bests in starts (26), wins (10), ERA (3.22) and innings pitched (142.1) with the Brewers going 18-8 in his starts.

On May 8 at Miami, Houser became the 15th pitcher in the modern era to hit a home run, strike out 10+ batters and walk none.

Logged his only career shutout on September 4 vs. St. Louis.

Notched the win in Game 1 of the NLDS vs. Atlanta with 2.0 innings of relief.

2020 SEASON

Induced a 5-4-3 triple play off the bat of Yadier Molina on September 27 vs. St. Louis, the ninth triple play recorded in Brewers history.

Worked 2.0 scoreless innings of relief in Game 2 of the NL Wild Card Series vs. the Dodgers.

2019 SEASON

Appeared in a career-best 35 games for Milwaukee and struck out a career-high 117 in his first full season in the Majors.

2018 SEASON

Returned to the Majors for the first time since 2015 after beginning the year in the minors. Was up with the Brewers for five different stints during the year.

2016-2017 SEASONS

Made 13 starts at Double-A Biloxi in 2016 before undergoing Tommy John surgery on his right elbow on July 21. The surgery was performed by Dr. William Raasch.

He missed the rest of the 2016 season and returned at the tail end of the 2017 campaign to make nine starts between the AZL Brewers and Single-A Wisconsin. He also made four starts for Salt River in the Arizona Fall League after the season.

2015 SEASON

Started the year in the Houston organization and reached Double-A Corpus Christi.

Acquired by Milwaukee along with LHP Josh Hader, OF Brett Phillips and OF Domingo Santana in a deadline deal on July 30 that sent RHP Mike Fiers and OF Carlos Gómez to Houston.

Made his Major League debut in relief on September 26 at St. Louis.

Finished the year in the AFL, making seven starts for Surprise.

He and his wife, Megan, have two children: a boy, Nolan, and a girl, Holland.

12

12 is a special number for him. He wore it all through Little League and high school. Both his brother and dad wore it when they played. When he saw it was available with SF he was excited to wear it in the big leagues for the first time.

His cousin, Bob Davis, was a Major League catcher with San Diego (1973, 1975-78), Toronto (1979-80) and California (1981).

Did the "carnivore diet" during the 2024-25 and 2025-26 offseasons (One to start the offseason and one in January after the holidays).

He's one of three active Major Leaguers that are a part of the Cherokee Nation with the others being Ryan Helsley and Jon Gray. Houser grew up speaking some Cherokee in school.

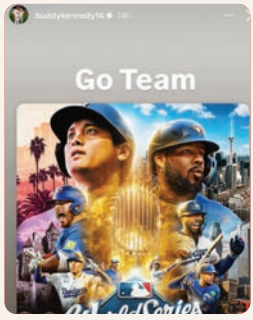
GO TEAM |

Having played for both the American League Champion Toronto Blue Jays and the National League Champion Los Angeles Dodgers during the 2025 regular season, Kennedy was one of two players that was guaranteed a ring no matter who won this past year's Fall Classic (also right-handed pitcher José Ureña).

His fiancée, Claire, came up with a fun way to celebrate the unique situation, with Kennedy posting a "Go Team" graphic on his Instagram that had both Dodgers and Blue Jays players on it.

He told The Athletic that "It'll be a fun series for me because each game is, to me, meaningful in some way. I'm not there, but I was there. I added some little -- very, very little -- help."



CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Began the season with Detroit appearing in six MLB games with the Tigers before being acquired by Philadelphia in exchange for cash on June 7.

2023 SEASON

Ranked inside the PCL's top-10 with eight triples (T-1st), .432 OBP (2nd) and a .307 batting average (6th).

2022 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on June 17 with Arizona and recorded his first MLB hit in his third at-bat that game off Minnesota's Devin Smeltzer.

Hit his first MLB home run, a grand slam, on father's day with his family in the crowd.

2021 SEASON

Named an MiLB.com Organization All-Star for Arizona, batting .290 (101x348) with 11 doubles, two triples, 22 home runs, 60 RBI and 16 stolen bases over 96 games with Hillsboro (High-A) and Amarillo (Double-A).

AT MILLVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

Became the first player drafted out of Millville High School since the Los Angeles Angels selected Mike Trout in 2009.

OFF THE FIELD

HEY BUDDY

While in elementary school, he was called into the office and did not like the way his name (Clifton Kennedy) sounded over the loud speaker as he thought he would always become a baseball player.

HEY BUDDY PT. II

His father, who is Clifton Lewis Kennedy II, went by Buddy so he told the school to start calling him Buddy. As a result, his dad now goes by Bud.

The biggest influence on his career is his grandfather, Don Money, who played 16 years in the Majors from 1968-1983 with Philadelphia and Milwaukee.

2025 RECAP |

- Made one start for Triple-A Iowa, allowing six runs in 2.1 innings on April 3...was placed on the IL two days later with a right shoulder strain.
- Was designated for assignment by Chicago on April 10 and released on April 12...he was then re-signed to a minor league contract by the Cubs two days later and transferred to the minor league 60-day IL at Triple-A on April 19.
- During his rehab, Kilian changed his diet to add more muscle and got his weight up to 215 pounds.
- He also told the Des Moines Register that he tinkered with his mechanics after talking with roommate and former Giants farmhand Wil Jensen.
- Jensen had worked closely with Tread Athletics and talked to Kilian about incorporating drift as he loaded up in his delivery.
- Began a rehab assignment with High-A South Bend on August 10 and was activated from the IL on August 17.
- Combined with the added weight, Kilian came back from the injury throwing hard like he used to, reaching 100 mph in a sim game in Arizona and touching 97.9 mph in his first outing back in Triple-A.
- Spent the remainder of the 2025 season in the Iowa bullpen...seven of his eight relief appearances after being activated were scoreless (4er, 10.1ip).
- Struck out 13 batters in 12.2 innings as a reliever at Iowa but also walked eight.
- Averaged 96.7 mph with his four-seam fastball and 96.3 mph with his sinker as a reliever at Iowa.
- Also missed a week on the temporary inactive list in late September as he and his wife, Tessa, welcomed a baby boy, Kohen John, on September 21.
- Elected free agency in November and signed back with the Giants, the original team that drafted him, on December 14.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Missed a majority of Spring Training and over half of the regular season with a right shoulder strain. Returned on a rehab assignment at High-A South Bend on July 2 and returned to an active roster on July 31 after being optioned to Triple-A.

Posted a 1.88 ERA (5er, 24.0ip) with 21 strikeouts and four walks in five starts for Triple-A Iowa in August.

Appeared in two games for the Cubs in late September. Had the best start of his brief MLB career on September 29 vs. Cincinnati (5.0ip, 3h, 0r, 2bb, 4k)

2023 SEASON

Spent most of the year at Triple-A, appearing in 25 games and making 24 starts while going 8-3 with a 4.56 ERA. Made three appearances, one start, for the Cubs at the MLB level.

2022 SEASON

Logged 26 starts at Triple-A Iowa but also made the first three starts of his Major League career for the Cubs.

Made his MLB debut on June 4 vs. the Cardinals, starting the second game of a doubleheader.

2021 SEASON

Enjoyed a breakout campaign in his first full season of pro ball after not pitching during the 2020 season.

Started the year at High-A Eugene and dominated (1.25 ERA, 32 strikeouts, one walk) over four starts to earn a promotion to Double-A Richmond.

Made 11 starts at Richmond and logged a 2.43 ERA (17er, 63.0ip) that included two complete games (one shutout). He whiffed 64 batters in 63.0 innings and walked just eight batters.

Acquired by Chicago-NL on July 30 along with OF Alexander Canario in exchange for IF/OF Kris Bryant. Made four starts at Double-A Tennessee to end the year.

Finished the year in the AFL where he made six appearances, three starts, to help Mesa win the AFL title. He pitched 6.0 hitless innings with eight strikeouts in the AFL Championship Game.

TEXAS TECH

Was a fixture in the weekend rotation during his junior season for the Aggies. Texas Tech went 13-4 in his 17 starts.

Selected by the Giants in the eighth round of the draft. He improved his draft stock 12 rounds after being taken in the 20th round of the 2018 draft by the Orioles but returned to school.

OFF THE FIELD

He and his wife, Tessa, welcomed their first child, a boy named Kohen John, on September 21, 2025.

Starred at Flower Mound (TX) High School where he was a three-year letter winner. Was part of a squad that won the 2014 Texas State Championship.

His father, Joel, ran track at California Lutheran.

- Optioned to Triple-A Sacramento on June 4 after hitting just .219 with one homer and eight RBI in 29 games.
- Recalled from Triple-A on June 10, replacing IF Matt Chapman (IL) on the roster...slashed .291/.328/.427 with 19 runs, nine doubles, two home runs, 15 RBI and a .755 OPS over his final 45 games.
- Placed on the 10-day Injured List on July 1 with a left hamstring strain sustained after hitting a double on June 30...missed 24 games.
- Hit .263 (20x76) with 13 runs, six doubles, a home run, 11 RBI and a .695 OPS in 33 games after returning from injury.
- Pitched 4.0 innings for SF in mop-up duty, not allowing a run in any of the four appearances.
- His 76 games played led Giants rookies...started 39 games at second base, seven at third base and three at shortstop.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Spent his first season in the Giants organization after being acquired in a trade from Boston at the end of Spring Training.

Garnered his first Double-A Player of the Week Award with Richmond for the week of June 23. He batted .386 in 25 games with the Squirrels overall.

Promoted to Triple-A on July 3. He slashed .257/.332/.415 with 32 runs, 10 doubles, a triple, five home runs, five stolen bases and 19 RBI over 54 games for Sacramento.

2023 SEASON

Received his second-straight invite to Major League Spring Training and reached Triple-A for the first time in his career.

2022 SEASON

Named team MVP for Double-A Portland after leading the team in home runs (17), RBI (84), hits (127) and total bases (210).

2021 SEASON

Traded by Colorado to Boston prior to the season in exchange for LHP Yoan Aybar.

Played for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League. He was teammates with current Giant Patrick Bailey as well as former Giants prospects Marco Luciano, Cole Waites and Hunter Bishop.

AT UC IRVINE

Named Big West Defensive Player of the Year in his final season at UC Irvine in 2019.

OFF THE FIELD

He and his wife, Laura, have one daughter, Isla. Laura threw out the first pitch to Christian on Mother's Day, 2022 prior to the Portland Sea Dogs' game.

FAMILY BUSINESS

Christian's parents are Dale and Guadalupe. Both attended Cal Baptist with Dale playing basketball and Guadalupe playing volleyball. Christian has two sisters, Laikyn and Ferryn, who both played soccer. Laikyn played collegiately at Colorado State Pueblo and Ferryn played at San Bernardino Valley College.

Despite growing up in Riverside, Koss actually grew up a Giants fan. His father, Dale, picked the Giants as his team to go against his Southern California-team rooting friends. Additionally, Dale's favorite player was Will Clark.

Was teammates with Giants C Patrick Bailey in 2018 while playing for the Yarmouth-Dennis Red Sox of the Cape Cod League. Was teammates with Bailey again in 2021 with the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League.

KOSS, INK

Added to the tattoos he already had by getting his last name in Giants lettering (to look like the back of his jersey) tattooed at the top of his back this past offseason. Also has one of the Lorax (what he calls his wife), one for his daughter and one of Guadalupe to celebrate his mom. Others include nods to some pop-culture favorites that he likes. He told the San Francisco Chronicle's Susan Slusser "Love for Star Wars, love for Ninja Turtles, I've got the Riverside Bell and baseball seams."

- Made his second career Opening Day roster.
- Played in a career-high 150 games (including the KBO) and hit .266 with 31 doubles, 12 triples, eight home runs and 55 RBI in what was his first full season in the big leagues.
- Hit his first career triple on April 9 vs. Cincinnati.
- His 12 triples were third-most in the Majors and the most by a Giant since Ángel Págan had 15 in 2012.
- Became the fourth Giant since 1920 to have at least 45 hits, 25 runs and five steals in their first 45 career games, joining Dan Gladden (1983-84), Orlando Cepeda (1958) and George Myatt (1938-39).
- Hit his first homer of the season on April 11 at Yankee Stadium in his first plate appearance...the only other Giant to homer in his first career game at Yankee Stadium was Ehire Adrianza on Sept. 22, 2013.
- Logged his first career multi-homer game on April 13 at the Yankees.
- Hit his first Oracle Park home run of the season on Korean Heritage Night on May 13 vs. Arizona.
- Hit his second career leadoff homer on August 19 at San Diego off Nick Pivetta.
- Lined a double on August 27 vs. Chicago-NL to become the fifth Giant in SF history with 30+ doubles and 10+ triples in a single season, joining Willie Mays (1958 - 33 doubles, 11 triples), Bobby Bonds (1970 - 36 doubles, 10 triples), Garry Maddox (1973 - 30 doubles, 10 triples) and Ángel Págan (2012 - 38 doubles, 15 triples).
- His 11.5% strikeout rate ranked in the top 5% of MLB.
- The Giants were 38-17 when Lee scored a run.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Appeared in 37 games with SF and slashed .262/.310/.331 with four doubles, two home runs and eight RBI in his first MLB season.

Had his season cut short after dislocating his left shoulder during a play on the outfield on May 12 vs. Cincinnati. Lee underwent season-ending surgery on June 4 in Los Angeles. The procedure was performed by Dr. Neal ElAttrache.

2023 SEASON

Appeared in 85 games for Kiwoom and slashed .318/.407/.456 with six home runs, 45 RBI and 50 runs scored.

Broke his left ankle vs. the Lotte Giants on July 22. He had season-ending surgery on July 27. Was able to make a brief appearance in the team's final game on October 10, where Lee had one at-bat in his final KBO appearance.

Played for South Korea in the 2023 World Baseball Classic and hit .429 with two doubles and five RBI in the tournament.

2022 SEASON

Named the KBO's MVP after slashing .349/.421/.575 in 142 games. Established career bests in homers (23) and RBI (113).

Once again led the KBO in average (.349) while also leading the league in hits (193), RBI (113) and OPS (.996).

2021 SEASON

Played for the South Korean national baseball team at the 2020 Summer Olympics which were held in 2021.

Led the KBO in batting average after hitting .360 in 123 games.

2020 SEASON

Won his third consecutive Golden Glove Award while batting .333 with 15 home runs, 101 RBI and a career-high .921 OPS.

2019 SEASON

Hit .336 during the regular season to help the Heroes reach the postseason. He was named a KBO Playoff MVP after helping Kiwoom reach the Korean Series.

With Lee's father, Jong-beom, also named MVP in the 1993 Korean Series, it was first time in league history that both father and son won a postseason MVP award.

Following the KBO season, Lee played for the South Korean national baseball team at the 2019 WBSC Premier12.

2018 SEASON

.355

Slashed .355/.412/.477 in his second season with the Heroes.

Represented South Korea at the 2018 Asian Games. Had the winning RBI against Chinese Taipei.

2017 SEASON

Selected by the Nexen Heroes in the 2017 KBO League draft held in 2016. He was originally taken as an infielder but converted to the outfield with the Heroes.

Made the team's Opening Day roster at 18 years old without playing in the KBO Futures League, becoming the first KBO rookie out of high school to appear in every game.

Set a KBO rookie record with 179 hits and slashed .324/.395/.417 with two homers, 47 RBI and 12 stolen bases on his way to win the KBO League Rookie of the Year Award.

OFF THE FIELD

51

Lee wears #51 with the Giants, the same number he wore through his seven-year career with the Kiwoom Heroes. Lee chose the number after his favorite player, Hall-of-Famer Ichiro Suzuki, who was on the rise with the Orix Buffaloes in 1998 when Lee was born in Japan. Three years later, Ichiro would become the first position player to make the leap from Nippon Professional Baseball to the Majors.

During 2024 Spring Training, Lee was able to meet his idol, Ichiro, prior to a Spring Training game vs. the Mariners with the help of former Giants manager Bob Melvin. The two talked about preparation and what it means to play the game at the highest level.

HEY BUDDY!

Is good friends with Braves infielder and former Kiwoom Heroes teammate Ha-Seong Kim. "He was my spiritual leader in Korea. I was able to start dreaming big dreams thanks to his great advice. It's at once surreal and exciting to put aside our friendship and face each other" Lee made his MLB debut against Kim and the Padres on March 28, 2024.

HEY BUDDY PT. 2

Also is friends with Dodgers utilityman Hyeseong Kim. Lee and Kim were also teammates for Kiwoom during Lee's time in the KBO.

Lee is the son of Jong-beom Lee, a former KBO MVP whose nickname is "Son of the Wind." He earned the label after stealing a KBO-record 84 bases in 1994 en route to being the league's Most Valuable Player.

GRANDSON OF THE WIND

In his introductory press conference, Jung Hoo called himself "Grandson of the Wind", honoring his father's legacy. His father's 19-year playing career began in Korea for the Kia Tigers but eventually took him to the Chunichi Dragons in Nagoya, Japan, where Jung Hoo was born.

Jong-beom was the 1993 Korean Series MVP winner after batting .310 to help Kia to a championship.

Jong-beom Lee says he is a fan of San Francisco because his wife, Jeong-min Jeong, is. "She always wanted to come to San Francisco," Jong-beom said. "I love the history of the team. McCovey Cove, to me and Korean fans, that's a big deal – and the Coca-Cola bottle. This stadium's been in so many movies."

Lee has two dogs, a Pomeranian named Kao (right) and a Chihuahua named Lua (left). Kao has its own Instagram (@kkaorua).

FAMILY TIES

Lee's sister, Ga Hyun Lee, is married to Tigers minor league reliever Woo-Suk Go. The two were wed in January of 2023. Go served as the closer for the 2023 KBO champion LG Twins before coming to play in the states. Lee and Go have been competing against one another on the field since Lee's third year of middle school. You can read the full article courtesy of MLB.com by clicking here.

TRANSACTIONS

Selected by Nexen in the Korean Baseball Organization 2016 draft.

Signed by San Francisco to a six-year Major League contract with a player opt out after the 2027 season on December 14, 2023.

Placed on the 10-day injured list on May 13, 2024 (left shoulder dislocation)...transferred to the 60-day IL on May 18 and missed the remainder of the 2024 season.

ACROSS THE WORLD...

This past offseason, the Giants sent a 17-member traveling party to Korea that included star infielder Willy Adames, new manager Tony Vitello, PBO Buster Posey, GM Zack Minasian and Team President Larry Baer among others. The trip served as an opportunity for Vitello to meet personally with Lee but also for the organization as a whole to do some outreach in Seoul.

Over the quick three-day trip, the Giants toured the city but also hosted a baseball clinic for two high school teams at the home of the LG Twins. For more on the trip, you can watch recaps on the MLB Korea YouTube channel here or read about it in The Athletic here courtesy of Andrew Baggarly.

2025 RECAP |

- Turned in one of the better seasons of his career in his second season with Texas.
- Logged a 2.18 ERA (21er, 86.2ip) in 16 starts with seven of his 16 outings being quality starts...set career bests in ERA, opponent's average against (.218) OPS against (.593) and HR/9ip (0.52) (min. 10 starts).
- Was terrific at home, posting a 0.84 ERA (5er, 53.2ip) in 10 starts...had a 4.36 ERA (16er, 33.0ip) in six road starts.
- Named the Rangers Player of the Month for March/April after going 3-0 with a 1.14 ERA and 0.98 WHIP in six starts...he led the American League in ERA, opponent's OPS (.465) and slugging % (.211) in the first month of the season.
- Began his season with 40.2 homerless innings, the longest streak by a starter to open the season in 2025...allowed five homers in 86.2 innings all year.
- Owned a 1.47 ERA through his first 10 starts (through mid-May)...had a 0.98 WHIP in that span.
- Had a 4.50 ERA (11er, 22.0ip) in four starts from May 23-June 10 before being placed on the 15-day injured list with right shoulder fatigue on June 15 (retro to June 12).
- Transferred to the 60-day IL on July 1 and did not begin a rehab assignment until September 2 at Triple-A Round Rock.
- Made three rehab starts for the Express before returning to the Major League rotation when he was activated from the IL on September 19.
- Returned to the Rangers rotation and made his final two starts of the year (both at home)...allowed one run in 9.2 innings (0.93 ERA) with nine hits allowed, two walks and 10 strikeouts in those outings.

2024 SEASON

Missed the first half of the season recovering from Tommy John surgery in May 2023. Made six rehab starts in Texas' minor league system in July and totaled a 2.50 ERA.

Returned to a Major League mound on August 6 vs. Houston and allowed one run in 5.0 innings in a losing effort.

Only made three starts for Texas before going back on the IL with right shoulder tightness on August 20 and missing the rest of the year.

2023 SEASON

Logged only five starts for the Twins after landing on the 15-day injured list on April 30 with a right arm posterior impingement and flexor pronator strain. Underwent Tommy John surgery on May 22, performed by Dr. Keith Meister, and missed the rest of the year.

2022 SEASON

Made his fifth consecutive Opening Day roster and made his first career Opening Day start, beating the Braves in Atlanta with 5.0 innings of one-run ball (no earned runs).

Missed a few weeks from July 3-23 with a strained right shoulder.

Acquired by Minnesota at the trade deadline on August 2 in exchange for IF Spencer Steer, IF Christian Encarnacion-Strand and LHP Steve Hajjar.

Made only four starts for Minnesota due to a pair of stints on the injured list with right shoulder inflammation (August 20-September 2 and September 4 through the end of the year).

2021 SEASON

Made his fourth consecutive Opening Day roster and enjoyed a career-year with the Reds. He set career bests in wins (13), ERA (3.75), starts (33), quality starts (12), innings (180.0) and strikeouts (210).

Ranked among the National League leaders in starts (33, T-1st), strikeouts (210, 9th), bWAR (4.9, 9th), wins (13, T-10th) and ERA (3.75, 16th).

Became the 14th-pitcher in Reds history to reach the 200-strikeout mark in a season. His 10.50 K/9ip ratio was third-best in franchise history for a single season at the time.

2020 SEASON

Enjoyed his best season in the Majors to date in the shortened season, going 2-2 with a 3.59 ERA in 10 games (nine starts). Made Cincinnati's postseason roster for the NL Wild Card Series but did not pitch.

2019 SEASON

Made his second career Opening Day roster and went 3-12 with a 5.14 ERA in 25 starts for the Reds.

Missed a month on the injured list from July 20-August 21 with a left hamstring strain.

2018 SEASON

Made his first career Opening Day roster, breaking camp in the Reds' rotation.

Ranked among NL rookies in wins (7, T-4th), starts (23, T-5th), strikeouts (110, 6th) and innings (112.0, T-7th).

Logged 23 starts over two stints in the Majors for the Reds. Was on the Major League roster from Opening Day through August 2 and from September 4 to the end of the year.

Fanned a career-best 12 batters on June 30 vs. Milwaukee, becoming the seventh rookie in Reds history to strike out 12+ in a game.

2017 SEASON

Made his Major League debut as a 22-year-old for the Reds on August 27, 2017 versus the Pirates. Went on to make four starts for the Reds at the end of the season.

Spent a majority of 2017 between Double-A Pensacola and Triple-A Louisville before getting the call to the Majors. Owned a 2.06 ERA with 138 strikeouts in 24 games started.

Tossed a perfect game for Pensacola on April 22 at Mobile.

Named the Reds Minor League Pitcher of the Year, a Southern League Mid-Season All-Star, a Baseball America Double-A All-Star and a Baseball America Minor League All Star. .

OFF THE FIELD

He and his wife, Ashley, were married in 2021. They have two sons: Huck Fermin, born in 2023 and shares Tyler's middle name, and Ellis Romayne, born in 2024. They make their offseason home in Huntington Beach, CA.

Tyler is the youngest of four siblings. He has two older brothers, Greg and Dennis, as well as a sister Amber, who is the oldest.

Tyler's older brother, Greg, is a year and a half older (Greg was born April 17, 1993 and Tyler on September 29, 1994). They played high school baseball at Westminster High with Greg sometimes coming in to close out games that Tyler started.

Greg, was selected by the Angels in the 15th round of the 2014 draft and made 24 appearances for the Angels in 2016. Greg was a left-handed reliever.

Greg played collegiately at UC Santa Barbara and Tyler was committed to going there before signing with the Reds out of high school. For more, see the box below.

The Mahle family grew up in Westminster, CA rooting for the Dodgers despite being 10 minutes from Angel Stadium. The allegiance dated back to ancestors who followed the Dodgers when they were in Brooklyn.

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

As mentioned above, Tyler Mahle was committed to following in his older brother Greg's footsteps and attend the University of California at Santa Barbara for college before signing with the Reds after being drafted in 2013. When Mahle signed professionally, that opened a spot on UCSB's roster, and a youngster named Shane Bieber walked on to UCSB's squad and secured a spot in the Gauchos' rotation the next spring. The rest is history as Bieber went on to be selected by Cleveland in the fourth round of the 2016 draft. For more on the story, you can read Zack Meisel's piece in The Athletic here.

2025 RECAP |

- Returned to North America after spending the 2024 season pitching in China...split the season between los Tecos de Los Dos Laredos (Mexican Baseball League) and the Toledo Mud Hens (Detroit's Triple-A affiliate).
- Began the season with the Tecos, going 2-0 with a 0.87 ERA (1er, 10.1ip) and seven strikeouts in two starts before signing an MiLB deal with Detroit.
- Went 5-3 with a 3.89 ERA (32er, 74.0ip), 70 strikeouts and a 1.35 WHIP in 17 games (14 starts) for Triple-A Toledo.
- Posted a 4-1 record with a 1.72 ERA (7er, 36.2ip) with 35 strikeouts and a 1.17 WHIP over an eight-game (six starts) span from May 21-July 4.

CAREER NOTES |

2024 SEASON

Went 7-6 with a 2.82 ERA (34er, 108.1ip) and 86 strikeouts in 18 starts for the TSG Hawks of the Chinese Professional Baseball League.

2023 SEASON

Released by the Mariners during Spring Training. Signed a minor league deal with Atlanta where he spent the entire season.

2021 SEASON

Appeared in five games (three starts) with Seattle before being placed on the 10-day Injured List on April 26 with left shoulder inflammation. Was diagnosed with thoracic outlet syndrome, had surgery to correct it and then missed the next 11 months recovering.

2020 SEASON

Claimed off waivers by Seattle in January. Went 2-3 with a 4.57 ERA (21er, 41.1ip) with 36 strikeouts in 10 games (seven starts).

2019 SEASON

Went 2-6 with a 6.79 ERA (43er, 57.0ip), 42 strikeouts and a 1.61 WHIP in his rookie season for the Padres. Also made 12 starts at Double-A Amarillo

Made his MLB debut vs. SF on March 30, receiving the loss despite one run allowed on three hits across 5.0 innings. He struck out current Giants PBO Buster Posey for his first career strikeout. Margevicius was the second pitcher of his draft class (2017) to reach the Majors.

Picked up his first career win against the Giants at Oracle Park on April 10.

2018 SEASON

Named a Midwest League Mid-Season All-Star while pitching for Fort Wayne (A).

AT RIDER UNIVERSITY (NJ)

Was team captain during his final season at Rider University (2017) while also being named the team's Pitcher of the Year.

Became just the seventh player selected out of Rider University to make the Majors and was the lowest draft pick (seventh round) since Ken Kremer was selected in the fourth round in 1988.

OFF THE FIELD |

Met his wife, Shannon, while attending Rider. The couple have a daughter named Scarlett Rae. The two met during their freshman year at Rider. Nick proposed on the last day of their senior year.

Graduated from Saint Ignatius High School in Ohio where he was their Pitcher of the Year his junior and senior seasons. As a sophomore, he threw a perfect game. When he wasn't pitching he was playing first base.

Nick's father, Mark, played one semester of Division I baseball at the University of Akron. When Nick was drafted by the Padres in 2011, his selection happened to take place on his father's birthday.

Pitched for the Wareham Gatemen of the Cape Cod League in 2016. His teammates there included current MLB players Gavin Sheets, Joey Bart, Casey Mize, Robert Garcia and Hogan Harris.

Wore jersey No. 25 when called up by the Padres because his favorite player growing up in Cleveland was Hall-of-Famer Jim Thome. When he was younger he modeled his swing after Thome's, growing up an Indians fan. He's wearing No. 52 with the Giants in Spring Training because it's the reverse of No. 25, and CC Sabathia was his favorite pitcher on Cleveland and he wore No. 52. He also used #52 during his time in Seattle.

DO NOT MARK AS SPAM |

Margevicius' journey to professional baseball began like most others do, playing baseball as a youth and then eventually in high school. His journey, however, has a fun anecdote that dates back to Christmas break of his junior year of high school after he told his father he wanted to compete against the best competition in college and not necessarily end up at a Division II school as he told Dennis Lin of The Athletic.

His father, Mark, studied computer science at the University of Akron before building a career in information technology. During the Christmas break, Mark combed the NCAA website and learned there were 301 schools that fielded a DI baseball team.

Over the next few weeks Mark visited all 301 sites and compiled a spreadsheet with the names and e-mail addresses of head coaches, pitching coaches and other staffers in charge of recruiting.

Emails were then sent to every program in the spreadsheet, pitching Nick as a rising junior and honor student. The e-mail included an 8.5 minute video of Nick's highlights, including his perfect game as a sophomore. He received some responses, mostly from smaller schools, but eventually corresponded with the head coach at Rider. After follow-up videos and e-mails during the next few months, Margevicius committed two months after his 17th birthday.

- Played for the Tiburones de La Guaira of the Venezuelan Winter League for a second consecutive season.

Appeared in 45 games for SF at the MLB level. Recorded 17 RBI in his first six games of the year with a plate appearance, the most by a Giant in his first six games of a season in team history.

Had 11 RBI in a two game span from May 17-18, tying the most by a player in a two-game span at age 22 or younger (since RBI official in 1920). Matos also became the youngest player in MLB history with five or more RBI in back-to-back games and the fourth player in Giants history to accomplish the feat.

Named NL Player of the Week on May 20 after going 10-for-26 (.385) with two homers, an MLB-leading 16 RBI, three doubles, three runs scored and a .731 SLG in six games.

In 80 Triple-A games, Matos batted .256 with 22 doubles, 14 home runs, 53 RBI and a .779 OPS.

2023 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on June 14 at St. Louis, singling off STL's Jordan Montgomery for his first MLB hit.

Was SF's seventh-ranked prospect when he was recalled from Triple-A and was the eighth-youngest player in the Majors.

Scored 10 runs through his first seven career games, the most ever by a Giant in that span to start his career. Willie McCovey (nine) held the previous franchise-high.

Became the first player since Brooklyn's Jim Gilliam in 1953 to score 10 or more runs in their first seven career games without hitting a home run.

Played 63 games between Double-A and Triple-A, batting .331 across the two levels with a .944 OPS.

2022 SEASON

Played for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League following the 2022 regular season and hit .241 with two homers and a .662 OPS.

Named the AFL's Defensive Player of the Year following the AFL season.

Missed time during the regular season, only appearing in 91 games while dealing with a nagging left quad.

2021 SEASON

Slashed .313/.358/.494 with an .852 OPS in 109 games for Single-A San Jose. Matos had 35 doubles and 15 homers, picking up where he left off in 2019 after no season in 2020.

Led all Single-A batters in RBI (86), doubles (35), hits (141), total bases (223) and extra-base hits (51) and ranked second in runs (84) and seventh in batting average (.313)

Tabbed as the Cal League MVP at the end of the season after playing the entire year as a 19-year-old. He was also named to the 2021 Cal League Post-Season All-Star team.

2020 SEASON

Did not play due to the pandemic but did join the Giants Alternate Site and played during the Fall Instructional League.

2019 SEASON

Started with the DSL Giants and earned a promotion stateside to the AZL Giants at the end of their season. His .362 average was third-best in the Dominican League and sixth-best in all of rookie-level ball, while his 25 combined doubles were most among players in the rookie level.

Matos led the DSL Giants in average (.362), hits (85), RBI (47), stolen bases (20), doubles (24), runs (60), OPS (1.000), slugging (.570) and OBP (.430).

VWL ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Following the 2024 MLB season, Matos suited up for the Tiburones de La Guaira in the Venezuelan Winter League for the first time. The outfielder had a breakout campaign, earning the league's Rookie of the Year honor at the age of 22 after slashing .300/.345/.536 (.881 OPS) with 20 doubles, 10 homers, 41 RBI and three steals in 55 games.

Matos ranked among the VWL's league leaders in doubles (20, 1st), extra-base hits (31, 2nd), total bases (118, 3rd), RBI (41, T-3rd), hits (66, 4th), homers (10, T-6th) and slugging % (.536, 8th).

2025 RECAP |

- Started the year at Triple-A Sacramento and appeared in 102 games with the River Cats before being recalled on August 1...slashed .260/.338/.430 in the 102 games with 17 doubles, five triples 14 homers and 63 RBI.
- Made 10 appearances with SF and went 2-for-20 with a triple and an RBI...was optioned on August 21 and played nine games with the River Cats before being recalled for a second and final time on September 1.
- Overall, went 2x22 (.091) with three runs, a triple, and two RBI in 22 games at the Major League level.
- Had an outfield assist in the 10th inning on September 12 vs. LAD that measured at 101.7 mph, which was the hardest thrown outfield assist by a Giant in the Statcast era (since 2015)...noted by Sarah Langs, it ranked as the ninth hardest-thrown outfield assist overall in the Majors during the Statcast era.
- Hit .250 (111x444) with 73 runs, 19 doubles, five triples, 15 home runs, 71 RBI and 55 walks in 110 games with the River Cats...his 27 stolen bases were tied for fifth-most in the Giants organization.

CAREER NOTES

2022 SEASON

Named a California League Post-Season All-Star after a breakout campaign at Single-A San Jose. Hit 21 homers, stole 35 bases and batted .291 with a .908 OPS for San Jose in 106 games.

Promoted to High-A Eugene for his final 14 games where he batted .269 with an .810 OPS.

Batted .286 with one homer for Eugene in the playoffs as they repeated as NWL Champions.

2023 SEASON

His 52 steals led the Northwest League, and the Giants organization.

Also led the NWL in runs (101) and hits (126). He ranked inside the NWL's top-10 in batting average (9th, .255), RBI (6th, 66), on-base percentage (5th, .360), slugging percentage (9th, .417), OPS (5th, .777), walks (3rd, 72), triples (T-3rd, six) and doubles (4th, 26).

From July 1 through the end of the season, McCray slashed .280/.388/.449 (.837 OPS) with 16 doubles, six homers, 24 RBI and 22 stolen bases (57 games).

2024 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on August 14 vs. Atlanta.

Homered twice on Sept. 7 at San Diego to become one of five players in Giants history to hit five or more homers through their first 19 career games. Also became the eighth Giants hitter in SF era to record a multi-HR game prior to their 20th career game with SF.

OFF THE FIELD

McCray graduated from Lakewood Ranch HS (FL) in 2019. Another prominent Major Leaguer to attend Lakewood Ranch was Lastings Milledge (2006-11).

McCray was committed to Florida State University before being taken by SF in the third round of the 2019 draft and later signing.

Grant's father, Rodney, was the victim of one of baseball's most famous bloopers, when he crashed through the outfield wall while chasing a fly ball at Portland's Civic Stadium on May 27, 1991. You can watch the video here.

ESPN ranked the play as the seventh-favorite sports blooper of all time in 2004. Rodney was honored in 2006 with a "bobblefence" at a Portland Beavers game.

Rodney ended up appearing in 67 career Major League games for the White Sox (1990-91) and Mets (1992). When he debuted with the White Sox in 1990 he appeared in 32 games exclusively as a pinch runner or defensive replacement. For his MLB career, Rodney only had 16 plate appearances despite playing in 67 games. The elder McCray appeared in 829 career minor league games, last playing in Indy ball in 1993.

After his playing career, Rodney was a roving outfield and base running instructor for the Montreal Expos, Kansas City Royals, Cincinnati Reds and Los Angeles Dodgers.

Has roomed with fellow Giants Trevor McDonald and Landen Roupp the past few seasons. Grant would do the majority of the cleaning around their apartment while the trio would take turns cooking for each other.

When Grant was younger he'd tag along with his father on his roving assignments, getting to meet Major Leaguers like Deion Sanders, Ken Griffey Jr. and others. He became closest with Dee Strange-Gordon and the two remain in touch.

Is one of four siblings. Grant has three sisters: L'Oreal, Sydney and Madison.

Grant's sister, Sydney McCray, is a senior outfielder for Grand Canyon University's softball team after transferring from Florida Southwestern State. At Florida Southwestern State, Sydney was a 2nd Team NJCAA All-American in 2023.

2025 RECAP |

- Started the season with Triple-A Sacramento and spent the majority of the year with the River Cats.
- Was 9-9 with a 5.31 ERA (84er, 142.1ip), 144 strikeouts and a 1.45 WHIP in 29 games (24 starts) with Sacramento...his 144 strikeouts were second-most in all Triple-A, while his 142.1 innings ranked third.
- Recalled on September 16 from Triple-A and pitched 2.0 innings of relief that night at Arizona.
- Made his first MLB start on September 21 at LAD... joined Justin Verlander as the only two Giants in 2025 to pitch at least 6.0 innings and allow one or no runs in a start against LAD in 2025.
- Made his second career start on September 26 vs. Colorado...earned his first career win and recorded the first double digit strikeout (10) game of his career while allowing three unearned runs in 7.0 innings.
- Became one of five Giants in the SF era to have a 10+ strikeout game in career game No. 4 or fewer, joining Kyle Harrison (2023), Tim Lincecum (2007), Shawn Estes (1996) and Juan Marichal (1960).
- Finished the year 1-0 with a 1.80 ERA (3er, 15.0ip), 14 strikeouts and a 1.00 WHIP in three MLB games.

2024 SEASON

Missed the start of the year with a groin injury and split the season between the ACL, High-A, Double-A and Triple-A. Had a 3-7 record and 4.40 ERA (42er, 86.0ip) in 23 appearances (20 starts) across all levels.

Made his Major League debut on the final day of the season (Sept. 29) against STL. Threw 3.0 hitless, scoreless innings of relief with a walk and a strikeout. McDonald became the first Giants pitcher in 100 years to throw at least 3.0 innings without allowing a hit or run in his debut.

2023 SEASON

Only appeared in 14 games after a pair of stints on the minor league injured list. He missed time at the beginning of the year with right shoulder inflammation and then dealt with a left hamstring strain that saw him miss nearly two months.

Made five rehab starts between the ACL Giants Orange and Black and worked 9.2 innings with a 2.79 ERA and 12 strikeouts.

Returned to Eugene on July 28 and did not allow an earned run in his first five starts (21.0ip), limiting opponents to a .159 clip.

Earned NWL Pitcher of the Week honors on August 20 after snagging his second win of the season with 5.0-scoreless innings.

Named August's NWL Pitcher of the Month as a result of his strong stretch with Eugene. He finished the month with a 0.35 ERA (1er, 26.0ip) through six starts, holding batters scoreless in four of six outings.

AT GEORGE COUNTY HS

Attended George County High School in Lucedale, MS. Was dominant during his senior year, finishing 8-2 with a 1.78 ERA in 12 games and striking out 105 batters in 51.0 innings.

Committed to play collegiately at South Alabama but decided to forgo college after the Giants drafted him in the 11th round.

Trevor and his girlfriend, Brylie St. Clair, got engaged this past offseason. St. Clair

Was on his senior trip, a cruise to Puerto Rico, when he was drafted by the Giants. Said he was on a beach when he got the call.

Told the Paradise Card Breaks show that he wants teammate Landen Roupp's autograph because Roupp has the best curveball McDonald has ever seen.

Had his jersey number (18) retired and received the key to his hometown city of Lucedale, MS in December, 2024.

Loves to go "Frogging" which is when you go on river banks at night and hunt for frogs with your bare hands. He says frog legs taste like a more gamey chicken.

- Recorded his 100th career strikeout on May 18 by striking out the Athletics' Tyler Soderstrom.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Entered the season ranked SF's No. 30 prospect according to MLB.com.

Made his Major League debut on Opening Day (March 28) at San Diego, working 1.0 hitless inning with a strikeout.

Had a stellar rookie campaign, striking out 87 batters across 67.1 innings. Miller's 30.6% strikeout rate was fourth-best among MLB rookies, while his 73 appearances were third-most (best in the NL).

2023 SEASON

Acquired from the Phillies on January 9 in exchange for RHP Yunior Marte.

Opened the year at Double-A Richmond, going 1-0 with a 0.87 ERA in six games, striking out 15 batters in just 10.1 innings and holding opponents to a .094 clip.

Promoted to Triple-A Sacramento on May 2. Converted 14-of-17 save opportunities with Sacramento and struck out 73 batters (12.63 K/9ip). His 14 saves were tied for fifth-most in all Triple-A.

2021 SEASON

Attended Major League Spring Training with the Phillies as a non-roster invite.

Began the season on the IL with a left shoulder strain through July 15. Appeared in five games and went back on the IL with the same left shoulder strain on August 12.

Returned in the fall to play in the Arizona Fall League for Peoria. Miller posted a 1.80 ERA (2er, 10.0ip) with 12 strikeouts in six relief outings for the Javelinas.

AT STANFORD

Attended Stanford University from 2017-2019 where he went a combined 17-9 with a 3.68 ERA in 46 games (42 starts) down on the farm during his career.

He was teammates with fellow Giant Tristan Beck at Stanford in 2017-18 and Beck's younger brother, Brendan, in 2018-19. Both Erik and Tristan had the same major (Science, Technology & Society).

Selected by the Phillies in the fourth-round of the 2019 First-Year Player Draft.

OFF THE FIELD

Miller and his fiancée, Katie, got engaged in December 2024. The two met while they were at Stanford. Katie was a member of two NCAA swimming championship teams and three PAC-12 championship squads.

In 2015 he was a member of the 18U USA Baseball National Team 28-Man Roster.

Was so committed to attending Stanford that during his senior year he e-mailed pro scouts to tell them he would not be signing with a pro team even if he was drafted.

FAMILY TIES

Miller graduated from De Smet Jesuit High School in Creve Coeur, Missouri - just outside of St. Louis - with a 4.6 GPA.

At De Smet, the lefty was coached by Greg Vitello, the father of Giants manager Tony Vitello. Miller was a sophomore during Greg's final season at the school. "In St. Louis, that name has a lot of weight to it" Miller told the San Francisco Chronicle. "You learn to play the game the right way - good, proper baseball, just a great, influential foundation for molding young players."

Greg, who also coached Tony at the school, was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2023. He served as a head coach at De Smet for 46 years, coaching soccer, track & field and taking home a baseball state championship in 2000.

- Was designated for assignment on July 3 and outrighted on July 7...hit .143 (1x7) with two runs, and an RBI in six games.
- Played 73 games for Triple-A Sacramento, batting .212 (49x231) with 39 runs, six doubles, six home runs, 29 RBI and a .662 OPS.

CAREER NOTES |

2024 SEASON

Was a non-roster invitee to Kansas City's Major League Spring Training, marking his third Spring Training with the Royals.

2023 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on September 12 at the White Sox, going 2-for-4 with a pair of RBI. Homered in his very next game on Sept. 16.

2022 SEASON

Owned a .442 OBP in 473 plate appearances between Double and Triple-A to lead all Royals full-season qualifiers. His .301 average and .918 OPS were second-best.

2019 SEASON

Led the rookie-level Appy League in batting average (.352), on-base percentage (.481), slugging percentage (.648) and OPS (1.129). Named a Post-Season All-Star.

2018 SEASON

Went undrafted after his senior year at Dixie State and signed with the Royals as a non-drafted free agent on June 18.

COLLEGE

Began his collegiate career at Northwestern Oklahoma State in Alva, OK. Was named the NOSU Freshman and Sophomore Athlete of the Year in his two seasons (2015-16).

Transferred to Dixie State (now Utah Tech) in 2017 and was named a finalist for the Josh Willingham National MVP Award as a junior. Porter hit .376 with a Pac-West leading 18 doubles and set a Dixie State single-season record with 72 RBI.

SURPRISE!!!!

Porter grew up in Surprise, AZ and attended Valley Vista High School, which sits directly across from the Royals and Rangers Spring Training complex. His parents, Pete and Heidi, live a mile and a half from the facility. As a sophomore, Porter needed community service hours for his fire science class so he ended up logging hours as a clubhouse attendant for the Royals AZL team. You can read the rest of Porter's story in this detailed article in The Athletic here.

ALL-STAR

2025 RECAP |

- Appeared in a career-high 157 games and hit .256 (159x620) with 24 doubles, one triple, 21 homers, 69 RBI and 52 walks in what was his second full season with the Giants and fourth overall at the MLB level.
- His 21 homers (all as a left fielder) were the most for SF since Barry Bonds (27 homers as a LF) in 2007.
- Ramos logged 41 multi-hit games...the last Giant to record 41 multi-hit games in a season was Buster Posey (47) in 2017, and the last SF outfielder to do so was Denard Span (46) in 2016 (Stats, LLC).
- Made his first career Opening Day roster...started in left field on Opening Day on March 27 at Cincinnati, becoming the 19th different Giants player to start in left field on Opening Day, matching the longest such streak in MLB history (St. Louis Browns/Baltimore Orioles, 19 seasons, 1937-55).
- At 25 years, 201 days old, Ramos became the youngest Giants outfielder to homer on Opening Day since Chili Davis (23y, 78d) did so on April 5, 1983 vs SD.
- Joined Felipe Alou (six games in 1963) as the only Giants to open a season with an extra-base hit in six straight games.
- Hit a walk-off "Little League" home run vs. Texas on April 27...singled and advanced to 3rd on a throwing error and took home on another throwing error.
- Hit his first career leadoff homer on May 1 vs. COL.
- Hit his fifth career leadoff home run came on September 22 vs. STL...became one of two players in Giants franchise history to have five or more leadoff home runs as a right-handed batter, joining Bobby Bonds who did so three times (11, 1973; 5; 1969; 5, 1970).
- Hit 12 home runs when batting first were the most by a Giant right-handed batter since Bill Madlock had 15 in 1978.
- Committed nine errors in left field, most of any left-fielder in MLB...was worth -9 OAA in LF, tied for second-worst in MLB among LFs.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Slashed .296/.388/.565 with eight homers and 21 RBI in 30 games at Triple-A to begin the year before being recalled on May 8.

Earned his first All-Star selection. Became the first Giant 24 years or younger to hit 20+ homers since Pablo Sandoval hit 23 as a 24-year-old in 2011.

Was the first Giants homegrown outfielder (developed and drafted) to make an All-Star team since Chili Davis in 1986.

Slashed .298/.365/.523 (.888 OPS) with 11 doubles, 14 homers and 46 RBI in 60 games before the break.

Had a slash line of .242/.278/.417 (.695 OPS) with 12 doubles, eight homers and 26 RBI in 61 games after the break.

Led the team with 16 go-ahead RBI. Finished second on the team with 22 homers, 72 RBI and 128 hits.

Became the first Giant to have 30 RBI in the first 34 games of their season since Marlon Byrd (August 21-September 28, 2015).

Had a career day on June 5 at Arizona, hitting a two-run homer, a single and drawing four walks. It was the 13th time in SF era (since 1958) that a Giant reached base six times (without an error or fielder's choice) in a nine-inning game.

Was worth +4 DRS in left field, + 2 in right field and -15 in center field.

2023 SEASON

Hit his first MLB home run on August 12 off Texas' Brock Burke.

Won PCL Player of the Week on July 9 after batting .483 (14x29) with eight runs, four doubles, a triple, four home runs and 10 RBI in seven games.

Played for Santurce in the Puerto Rican Winter League following the season. Santurce advanced to the Caribbean Series in February 2024 at Miami's loanDepot Park.

2022 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on April 10 vs. Miami, starting in left field. Played in nine games for SF and spent the rest of the year at AAA.

2021 SEASON

Named to the Futures Game for a third time in as many full MiLB seasons.

2020 SEASON

Was a part of the Giants Alternate Site in Sacramento.

2019 SEASON

Earned his second Futures Game selection after slashing .306/.385/.500 in 77 games with Single-A San Jose. Was promoted to Double-A Richmond in August.

2018 SEASON

Named to his first Futures Game.

SPLASH BRO

- On September 15, 2024, Heliot Ramos became the first right-handed hitter in Oracle Park history to hit a Splash Hit after lining a 9th-inning, game-tying homer off RHP Robert Suarez.
- The feat coincided with Major League Baseball's yearly Roberto Clemente Day and the Giants' celebration of life for Orlando Cepeda. Ramos, a fellow Puerto Rican, wore Clemente's No. 21 as he hit his 21st homer of the year for SF.
- The Splash Hit was the 105th by a Giants player and 168th overall since the ballpark opened in 2000.
- "I always knew that I had that oppo juice, but it looks impossible just by looking at the wall and the weather here," Ramos told reporters after the game. "I was like, 'I don't know, but I might be able to do it.' I was always positive that I was going to do it. "This is a big organization. It has a lot of great legends and all that. For me to be the first one to do it, it's insane to me."

OFF THE FIELD

Heliot and his partner, Carolina López, welcomed a baby girl, Heliana Carolina Ramos, in February 2024.

In 2017 he was the highest drafted player out of Puerto Rico since Carlos Correa was the first overall pick in the 2012 draft.

Was the MVP of the 2016 Under Armour All-America Baseball Game, a showcase of high school juniors and seniors that was held at Wrigley Field on July 23, 2016.

Has two older brothers, Héctor and Henry. Héctor is a pro soccer player and the all-time top scorer of the Puerto Rican national team.

Henry is a baseball player who after 10 years in the minors made his Major League debut with Arizona in 2021. In 2019, Henry was an invite to Giants Spring Training and the two brothers played together in the same outfield for the first time. Henry spent the 2025 season in Mexico with Leones de Yucatán and played for the Cangrejeros de Santurce this past winter.

JUST LIKE SAY HEY

- On June 20, 2024, the Giants played the Cardinals in a one-game showcase vs. St. Louis in Birmingham, Alabama at historic Rickwood Field, the oldest professional baseball stadium in the U.S.
- Hall of Famer Willie Mays, who played 21 of his 23 professional seasons with the Giants, first played professionally in 1948 as a 17-year-old with the Birmingham Black Barons of the Negro Leagues before joining the Giants for his illustrious career. The Black Barons played their home games at Rickwood Field.
- The game at historic Rickwood Field became even more meaningful when Mays passed away two days prior to the event on June 18.
- In a perfect tribute to Mays, Heliot Ramos, the Giants center fielder that day, homered to right-center field.
- "It's not a secret to everybody that Willie was one of the greats," Ramos said postgame. "It's an honor. I hope his family liked that."

MINOR LEAGUE ACCOLADES |

- 2025 EAS POST-SEASON ALL-STAR (ALTOONA)

2025 RECAP |

- Split the season between Double-A Altoona and Triple-A Indianapolis in his second stint in the Pirates organization.
- Started the year with Altoona and went 3-2 with a 1.45 ERA (8er, 49.2ip) with 53 strikeouts and a 0.95 WHIP in 35 games with the Curve...Ramos was a perfect 7-for-7 in save opportunities and held opponents to a .161 batting average.
- Promoted to Triple-A on August 12...at the time of his promotion, his 1.45 ERA was fifth-best in all MiLB and third-lowest in Double-A.
- He also ranked among the top of Eastern League relief pitchers in appearances (3rd), strikeouts (10th), innings pitched (T-3rd), and saves (T-8th) at the time he was promoted.
- Over his final 20 outings at Double-A (June 1-August 9), Ramos was 2-1 with a 1.03 ERA (3 ER / 26.1 IP) with eight walks and 33 strikeouts.
- Made 12 appearances (one start) with the Indianapolis Indians, going 1-2 with a 6.60 ERA (11er, 15.0ip) and 15 strikeouts...eight of his 11 earned runs came on his first five Triple-A outings.
- Did not allow a home run between May 7-August 15 (38.1ip).
- Was one of just two relief pitchers to be named to the Eastern League Post-Season All-Star team.
- Following the season, he played nine games with the Gigantes del Cibao of the Dominican Winter League before being traded to the Leones del Escogido.

CAREER NOTES |

2024 SEASON

Led all pitchers in the Mets system with 11 saves and ranked among leaders in appearances (41, 3rd) and wins (6, T-4th).

Went 2-1 with a 1.65 ERA in 23 games with Double-A Binghamton. His nine saves with the Rumble Ponies were fourth-most in the Eastern League.

Appeared in 10 games with the Gigantes del Cibao of the Dominican Winter League (8.0ip), posting a 2.25 ERA with six strikeouts.

2023 SEASON

Promoted to Double-A for the first time in his career and went 2-0 with a 1.47 ERA (3er, 18.1ip) with 24 strikeouts in 12 games with the Binghamton Rumble Ponies.

Did not give up a home run all season (57.2 ip), becoming one of just four MiLB pitchers to throw as many innings without surrendering a homer.

Played for the Criollos de Caguas of the Puerto Rican Professional Baseball League following the season. Was teammates with current Giants IF Christian Koss.

2022 SEASON

Spent the season with Single-A Bradenton and went 4-1 with a 3.88 ERA with the Marauders. His 37 appearances were second-most in the Florida State League.

Selected by the Mets in the minor league phase of the Rule 5 Draft in December.

2021 SEASON

Spent the whole season with the FCL Pirates and went 2-1 with a 3.69 ERA across 12 appearances (five starts).

CAREER NOTES

Acquired by Pittsburgh as the PTBNL on December 1, 2018 in the trade that sent RHP Tanner Anderson to the A's.

Originally signed by the A's to a minor league contract in the 2017 international draft. Ramos, who was 16 at the time of his signing, received a $300,000 bonus.

In 188 minor league outings (19 starts) across seven seasons (2018-25), Ramos has gone 24-16 with a 3.22 ERA, 25 saves and 322 strikeouts in 316 innings.

10 Has only yielded 10 home runs in his professional career. The 10 homers allowed since 2018 are fewest of any MiLB player in that span (min. 300ip).

Learned the game of baseball from his father, also Wilkin. His father played all positions but did not play professionally.

THE SIBS

Has one brother, Darwin, and one sister, Diana.

Darwin is the younger brother and currently plays in the Seattle organization. He appeared in nine games last year for the DSL Mariners.

2025 RECAP |

- Went 11-8 with a 3.65 ERA (74er, 182.1ip), 186 strikeouts and a 1.21 WHIP in 32 starts in his return from injury-plagued 2023 and 2024 seasons.
- Made his second career All-Star team...was 9-3 with a 2.65 ERA (35er, 119.0ip), 128 strikeouts and a 1.08 WHIP in 20 starts prior to the All-Star Break.
- Added a changeup in Spring Training after receiving the grip from Cy Young winner Tarik Skubal...hitters were .233 (17x73) with 16 strikeouts vs. the pitch.
- Named National League Pitcher of the Month in May after going 4-1 with a 1.38 ERA (6er, 39.0ip), 45 strikeouts and a 0.87 WHIP in six starts.
- Held opponents to a .207 (68x329) average in 16 starts on the road as opposed to a .234 (80x342) average in 16 home starts...Ray's .207 opposing average on the road was sixth-best in the NL.
- Left-handers slashed .188/.282/.318 off him on the season...the .188 average was third-best in the National League, trailing LAD's Yoshinobu Yamamoto (.174) and SD's Nick Pivetta (.185).
- Issued 73 walks, most in the NL and tied for fourth-most in MLB...it marked his second-most walks allowed in a season, behind only 2019, when he walked a career-high 84 batters across 33 starts.

- The Giants won each of Ray's first nine starts, making him the first Giants starter to have the team win each of his first nine starts of a season since Bill Swift in 1992 (11 wins to start the season).
- Was undefeated (7-0) before taking a loss in his 12th start of the year on May 31st at Miami...became the first Giants starter since Hall of Famer Juan Marichal (1966, 10-0) to tally at least seven wins and remain undefeated through his first 11 starts of a season.
- Tossed his second career complete game on July 3 at Arizona and retired the first 12 batters he faced to start the night.
- Went a career-best 51.0 innings (seven starts) without giving up a home run between April 21-June 5...his 1.09 HR/9.0ip (22HR/182.1ip) rate was his lowest since posting a career-best 0.63 HR/9ip (9HR, 127.2ip) in 2015.
- Was 1-2 with a 8.13 ERA (25er, 27.2ip), .303 (33x109) BAA and 1.77 WHIP (16 walks) in his final six starts of the year (August 24-September 19).

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Acquired from Seattle on January 5 in exchange for OF Mitch Haniger, RHP Anthony DeSclafani and cash considerations.

Missed SF's first 101 games after recovering from 2023 surgery to repair his left flexor tendon as well as Tommy John surgery.

Made his Giants debut on July 24 at the Dodgers and threw 5.0 no-hit innings.

His 5.0 no-hit innings in his debut vs. LA was the longest no-hit bid by a Giants starter in his team debut in the expansion era (since 1961). It was also the longest in a Giants debut since Juan Marichal (7.2 innings) on July 19, 1960 vs. PHI.

Suffered a left hamstring strain in his August 25 outing at Seattle and missed the remainder of the season.

2023 SEASON

Threw just 3.1 innings (91 pitches) in his first start on March 31 before leaving the outing with elbow pain. Underwent surgery to repair his left flexor tendon as well as his ulnar collateral ligament (Tommy John) on May 3. The procedure was performed by Dr. Keith Meister.

2022 SEASON

Signed a five-year Major League contract with Seattle worth $115 million on November 30, 2021 that included a no-trade clause for the first two years.

Crossed the 200+ strikeout threshold for the fifth time in his career after fanning 212 batters in his first season with the Mariners. Went 12-12 with a 3.71 ERA in 32 starts.

WITH TORONTO (2020-21)

Acquired by Toronto on August 31, 2020 with cash in exchange for LHP Travis Bergen. Signed a one year deal with the Blue Jays prior to the 2021 season.

Was named the AL Cy Young Award winner after receiving 29 of 30 first-place votes in his first full season with Toronto in 2021. Ray went 13-7 with a 2.84 ERA and a Major-League best 248 strikeouts.

Reached the 1,000 inning milestone on August 30, 2021. Ray's 1,241 strikeouts were the most all-time over a player's first 1,000 career innings in MLB history.

WITH ARIZONA (2015-2020)

Was traded to Arizona in December 2014 as part of a three-team deal that sent IF Didi Gregorious to the Yankees and RHP Shane Greene to the Tigers.

Struck out 218 batters over 174.1 innings in his second season with Arizona in 2016. Ray became just the second pitcher in history to record at least 218 strikeouts in less than 175.0 innings in a single season, joining Kerry Wood in 1998 (233 K in 166.2 IP).

In 2018, Ray became the only pitcher in MLB history to record 165 strikeouts in fewer than 125 innings (123.2ip) in a season.

2014 SEASON

Recorded the win in his Major League debut on May 6 vs. Houston with Detroit.

2013 SEASON

Traded from Washington to Detroit on December 2 as part of the return package for RHP Doug Fister going to the Nationals.

AT BRENTWOOD HS

Selected by Washington in the 12th round of the 2010 draft out of Brentwood High School in Tennessee. Ray had committed to be a two-way player at the University of Arkansas before signing with the Nationals.

Robbie and his wife, Taylor, were married in November 2014. The couple has four children: two sons Asher and Brady, and two daughters Leighton and Sophia.

Attended Brentwood (TN) High School. Posted 7-1 record and a 0.50 ERA his senior year of high school, compiling 95 strikeouts while pitching three no-hitters.

Played on the same Nashville-area travel ball team as 2018 American League MVP Mookie Betts, who attended John Overton High School.

2025 RECAP |

- Enjoyed a breakout campaign that saw him named to his first All-Star team, the first Giants' non-closer reliever to be named an All-Star in team history.
- Was 3-1 with a 0.86 ERA (4er, 41.2ip), 55 strikeouts and a 0.79 WHIP in 41 games prior to the break.
- Finished with a 1.78 ERA, which was sixth-best in the Majors (min. 50ip)...his 33.8% strikeout rate was third-best in the NL (min. 50ip).
- Batters were 13-for-80 (.163) off his four-seamer in 2025 compared to 23-for-107 (.253) off it in 2024.
- Worked 11.2-scoreless innings with 16 strikeouts in his first 11 appearances of the season before giving up his first runs on April 29 at SD.
- Did not allow a walk or a run in any of his first 11 appearances of the season...he is the only Giant since 1901 to start a season with zero walks and zero runs allowed over his first 11 pitching appearances.
- Did not allow a run while striking out 20 in May (13.0ip)...became the first Giant to finish a single calendar month with at least 20 strikeouts and zero runs allowed since 1901 (Stats, LLC).
- Earned his first career save on June 4 vs. San Diego.
- Suffered his first loss of the season on June 12 at Colorado, allowing three runs (one earned) on two hits in 0.2 innings.
- Had a minuscule 0.69 ERA (3er, 39.0ip) in his first 39 outings of the season (through July 6), striking out 54 of the 145 batters he faced (12.46 K/9ip) with just eight walks and a .163 opposing average.
- Named the team's closer on August 1 after the trade deadline...earned the save that night at the Mets.
- Went 0-3-3 as the closer with a 6.35 ERA in six games in August.
- Landed on the 15-day Injured List on August 26 with a right elbow sprain...had a 7.71 ERA (6er, 7.0ip) in his final seven games before going on the IL.
- Met with doctors and was recommended to undergo Tommy John surgery...underwent successful UCL reconstructive surgery on Sept. 24 with Dr. Keith Meister in Dallas, Texas and is expected to miss the entire 2026 season.

2024 SEASON

Recalled from Triple-A and made his MLB debut on May 4 at Philadelphia, with his first MLB strikeout being Bryce Harper.

Earned his first career win on May 27 vs. Philadelphia after throwing 2.0 hitless, scoreless innings of relief.

Worked 1.0 scoreless inning on July 2 at Atlanta with his mother and father in attendance. It was the first time his parents had seen him pitch stateside and the first time they had left the DR.

Placed on the 15-day Injured List on August 15 with right elbow inflammation and missed 37 games. He was activated on September 27 and pitched in two games to end the season.

Finished his rookie year with a 3-2 record, a 4.30 ERA, and 53 strikeouts in 52.1 innings of work (9.1 K/9.0).

Recorded at least four outs in 17 of his 35 MLB outings. He had only pitched more than 1.0ip in two of his 10 Triple-A appearances on the season.

2023 SEASON

Opened the year at Double-A Richmond and had a terrific start to the year, going 2-1 with a 2.97 ERA in 16 games while striking out 40 hitters in 30.1 innings.

Sustained a right forearm strain on the field during his June 4 outing and landed on the IL. Reinstated on June 22 and assigned to Triple-A Sacramento, where he appeared in 27 games out of the bullpen and went 0-1 with a 5.73 ERA.

2021 SEASON

Dominated Low-A San Jose in 2021, posting a 1.74 ERA in 32 games with 101 strikeouts in 62.0 innings (14.66 K/9ip). Did not allow a home run in 62.0 innings.

Was named a CAL Pitcher of the Week on both August 22 and September 12 while also being named CAL Pitcher of the Month for August and a CAL Post-Season All-Star

Added to the Giants 40-man roster on November 19, 2021.

DID YOU KNOW?

Was named after Hall of Fame pitcher, and former Giant, Randy Johnson. Rodríguez's grandfather was a big baseball fan and they named him after the former pitcher.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

His father, Martin Lorenzo, is a bus driver. His mom, Yesenia was an accountant. He has a younger sister named Lorena.

Plays video games on his Nintendo Switch.

Loves to read. Particularly enjoys reading mystery and suspense novels. He read a Spanish translation of "The Count of Monte Cristo" by Alexandre Dumas in 2025.

Last April he asked teammate Ryan Walker to help him learn how to throw a sweeper, Walker's go-to pitch. After a brief demonstration in the bullpen, Rodríguez experimented with it for a week an then started using it in a game. The pitch had a .206 opposing batting average and 37 strikeouts in 2025.

2025 RECAP |

- Earned a rotation spot out of Spring Training and remained the team's fourth starter for the majority of the year...went 7-7 with a 3.80 ERA (45er, 106.2ip), 102 strikeouts and a 1.48 WHIP in 22 starts.
- Had a 2.63 ERA (14er, 48.0ip) in nine home starts compared to a 4.76 ERA (31er, 58.2ip) in 13 road starts...his 2.63 home ERA ranked as the 14th-lowest among NL pitchers (min. 40.0 innings pitched).
- Averaged 11.9 seconds between pitches with the bases empty, which was tied for the second-quickest in MLB...the Reds' Brent Suter was quickest with only 11.5 seconds between pitches with the bases empty... league average in 2025 was 15.8 seconds.
- Averaged 16.0 seconds between pitches with runners on, below the league average of 18.7 seconds.
- Registered a career-best nine strikeouts in his fourth start of the season on April 19 at the Angels... had seven-or-more punchouts in six of his 22 starts.
- Had his shortest start of his career as a starting pitcher on June 14 at the Dodgers, recording just five outs (1.2ip) while allowing six runs on four hits and five walks in the Giants' 11-5 loss to the Dodgers.
- Missed a total of 54 games with two separate stints on the Injured List.
- Placed on the 15-day Injured List on July 25 (retroactive to July 23) with right elbow inflammation... felt some discomfort after his start against the Dodgers on July 12.
- An MRI showed no structural damage...pitched in one rehab game with Triple-A Sacramento before being reinstated from the IL on August 15.
- After coming off the IL on August 15, he made one more start before sustaining a second injury...had to be carted off the field in the 3rd inning of his start on August 20 at San Diego...he twisted his left knee on the mound while trying to avoid a line drive.
- Was diagnosed with a left knee sprain and flew back to San Francisco to receive an MRI...was placed on the 15-day Injured List on August 22 (left knee inflammation) and missed the rest of the season.

2024 SEASON

Entered the year as the Giants No. 12 prospect according to MLB Pipeline and No. 14 according to Baseball America.

Came to camp as a non-roster invitee not expected to pitch in Cactus League games following a back injury in 2023. Coaching staff raved about his curveball and sinker and forced his way into game action.

Made the Giants Opening Day roster and made his MLB debut on March 29 at San Diego, tossing 1.0-scoreless inning.

Experienced right elbow inflammation on May 16 at Triple-A and was shut down from throwing until the beginning of June.

Pitched 12 games (four starts) for SF to finish the year, going 1-2 with a 2.38 ERA, 32 strikeouts and a 1.24 WHIP in 34.0 innings.

Earned his first MLB win on Sept. 21 at Kansas City. Went 5.0-scoreless innings with three walks and three strikeouts.

Did not allow a homer to 187 consecutive batters faced from April 8-September 27, the longest streak by any SF pitcher in 2024.

Appeared in eight games, six starts, for Triple-A Sacramento, going 0-1 with a 3.80 ERA (9er, 21.1ip), 30 strikeouts, a 1.31 WHIP and a .187 opposing batting average.

2023 SEASON

Posted a 1.74 ERA in 10 starts with Double-A Richmond before landing in the IL on July 2 with back inflammation, an injury that led him to miss the remainder of the season.

Roupp's 1.74 ERA prior to hitting the IL ranked as the fourth-lowest in all Double-A (min. 30.0ip).

2022 SEASON

Started the year at Single-A San Jose and served mostly as a reliever, making 12 appearances out of the 'pen before starting his final two games there. Went 5-2 with a 2.59 ERA in the 14 outings.

Promoted to High-A Eugene where he went 3-0 with a 1.67 ERA in seven starts, striking out 52 batters in just 32.1 innings (14.5 K/9ip).

Overall, went 10-3 with a 2.60 ERA in 26 games (14 starts) between three levels.

AT UNC WILMINGTON

Was named CAA Pitcher of the Year as a redshirt junior at UNC Wilmington after going 8-5 with a 2.58 ERA in 16 appearances (15 starts). Roupp led his conference with 118 strikeouts and 101.0 innings pitched while ranking third in ERA.

FOR MOM |

In 2024, Roupp was an under-the-radar invite to MLB Spring Training, initially there as a small exposure to big league coaches. His attitude, paired with his curveball and sinker, forced his way onto the 2024 Opening Day roster.

The roster spot was a culmination of hard work and dedication that many were unaware of.

In 2025, Roupp shared with Susan Slusser of The San Francisco Chronicle that while he was battling for a roster spot in 2024, his mother, Amy, was in the hospital back home in North Carolina, undergoing cancer treatment.

Despite wanting to fly east to comfort his mom, Amy pushed Roupp to remain in Scottsdale.

"I told myself, 'I'm doing it for her, I'm going to go out and work hard for her and make the team,'" Roupp told the Chronicle. "We had those conversations – obviously, I wanted to be there when she had surgery, but she would tell me, 'You're right where you need to be.' She never ever would have wanted me to come home, she wanted me to stay out here and play ball."

Amy has since had a successful treatment, went into remission and returned to tutoring students after retiring from teaching.

You can read the full story from Slusser here.

Attended Faith Christian School in Rocky Mount, NC. He and his classmates took their senior trip to San Francisco, which included a visit to Oracle Park. On the visit, his dad, Mike, told him he'd pitch here one day.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Landen's dad, Mike, is Chief of Operations for the Rocky Mount Fire Department. His mom, Amy, is a retired school teacher who has shifted her focus to helping empower disabled children who don't have the ability to attend college. His older brother, Peyton, is a firefighter.

The Roupp family lives in farm country outside Rocky Mount. Most of Landen's friends are farmers who have fields of cotton, corn, tomatoes and other seasonal crops. Landen hunts and fishes when he's not playing ball. Landen's grandfather fixes tractors at his hydraulics shop.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Had four stints at the Major League level and appeared in 40 games with SF. Slashed .252/.283/.477 with six homers and 16 RBI.

Began the season in Triple-A and played 74 total games. Slashed .274/.343/.469 with 13 homers and 58 RBI and 11 stolen bases.

Recorded his first career walk-off hit and RBI on May 12 vs. Cincinnati, hitting a game-ending double in the 10th inning.

Owned a .991 OPS in 49 plate appearances vs. left-handed pitching with SF.

Hit 19 homers between San Francisco (six) and Sacramento (13).

2023 SEASON

A non-roster invite to the his first big league camp, Schmitt was named the 2023 Barney Nugent Award winner in Spring Training.

Made his MLB debut on May 9 vs. Washington. Schmitt became the 19th player in Giants history to homer in his debut for his first MLB hit. At 24 years, 69 days old, he was also the youngest Giant to homer in their MLB debut since Will Clark (22 years, 26 days).

His 92.5 mph average on throws was second-hardest in MLB behind Cincinnati's Elly De La Cruz (95.9mph) among second basemen, shortstops and third basemen.

2022 SEASON

Named the Rawlings Minor League Gold Glove winner at third base after committing only 10 errors across all three levels (High-A, Double-A and Triple-A).

2021 SEASON

Spent his entire first season with Single-A San Jose but only played in 64 games. Missed a majority of the time after suffering a left wrist fracture after being hit by a pitch. He was also hit in the face earlier in the season and missed some time.

AT SAN DIEGO STATE

Went to San Diego State University, where he hit .323 with four doubles and nine RBI in the shortened 2020 season as a junior. Was also a closer for the Aztecs, recording six saves in eight mound appearances that year.

Received second-team all-Mountain West recognition in 2019 as a sophomore after finishing the season with a .315 batting average, five home runs, 36 RBI and a .415 OBP.

As a freshman, Schmitt became the first SDSU player since Stephen Strasburg in 2007 to be named a freshman first-team All-American by Baseball America after setting SDSU's single season earned run average record with a 0.28 mark (min. 30ip).

WELCOME TO THE SHOW

Back in 2023, Schmitt had one of the greatest starts to a big league career in Giants franchise history. Below is a list of some of the records he set in his first two weeks in The Show.

- Homered in his MLB debut on May 9, 2023. At 24 years and 69 days old at the time of his debut, he was the youngest Giant to homer in his first MLB game since Will Clark (22 years and 26 days old).
- Became the 19th player in franchise history to homer in his first MLB game, the last being Aramis Garcia on August 21, 2018 vs. the Mets.
- Tied Hall of Famer Willie McCovey for most hits (8) in their first three career games.
- Was the second player in MLB history to have at least eight hits, four RBI and four runs scored over their first three career games, joining Hall of Famer Joe DiMaggio (Opta Stats).
- Became the first shortstop in the modern era to have three straight multi-hit games with at least one extra-base hit in each game (Opta Stats).

- Was the second Giant since 1901 to have two or more hits and at least one run scored in their first three career games, joining John Bowker (2008).
- Became the fifth Giant since 1901 to have two or more homers in his first three career games, joining Aramis Garcia (2018), Brett Pill (2011), John Bowker (2008) and Armando Ríos (1998) (Sarah Langs).

Attended Eastlake High School in Chula Vista and was rated as the 45th-best player overall in California as a senior in 2017. Schmitt led Eastlake High to the CIF championship game in both 2016 and 2017.

His father, Dan, is a retired commander at the San Diego D.A.'s office and currently works in law enforcement. His mother, Tina, works in bankruptcy court.

Schmitt has an older brother, Nick, who is six years older than him. Nick is a firefighter with Cal Fire.

DID YOU KNOW?

Schmitt says he modeled part of his game after former Giants IF Evan Longoria.

Before attending and playing baseball collegiately at San Diego State, Schmitt used to go to their games when he was younger. He went to the games with his mom, who is also a SDSU alum. SDSU offered him a scholarship when he was in 10th grade.

Spent summer 2020 during the Covid shutdown working out at home. He and his dad built a batting cage on the side of the house and his dad helped him work on groundballs.

In 2022, Casey's best friend and high school teammate, Micah Pietila-Wiggs, was killed in a car accident at age 21. Casey was in Arizona for spring training. He went home to San Diego for three days to spend time with Micah's parents. A year later, Micah's parents attended Casey's MLB debut. Schmitt spoke at Micah's memorial service. He has a tattoo on his wrist of the letters LLM – Live Like Micah.

- Allowed nine homers over 36.0 MLB innings (2.25HR/9ip).
- Opponents were 5-for-31 (.161) against his four-seamer with two homers and eight strikeouts.
- Recalled from Triple-A Sacramento on June 27 and made his big league debut on June 29 at Chicago-AL, pitching 1.0-scoreless inning of relief.
- Optioned to Triple-A on July 2 and recalled on July 22...appeared in just one game with Sacramento in that span.
- Made his first big league start on August 30 vs. Baltimore...in three starts with SF, he had an 8.68 ERA (9er, 9.1ip) and .325 BAA.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Invited to his first MLB Spring Training. Appeared in four games for SF (all relief outings), giving up four runs in 5.0 innings with six strikeouts.

Spent the entire season with Triple-A Sacramento. Went 7-10 with a 4.82 ERA (72er, 134.1ip) in 29 games (28 starts) with the River Cats.

His 132 strikeouts were third-most in the PCL and tied for ninth most in Triple-A.

His 134.1 innings were a career-high, besting his previous high from 2023 when he threw 112.2 innings at Double-A Richmond.

Went 2-1 with a 1.31 ERA (3er, 20.2ip) and a .173 opposing batting average in June.

Had a 3.92 ERA at home (28er, 64.1ip) in 13 starts compared to a 5.66 ERA (44er, 70.0ip) in 15 road starts.

Was added to SF's 40-man roster on November 11 ahead of the Rule 5 Draft.

2023 SEASON

Went 5-3 with a 3.99 ERA, 114 strikeouts and a 1.23 WHIP in 28 games with Richmond.

Ranked among the top pitchers in the Eastern League in ERA (3.99, 8th), WHIP (1.23, 4th) and opposing average (.231, 4th).

2022 SEASON

In seven games (four starts) with Single-A St. Lucie, went 4-0 with a 1.19 ERA (4er, 30.1ip), 27 strikeouts and a .209 BAA.

Joined the Giants on August 2, 2022 as part of the return in the trade that sent Darin Ruf to the Mets.

AT DARTMOUTH/KANSAS STATE

Spent his freshman year at Dartmouth before transferring to Kansas State as a sophomore. Was a two-time Academic All-Big 12 First Team selection at K-State.

Played for the Rockford (IL) Rivets of the Northwoods League in 2020.

Selected by the Mets in the sixth round of the 2021 Draft out of Kansas State.

OFF THE FIELD

He and his wife, Sydney, were married during the 2024-25 offseason.

The two have a white Labrador retriever named Goose.

Attended Great Oak High School in Temecula, CA. Was named team captain his senior year and earned a Riverside County All-Star Team selection. Posted a 1.81 ERA over 50 innings pitched as a senior.

His father Brian has participated in four Ironman competitions and works as a firefighter. Carson credits his father as the biggest influence in his life.

BALLPARK BUCKET LIST

When Carson was a child he and his father, Brian, would attend a new baseball stadium every year growing up. Their first ballpark was Coors Field and, all together, he and his father visited roughly 20 stadiums including Oracle Park. When the duo attended a game at then-US Cellular Field on July 23, 2009 (Carson was 10 years old at the time) they happened to witness history as the White Sox' Mark Buehrle tossed a perfect game versus the Rays.

As fate would have it, Seymour wound up making his Major League debut in that very same ballpark (now called Rate Field) 16 years later when he pitched for the Giants in relief on June 29, 2025.

Caught 35-of-134 (26.1%) of basestealers in 81 games (711.1 innings caught). He led Texas League catchers in games started (81) but also had the third-most errors

Entered 2024 as the A's sixth-best prospect according to MLB.com and their 11th-best prospect according to Baseball America.

Played for Mesa in the Arizona Fall League following the season and hit .286 with two homers and seven RBI in six games.

2023 SEASON

Ranked among the Midwest League leaders in batting average (.303, 1st), OPS (.810, 8th), triples (5, T-8th), OBP (.373, 9th) and hits (111, 10th).

Combined to hit .300 with eight homers and 62 RBI with a .793 OPS between Lansing and Double-A Midland. His .300 average was third-best among A's minor leaguers.

2022 SEASON

Selected by the A's in the first round (19th overall) in the draft. He appeared in 27 minor league games after being drafted.

UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

Spent two seasons in Tucson where he batted a combined .351 with 24 homers and 126 RBI in 125 games as a freshman and sophomore.

Earned Pac-12 All Conference honors (2021 and 2022) and was Pac-12 Freshman of the Year (2021). Was a unanimous All-American as a sophomore for the Wildcats. He was also a semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Award and the Dick Howser Trophy.

Led the team with a .366 average as a sophomore. He led the Pac-12 and ranked tied for sixth nationally with 100 base hits. He became the 10th player in program history to log a 100+ hit season.

Helped lead the Wildcats to the College World Series as a freshman. He had multi-hit games in both of Arizona's College World Series games and drove in four runs.

OFF THE FIELD

Graduated from Jesuit High School in Roseville, CA after lettering all four years in baseball and three in football. Was the No. 7-ranked catcher in the country coming out of high school by Perfect Game. He had his senior season cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

As a high school QB, he threw for 1,685 yards and 23 touchdowns as a senior. Was recruited for football by Cincinnati, Nevada and Oregon St.

Played on the USA College National Team in 2021 with current Giants Drew Gilbert, Blade Tidwell and Carson Whisenhunt.

Older brother, Andrew, was a second-round pick of the Giants in 2011 and went on to play parts of six seasons in the Majors. Won a World Series with the Giants in 2014 and was a backup to current Giants PBO Buster Posey. The last time Daniel was in the clubhouse at Oracle Park was after Travis Ishikawa hit a walk-off homer to send the Giants to the World Series in 2014.

- Went 1-2 with two blown saves, an 8.18 ERA (10er, 11.0ip), and a .311 opponents average in his next 13 games before losing his closer job to Camilo Doval.
- Posted a 1.64 ERA (4er, 22.0ip) in 23 games from July 4-September 3.
- Returned to the closer role on August 24 with Randy Rodríguez out for the year...converted his first four save opportunities and threw 4.0 scoreless innings with six strikeouts in his first five games back.
- Went 0-3 with two blown saves, a 9.95 ERA (7er, 6.1ip) and a .424 BAA in his final nine games.
- Was the team's 2025 Roberto Clemente Award nominee.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Made 76 appearances (fifth-most in MLB) and had 10 wins (T-1st among relievers in MLB). Ranked inside the NL's top-10 with a 0.85 WHIP (sixth) and a 1.94 ERA (seventh).

His 97 strikeouts as a reliever were the most by a Giants reliever in a single season since Robb Nen struck out 110 in 1998.

Did not allow an earned run in 15 games from June 2-July 7 (17.0ip).

Used his slider 44.8% of the time and held opponents to a .157 average (21-for-134) with a 38.0 Whiff%.

His sinker had a +14 run value, the sixth best sinker in baseball in terms of run value (54.8% usage rate).

Named the closer on August 9 when Camilo Doval was optioned to Triple-A. Went 3-1 with a 0.92 ERA and was 10-for-10 in save chances over his 17 games as the closer.

Owned a 1.21 ERA (4er, 29.2ip) in 28 games after the break with 37 strikeouts and allowed just two earned runs in his last 22 games (24.1 innings) dating to July 30.

Had 250 friends and family members in Seattle to see him pitch. Converted a save and tossed 3.0-scoreless innings with seven strikeouts over two games at T-Mobile Park from Aug. 23-25.

2023 SEASON

Began the year at Triple-A. His 0.89 ERA (2er, 20.1ip) with SAC prior to his promotion was tops in organization (min. 20.0ip).

Made his MLB debut on May 21 vs. Miami. He earned the win, tossing a scoreless frame.

His 26.4% opposing hard hit rate was fifth-best in the Majors. His 11.45 K/9ip ratio was the best by a Giants rookie pitcher since 1958 (min. 30.0ip in his rookie season).

Opened 13 games for SF and had a 2.21 ERA (5er, 20.1ip) with 32 strikeouts.

2022 SEASON

Had a strong year in the Minors, going 7-3 with a 3.74 ERA (22er, 53.0ip), and 65 strikeouts across 50 games between Double-A and Triple-A.

2018 SEASON

Pitched at three levels after being drafted by SF in the 31st round earlier in the year. Walker reached High-A San Jose.

AT WASHINGTON STATE

Attended Washington State, posting ERAs of 2.72 and 2.40 in his first two seasons. Moved to the rotation for his junior year, but posted a 5.67 ERA.

Finished his WSU career with 87 games pitched, second most in team history. His 13 relief wins are tied for most in team history.

OFF THE FIELD

Met his now wife, Alexis, while at Washington State. Alexis was a psychology major born and raised in San Francisco. At WSU, she was a star volleyball player who left WSU first in career digs (2,152), second in digs per set (4.26) and 10th in service ace (39). They were married on September 25, 2021. Alexis now works as a counselor.

Ryan and Alexis have two young daughters: Rylie and Harley. The couple makes their offseason home in Arizona.

COACH SPEAK

His father, Mark, coached him in Little League for several seasons and has umpired for many years.

During the 2020 shutdown, Walker got a job as a locksmith working 10 hours a day "because I had nothing else to do and wanted to make as much money as I could". It also turned out he really liked locksmithing. Scan/Click the QR code below for his sit down with NBC Sports Bay Area from 2025 on his locksmith career.

NBC Sports Bay Area

He also was able to focus on what he needed to do in baseball. He found a former Giants trainer to train him for free. He got up at 5 a.m. to drive to the gym 45 minutes away. After the workouts he'd go to his locksmith gig. He ended up gaining an extra 5 mph of velocity that offseason.

When he was in college his team took a 10-day trip to the Dominican Republic where they played against the police and navy baseball teams in Santo Domingo as well as some of the complex league teams out there.

IN THE COMMUNITY

On September 15, 2025, Walker was named the Giants' 2025 Roberto Clemente Award nominee.

The Roberto Clemente Award is the annual recognition of a Major League Baseball player who best represents the game of baseball through extraordinary character, community involvement, philanthropy and positive contributions, both on and off the field.

Since being called up to the Giants in 2023, Walker has dedicated numerous hours to not just the local community, but even on the road by organizing events in Houston, Philadelphia, Detroit and Denver.

Among many other volunteer efforts, Walker has spent time coaching children with special needs at the Giants' annual Fantasy Camp for Kids, met with the baseball team at San Quentin Prison and went to Family House, a nonprofit organization that provides support and housing to children undergoing treatment at UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital.

You can read more about Walker's contributions on and off the field here.

AWARDS |

ALL-STAR
2024, 2025

GOLD GLOVE
2025

2025 RECAP |

- Finished his seventh season with San Francisco, leading the team in wins (15), starts (34), innings (207.0), strikeouts (224) and ERA (3.22).
- Led the NL in both innings (207.0) and strikeouts (224) in 2025 to become the first Giant since Bill Voiselle in 1944 to lead the NL in both of those categories in a single season.
- Tied his career-high for wins (15) set in 2022...the only other Giants since 2000 with multiple 15-win seasons are Madison Bumgarner (four), Tim Lincecum (three) and Jason Schmidt (two).
- Selected as an All-Star for the second time (also 2024)...worked 1.0 scoreless inning in the game on July 15 at Truist Park in Atlanta, GA.
- Reached 200 career strikeouts for the first time in his career with a strikeout of AZ's Adrian Del Castillo in the 5th inning on September 8 vs. Arizona.
- With his start on September 23 vs. St. Louis, he became the first Giants pitcher to reach 200.0 innings in three straight seasons since Madison Bumgarner did so in six straight seasons from 2011-2016.
- Became the first Giants pitcher to record 200.0 innings and 200 strikeouts in the same season since Madison Bumgarner (207.2ip, 203 strikeouts) reached both markers in 2019...he was the first Giants right-hander to accomplish the feat since Jeff Samardzija (207.2ip, 205 strikeouts) in 2017.
- Has led the National League in innings pitched in each of the last three seasons...a single Giant has never done that...the last time any Giant led the NL in innings pitched in three straight seasons was Juan Marichal in 1968 (325.2ip) and Gaylord Perry in 1969 (325.1ip) and 1970 (328.2ip).

- Became the first player to lead the NL in innings in three straight seasons since Liván Hernández did so from 2003-2005 with Montreál and Washington.
- Went 8-4 with a 3.10 ERA (40er, 116.0ip) and 126 strikeouts at Oracle Park (19 starts)...his 126 strikeouts at Oracle Park are the fifth most in a season since the ballpark opened in 2000, and the most since Madison Bumgarner had 141 in 2015...in 15 road starts, Webb was 7-7 with a 3.36 ERA (34er, 91.0ip) and 98 strikeouts.
- Drastically improved his ability to keep runners in check in 2025 and limit stolen bases, posting a +5 Net Bases Prevented (a sum of advances prevented and outs added assigned to the pitcher), which was tied for 13th-best in the Majors on Baseball Savant... he had a net rating of -21 from 2020-2024.
- Won his first career Gold Glove, becoming the second Giants pitcher in franchise history to take home the award (also Rick Reuschel in 1987).
- Had seven defensive runs saved as a pitcher, which were second-most in MLB behind NYY's Max Fried (10)...from his 2019-24 seasons, he was worth a cumulative -4 DRS. A
- Allowed just nine stolen bases in 2025, tied for sixth-fewest among MLB pitchers with at least 175.0 innings pitched...he allowed a combined 41 stolen bases in the 2023-24 seasons.
- Made his fourth career Opening Day start on March 27 at Cincinnati...became the first Giants starter to start four-consecutive Opening Days since Madison Bumgarner also started four-straight from 2014-17.
- Became the seventh Giants pitcher to make at least four straight Opening Day starts, per Elias...he joins Juan Marichal (six straight from 1964-69), Madison Bumgarner (2014-17), Tim Lincecum (2009- 12), Larry Jansen (1948-51), Bill Voiselle (1944-47) and Mickey Welch (1883-86).

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Named an All-Star for the first time in his career, matching a career-best with 33 starts while going 13-10 with a 3.47 ERA.

Finished sixth in the NL Cy Young voting after ranking among the NL's top-10 in innings pitched (204.2, 1st), quality starts (20, T-2nd), FIP (2.96, 2nd), fWAR (4.4, 5th) and ERA (3.47, 10th).

200 Eclipsed the 200-inning mark for a second consecutive season, the first Giant to log consecutive 200-inning seasons since Jeff Samardzija from 2016-17.

Led the Majors with 353 ground balls produced and owned a 57.2% ground ball rate, fourth-best in MLB.

Threw his second career shutout on July 31 in SF's 1-0 victory over the A's...limited Athletics batters to just five hits with a walk and six strikeouts, achieving the feat in just one hour & 55 minutes (106 pitches).

Induced 25 double plays, most in the NL and second-most in MLB behind HOU's Framber Valdez (32).

2023 SEASON

Signed a five-year extension in April to keep him a Giant through the 2028 season.

Finished second in the NL Cy Young voting after setting career bests in starts (33), innings pitched (216.0), strikeouts (194) and fewest walks in a full season (31).

Led MLB in innings, surpassing the 200-inning threshold for the first time in his career. Became the first Giant to lead the Majors in innings since Gaylord Perry in 1970.

He also ranked among the Majors' best in quality starts (24, T-1st), ERA (3.25, 10th), complete games (two, T-3rd), games started (33, T-3rd) and WHIP (1.07, 6th).

Was worth 4.9 fWAR, tied for fourth-best in the National League among starters. His 2.95 xFIP was second while his 3.16 FIP was fourth-best.

+28 His changeup was the second-most valuable pitch in the Majors in terms of run value at +28 (Statcast).

2022 SEASON

Won 15 games while boasting a 2.90 ERA. Became the eighth Giants right-hander 25 or younger to win 15+ games since 1958.

Led the National League with a 57.8 groundball percentage. Only Houston's Framber Valdez (67.4%) was better among qualified pitchers.

2021 SEASON

Had a breakout campaign, going 11-3 with a 3.03 ERA in 27 games (26 starts).

The Giants went 22-5 in Webb's 27 games (26 starts) during the regular season. Over his final 20 starts, SF was 18-2 while Webb himself went 10-0 with a 2.40 ERA.

Was dominant in his first Postseason, going 1-0 with a 0.61 ERA (1er, 14.2ip) and 17 strikeouts in two NLDS starts against LA.

He became the fourth Giants pitcher all-time to strike out at least 10 batters in his Postseason debut on Oct. 8. Overall, Webb was the 11th Giants pitcher to strike out 10 or more batters in a Postseason game.

CAREER NOTES

2020 SEASON

Won his home start on September 8, 2020, beginning a stretch where the Giants would go on to win 18 consecutive regular season Webb starts at Oracle Park through May 24, 2022. The 18-game run matched Atlee Hammaker's stretch (18, 1982-83) for the longest by any Giant in the modern era.

2019 SEASON

Began with an 80-game suspension for PEDs while playing for Double-A Richmond.

When he returned, he made stops at every level from Arizona rookie to Single A, Double A, a single start in Triple A, then his Major League debut on August 17 in Phoenix.

2016 SEASON

Underwent Tommy John surgery in June of 2016 and returned a season later in 2017.

OFF THE FIELD

Married his high school sweetheart Sharidan Morales on December 5, 2021 in Sacramento, CA. The two welcomed their first child, a daughter named Mila, in October 2024.

Grew up going to both A's and Giants games but mostly A's because his father was a fan. Logan's favorite A's were Tim Hudson, Bobby Crosby and Stephen Vogt (who would catch him in his MLB debut with the Giants).

His mother still has the paper from elementary school on which he wrote he wanted to grow up to play for the San Francisco Giants.

Roots for the Sacramento Kings and Las Vegas Raiders. He won a bet with Giants Senior Director of Athletic Training Dave Groeschner when the Raiders beat the Patriots in 2025 to make Groeschner wear a Raiders jersey for a whole day.

Threw for 3,767 yards with 47 touchdowns and 18 interceptions in his football career at Rocklin (CA) High School. Was the starting quarterback his junior and senior seasons.

He is considered legally blind because of astigmatism, which causes blurred vision. Diagnosed in 3rd or 4th grade when he was having a hard time seeing the ball. Wore glasses until age 11 or 12, which made football difficult, then switched to contacts. He still usually wears glasses when he's not playing ball but only at night.

Enters the 2026 season as the longest tenured Giant on the roster.

His dad Erik played one season on the Serra High baseball team in San Mateo with Barry Bonds.

Webb's favorite snack food are Cheez It crackers.

He drinks three Red Bulls before every start. One right before he gets to the field, one before he starts stretching with the trainer, and then one as he finishes his warm-up pitches in the bullpen.

HE'S A GOOD GUY

Won the 2024 Bill Rigney "Goodguy" award from the SF chapter of the BBWA, which is given to the player who has shown extraordinary effort with the media.

IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2022, Webb began talking to high school children in his native Sacramento area for an awareness campaign about the dangers of fentanyl following the unexpected and sudden passing of Logan's cousin, Kade, who died days before Webb's wedding in 2021 after taking a counterfeit pain pill laced with fentanyl.

"That whole night was a blur," Webb told The Athletic's Andrew Baggarly in 2022. "It was things you never want to see, body bags, stuff like that. You feel like it's not real. We were there in the parking lot of that Safeway from midnight until 3 or 4 a.m. I had to try to go through that weekend like everything was normal. And it wasn't normal."

NUMBER 1 FANS GRANS

Raised in Rocklin, California, which is about 107 miles from Oracle Park, Logan Webb has no shortage of supporters in the family section of home games. Two individuals that stand out are his two grandmothers, Patty Fecanin (maternal grandmother) and Jan Webb (paternal grandmother).

"I would say they're my biggest fans," Webb told Maria Guardado of MLB.com. "They've been my biggest fans for a long time."

Patty and Jan moved in together when both lost their husbands in a nine-month span. They have now been roommates for the past 17 years, and have made a habit of driving wherever Logan was playing to watch him pitch, including when he was a prospect in the Minor Leagues.

"When Logan was in the Minor Leagues, we were going to all of his Minor League games throughout the United States," Jan said. "We would make sure he had his sheets and his towels and paper plates."

Whether they're in attendance or not, Webb receives a good luck text from his grandmothers, who also love to brag about their grandson.

"I don't think my grandmas can go anywhere without saying that I'm their grandson," Webb said, smiling. "If you wear a Giants hat or a Giants jersey, she's going to mention it. I love that. They're really proud of me. I'll be with them sometimes and they'll be like, 'Hey, that's Logan Webb.' And I'm like, 'Grandma, shh, be quiet!'"

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Invited to his first Major League Spring Training but did not appear in any Cactus League games.

Spent the entire year at Triple-A Sacramento except for a two-start rehab assignment at Single-A San Jose. Made 25 starts for the River Cats, going 3-5 with a 5.42 ERA. He had a 1.61 WHIP and allowed 14 homers.

Struck out 135 batters while posting a 11.61 K/9 ratio. His 135 strikeouts were seventh-most in all of Triple-A.

Threw 109.2 innings, a professional career high, after throwing 58.2 innings in 2023.

Missed a few weeks in late July and early August on the 7-day IL with right ankle inflammation.

Held lefties to a .222 average but a .714 OPS at Triple-A. Righties hit .297 off him with an .866 OPS and 12 of his 14 home runs allowed.

2023 SEASON

Worked through three levels in 2023, beginning at Single-A San Jose before ending his season at Double-A Richmond.

Named NWL Pitcher on the Month in May, posting a 1.69 ERA (4er, 21.1ip), 30 strikeouts and a 0.75 WHIP in five starts for High-A Eugene.

Worked 1.0 scoreless inning in the Futures Game and struck out two, including No. 1 overall prospect Jackson Holliday.

Missed the final two months of the season with a left elbow sprain.

2022 SEASON

Pitched for Scottsdale of the Arizona Fall League following the season and went 0-1 with a 2.84 ERA and 11 strikeouts in three starts (6.1ip).

AT EAST CAROLINA

Was suspended for his junior season at East Carolina after testing positive for a banned substance. He was a consensus pre-season All-America selection according to a number of publications and on the preseason Golden Spikes Award Watch list entering his junior season. Pitched in four games for Chatham in the Cape Cod League before the 2022 draft.

Played for Team USA Collegiate National Team in 2021. Teammates included Giants' 2022 first-round pick LHP/IF Reggie Crawford and reigning NL Rookie of the Year Paul Skenes (PIT) among others.

OFF THE FIELD

Attended the Davie County HS in Mocksville, NC, the same school as Major Leaguer Whit Merrifield. Whisenhunt was the sixth player ever to be drafted after attending Davie. Two of the previous five have reached the Majors (Merrifield and RHP Jeremy Walker, who pitched with Atlanta in 2019 and actually in the Giants minors system in 2022).

MOM! CALL DAD!

His mom, Mandi, was his first call when he found out he was being called up by the Giants for his MLB debut. His dad, Dennis, was in the Philippines so Mandi called Dennis and woke him up at 2:30 a.m. local time to get him to fly to San Francisco for his debut.

LUCKY #8

Wore uniform number 88 with the Giants. He cited his reasoning behind the number choice being because it's his aunt's birthday, his dad's football jersey number and the year his mom graduated high school.

GET TO KNOW KEATON |

Favorite way to spend an off day: If he's by himself he'll sleep. When his wife travels with him on the road they'll walk around and explore the city. Has enjoyed exploring Tampa (walking on the beach) and Toronto...Favorite thing about his hometown: It's quiet after a long season of being in major cities...What would he want to do if he wasn't playing baseball?: Professional bass fisherman. He fishes for the first month of the season for freshwater fish...A skill he's always wanted to learn: Play a musical instrument like the guitar or piano.

2025 RECAP |

- Started the year at Triple-A and made three starts before landing on the 7-day IL (right shoulder tendinitis) on April 22...did not return to the active roster until just before the All-Star break with a rehab assignment between the ACL and San Jose... returned to Triple-A on July 19.
- Appeared in seven games with SF exclusively out of the 'pen, posting a 4.50 ERA (5er, 10.0ip) with nine strikeouts...prior to 2025, he had started 17 of his 21 games at the big league level.
- Overall, was 1-1 with a 8.49 ERA (22er, 23.1ip) in 14 games (three starts) with Triple-A.
- Batters were 7-for-23 (.304) with four extra-base hits off his splitter (72 total pitches) after they were 20-for-93 (.215) vs. the pitch with seven extra-base hits in 2024 (343 pitches).
- Recalled from Sacramento on August 15 with Ryan Walker going on the Paternity List...appeared in two games (Aug 16-17) out of the bullpen for SF (2.0ip, h, bb, 2k) and was optioned three days later.
- Recalled again on August 26 with Randy Rodríguez hitting the IL and pitched in five more games for SF.
- Optioned to Triple-A Sacramento on Sept. 16 and finished the year with the River Cats.

CAREER NOTES

2024 SEASON

Dealt with multiple injuries that sidelined him for most of the year. He went 3-8 with a 7.16 ERA across 12 MLB starts, posting a 1.37 WHIP and .268 opposing average.

Made his first Opening Day roster and started nine games before going on the IL on May 17 with a right forearm strain.

Reinstated from the IL on June 9. He made three more starts for before going on the IL on June 22 (right elbow inflammation).

Underwent season-ending surgery to reposition the ulnar nerve on July 29, performed in L.A. by Dr. Steven Shin.

2023 SEASON

Recalled from Triple-A Sacramento on June 12 and made his Major League debut on June 13 at STL in relief, firing 4.0 innings and picking up the save.

Became the third MLB pitcher since 1969 to pitch 4.0+ innings and earn the save in his MLB debut, joining STL's Zack Thompson on June 3, 2022 and BOS' Bob Stanley on April 16, 1977 (Elias).

2022 SEASON

Returned from Tommy John surgery and began the year at Single-A San Jose before ending it at Double-A Richmond. Worked 108.0 innings total across the three levels (San Jose, Eugene and Richmond).

Was added to the Giants 40-man roster following the season.

2021 SEASON

After not playing in 2020 due to there being no minor league season, Winn missed the entire '21 season after undergoing Tommy John surgery.

AT IOWA WESTERN CC

Played for Iowa Western Community College and wrapped up his two seasons with a 7-1 record and a 2.37 ERA in 24 appearances (four starts).

Was actually drafted twice by the Giants, being taken by SF in the 20th round of the 2017 draft (606th pick) but he opted to return to school. SF took him again in the fifth round in 2018 and he signed.

OFF THE FIELD

Keaton and his wife, Kailey, were married on November 5, 2022. Kailey graduated from Iowa State University and works in marketing for 7G Distributing LLC, a Budweiser distributor in Cedar Rapids. The couple met at a New Year's Eve party in Iowa when Kailey let a drink slip from her hand and spill onto Keaton's white shirt. Immediately smitten, Keaton found Kailey through social media and messaged her the next day. They were married four years later.

Winn attended Perkin Community High School in Packwood, IA where he was all-district in football, baseball and basketball. Was also a 4x200 track state champion.

As a member of the Panthers basketball team, Winn logged a record-breaking 26 rebounds in one game.

Returned to Perkin during the 2023-2024 offseason to have his baseball jersey number (#23) retired. Winn still holds the school career record for ERA as well as the distinction of having the only perfect game in school history.

Grew up in Ollie, IA, a small town of just 201 residents in 58 households according to the 2020 census. "Ollie is small even by small-town Iowa standards" Winn told Andrew Baggarly of The Athletic. "The nearest stoplight is miles away and most of the five or six stop signs do not yield to oncoming traffic. There's a post office and a Baptist church and a car detailing business and five cemeteries. Other than that, visit in late July and you'll be surrounded by corn. Unless it's the opposite year. That's when they put in soybeans."

Winn has two sisters and a brother. The family has a small baseball field in their backyard, where Keaton played with his buddies.

His No. 1 hobby is fishing. The moment baseball season ends, he grabs his fishing pole.

His father, Chris, was born and raised in Ollie and works in agricultural drainage engineering, taking over the business from his father. His mother, Lynn, is a registered nurse who, on the campus of University of Iowa, works at a rehab center for trauma patients (strokes, traumatic brain injuries, accidents).

Baseball Operations Executives

Dusty Baker — Special Advisor to Baseball Operations

Dusty Baker rejoined the Giants organization in his current role of special advisor to baseball operations in January 2024 following his successful managerial stint of the Houston Astros from 2020-2023 that saw him guide Houston to a World Championship in 2022. It's the second stint as a special advisor for Baker who also served in this role from 2018-2019 before going to Houston.

The three-time National League Manager of the Year currently stands as the eighth-winningest manager in AL/NL history. Overall, he managed 26 seasons and posted a 2,183-1,862 (.540) managerial record with the San Francisco Giants (1993-2002), Chicago Cubs (2003-06), Cincinnati Reds (2008-13), Washington Nationals (2016-17) and Houston Astros (2020-2023). Baker guided 13 Postseason teams, including 10 division championships (San Francisco, 1997 and 2000; Chicago, 2003; Cincinnati, 2010 and 2012; Washington, 2016 and 2017 and Houston, 2021-2023), and three wild card appearances (San Francisco, 2002; Cincinnati, 2013). He's the only manager in Major League history to lead five different franchises to a division title.

Baker's coaching career started as a first base coach for the San Francisco Giants in 1988 and he then spent the following four years (1989–92) as the hitting coach before he was named manager in 1993. In his very first year as Giants manager, he won the 1993 NL Manager of the Year award, leading the team to a 103–59 record, which was the second-best record in baseball that year. His Giants teams went on to win division titles in 1997 and 2000 and the National League pennant in 2002. His 840 wins with San Francisco rank third-most in team history behind Bruce Bochy (1,052) and Hall of Famer John McGraw (2,583).

A career .278 hitter, Baker played 19 seasons in the big leagues and compiled 242 home runs, 320 doubles, 23 triples, and 1,013 RBI. He finished in the top 10 in MVP voting twice (1980 and 1981), and from 1980-82 he hit .303, averaging 20 home runs, 20 doubles and 78 RBI a year while earning two Silver Slugger Awards, a Gold Glove, and two All-Star selections. He won a World Series as a player with the Dodgers in 1981.

Baker resides in Sacramento, CA with his wife, Melissa, and has two children, Natosha and Darren. He is a 1967 graduate of Del Campo High School (Carmichael, CA) and he attended American River College (Sacramento, CA). Baker was inducted into the Sacramento Sports Hall of Fame in 2013 and the California Black Sports Hall of Fame in 1997. In 2015, he was enshrined in the Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame.

Bruce Bochy — Special Advisor to Baseball Operations

Bruce Bochy rejoins the Giants as a special advisor to baseball operations after a three-year stint as the manager of the Texas Rangers from 2023-25 that saw him win a fourth World Series title with Texas in 2023. Bochy also served in this advisory role for the Giants from 2020-2022 before returning to a managing role with the Rangers.

During his 28-year managerial career he compiled 2,252 victories, the sixth-most by any manager in MLB history, and his 4,518 games managed are the fourth-most in MLB history behind only Connie Mack (7,755), Tony La Russa (5,387) and John McGraw (4,769). He's the only manager in MLB history to win 900-plus games with multiple franchises, winning 951 games with San Diego and 1,052 with San Francisco, the second-most managerial wins by a Giants manager behind Hall of Famer John McGraw. Overall, Bochy led his teams to five Pennants and four World Series championships with his teams posting a 57-37 (.606) record in Postseason play. Bochy managed five All-Star teams (1999, 2011, 2013, 2015, 2024) and was a member of the All-Star coaching staff eight times: 1997, 1999, 2001, 2007, 2010, 2011, 2013, 2015. In 2011, he was the skipper for the MLB All-Stars in Taiwan and managed France in the WBC Qualifiers in 2022.

The 36th manager in Giants franchise history, and 16th in San Francisco annals, Bochy guided the Giants to three World Series titles in 2010, 2012 and 2014. The Giants' championship in 2010 was their first in San Francisco history (since 1958) and their first overall since the New York Giants won in 1954.

Prior to the Giants, Bochy was the manager of the San Diego Padres from 1995-2006. To this day, his 951 victories with the Padres are the most in franchise history. Bochy became the first Padres skipper to earn NL Manager of Year honors when he led the 1996 club to their first NL West title since 1984. Overall, Bochy logged a 24-year affiliation with the Padres organization from 1983-2006. He was named Padres manager on October 21, 1994.

The former catcher spent parts of nine Major League seasons with Houston (1978-80), New York-NL (1982) and San Diego (1983-87) and compiled a lifetime .239 average with 26 home runs and 93 RBI in 358 career games. He made his big-league debut on July 18, 1978 in an Astros uniform, going 2-for-3 at Shea Stadium.

Born in Landes de Bussac, France, on April 16, 1955, Bochy is one of seven Major Leaguers to be born in France, where his father, Sgt. Major Gus Bochy, was stationed as a U.S. Army NCO at the time. He graduated from Melbourne (FL) High School and attended Brevard Community College for two years on a partial scholarship, winning a state championship in 1975. He decided to turn pro when he was drafted in the first round (24th overall) by the Astros in 1975.

Bochy and his wife, Kim, have two sons, Greg and Brett, and three grandchildren, Braxton Douglas and Maddox Melrose born to Greg and McKenna and Blakely Grace, born to Brett and Kelsey.

Greg spent several seasons playing minor league baseball in the Padres system. Brett was drafted by the Giants in 2010 and was called up to the Majors on Sept. 2, 2014, making Bruce the eighth manager in MLB history to manage his own son. On Sept. 13, 2014, Bruce became the first manager to give the ball to his son coming out of the bullpen.

Barry Bonds — Special Advisor

Barry Bonds serves as a Special Advisor to the CEO. Bonds represents the organization at various community and organizational events in San Francisco. He also attends the Giants' Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, AZ and works with the organization's young players.

Bonds signed with the Giants in 1993 and spent his final 15 Major League seasons in a San Francisco uniform, compiling a .312 batting average with 381 doubles, 41 triples, 586 home runs and 1,440 RBI in 1,976 games. He can be found throughout the SF-era record books, ranking in the top 10 for batting average (first), games (third), at-bats (third – 6,263), runs (first - 1,555), hits (third - 1,951), doubles (first), triples (fourth), home runs (first), RBI (first), stolen bases (first - 263) and walks (first - 1,947).

Bonds won seven NL MVP awards, eight Gold Glove awards and received 14 All-Star selections during his storied 22-year Major League career with the Pittsburgh Pirates (1986-92) and San Francisco Giants (1993-2007). He holds Major League Baseball's all-time records for home runs (762) and walks (2,558), is the only member of baseball's 500-homer, 500-steal club and also won two National League batting titles.

Bonds' impressive resume also includes baseball's single-season records for home runs (73 in 2001), walks (232 in 2004), intentional walks (120 in 2004), on-base percentage (.609 in 2004) and slugging percentage (.863 in 2001).

In 2018, the Giants retired Bonds' uniform number 25. Bonds joined an elite group of New York and San Francisco Giants players as the 12th player to receive this honor.

Will Clark — Special Assistant

Longtime Giants icon Will Clark joined the Giants front office in January 2009. In his role, the six-time All-Star first baseman represents the organization at various in-season and off-season community events in San Francisco. He also attends the Giants' Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, AZ and visits several of the Giants' minor league teams each year. Clark, who brings the experience of a 15-year Major League playing career to the Giants, previously worked as an advisor to the Arizona Diamondbacks' coaching staff in spring training from 2004-2008.

Drafted by the Giants in the first round (second overall pick) of the 1985 June draft, Clark spent his first eight big-league seasons in a San Francisco uniform, compiling a .299 batting average with 176 home runs and 709 RBI in 1,160 games. One of the best clutch hitters of his time, Clark hit over .300 on 10 occasions. In 1988, he became the first Giants player to drive in 90 or more runs in consecutive seasons since Bobby Murcer in 1975-76. He had one of his finest seasons in 1989, when he batted .333 with 111 RBI, and finished second in the NL Most Valuable Player voting to Giants teammate Kevin Mitchell. He was, however, named MVP of the '89 NLCS, after batting .650 with a pair of homers and eight RBI, helping San Francisco defeat Chicago four-games-to-one.

One of the premier first basemen in the National League during his time with San Francisco, Clark was also an outstanding defensive player, winning a Rawlings Gold Glove in 1991. The New Orleans, LA native owned a .303 lifetime average with 284 home runs and 1,205 RBI over 1,976 career games for the Giants (1986-1993), Rangers (1994-98), Orioles (1999-2000) and Cardinals (2000).

Clark, who was a two-time All-American at Mississippi State University, was the winner of the Golden Spikes Award as the country's top collegiate player in 1985, hitting .420 with 25 home runs and 77 RBI in 65 games. He was inducted into the inaugural class of the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006 and was inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in 2008.

He resides in Prairieville, LA, with his wife, Lisa, and their son, Trey, and daughter, Ella. The Giants retired Clarks #22 in 2022, making him the 13th New York or San Francisco Giants player to receive the honor of having their number retired.

John Barr — Senior Advisor to the President of Baseball Operations

John Barr has been a baseball executive for over 40 years and has spent 18 of those with the Giants. Barr oversaw the drafting of some of the franchise's biggest contributors and stars during the World Series years when he ascended to vice president and assistant GM of scouting and international operations. His group was responsible for the drafting of Buster Posey, Brandon Crawford, Brandon Belt and Logan Webb, among many others. Barr moved into his current advisory role with the Giants in 2019. In December of 2019, Barr was honored as the Scout of the Year for the East Coast region, an award voted on by his peers.

The Audubon, NJ, native entered the front office in 1984 with the New York Mets as an administrative assistant to minor leagues and scouting where he remained until becoming the East Coast supervisor for Minnesota in 1988. As scouting director for the Orioles (1989-90), Barr was responsible for selecting first-rounders Ben McDonald ('89) and Hall of Famer Mike Mussina ('90). He served as assistant general manager for the San Diego Padres (1991-93) before returning to the Mets (1994-97) as scouting director. Barr then spent 10 years (1998- 2007) with the Los Angeles Dodgers as their East Coast supervisor.

Barr was inducted into the Mid Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame in November of 2008 and then inducted into the Professional Scouting Hall of Fame during the summer of 2009. He received the "Legends in Scouting Award" in January 2019 at the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation Awards Dinner. The Rider University graduate resides in Haddonfield, NJ, with his wife, Marianne.

Bobby Evans — Senior Advisor to the President of Baseball Operations

Bobby Evans returned to the Giants as a senior advisor to the president of baseball operations in 2024 after spending 25 seasons in the Giants organization in different roles. During his two tenures, he's helped the organization capture eight Postseason berths, four World Series appearances, three Championships, two Topps Organization of the Year honors and one Baseball America Organization of the Year nod.

During his four-year tenure as GM from 2015-2018, Evans acquired some of the game's top players via free agency or trade, including two-time All-Star Johnny Cueto, 2014 All-Star Jeff Samardzija, three-time All-Star Evan Longoria and 2013 NL MVP Andrew McCutchen.

Prior to being promoted to general manager, Evans first joined the Giants in 1994 as an administrative assistant, minor leagues. He was later promoted to director of minor league operations in 1998, director of player personnel in 2005 and vice president of baseball operations in January 2009. Evans is a 1991 graduate of the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, where he received the John Motley Morehead Scholarship Award.

Jeff Berry — Senior Advisor to the President of Baseball Operations

Jeff Berry joined the organization prior to the 2025 season as senior advisor to the president of baseball operations.

Prior to joining the Giants, Berry worked as an attorney and sports agent for 26 years with Creative Artists Agency, where he was the Co-Head of CAA Baseball. In his time there, CAA Baseball represented seven Rookie of the Year winners, five Cy Young Award winners and four MVPs (including current Giants President of Baseball Operations Buster Posey).

Berry is also a board member of the V Foundation for Cancer Research, which was founded in 1993 by the late ESPN and National Champion basketball coach Jim Valvano.

Ron Wotus — Senior Advisor to the President of Baseball Operations

Ron Wotus has been a part of the Giants organization since 1990. In his current role as a senior advisor to the president of baseball operations, Wotus serves as a mentor to the coaching staff and players at both the major and minor league levels and provides on-field instruction. He attends Giants Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, AZ and visits the minor league affiliates each year.

Wotus is one of just six individuals since 1900 to serve as a Giants coach for 10+ years, joining Mark Gardner (15 years, 2003-2017), Larry Jansen (12 years, 1954 and 1961-71), Bob Lillis (11 years, 1986-96), Dave Righetti (18 years, 2000-2017) and Wes Westrum (10 years, 1958-63 and 1968-71). He is the only coach in franchise history to serve as a coach for 20+ seasons.

Wotus coached at Class-A Clinton (Iowa) in 1990 before managing in San Francisco's minor league system for seven years from 1991-97. Hi 92-44 record. In 1997, he was named Pacific Coast League Manager of the Year and then became the Giants' Third Base Coach in 1998 under manager Dusty Baker before serving as Bench Coach from 1999-2017 under Baker, Felipe Alou and Bruce Bochy.

The Connecticut native first entered professional baseball in 1979 when the Pirates selected him in the 16th round. He played professionally for 11 seasons, including two in the Majors with Pittsburgh (1983-84). He made his Major League debut on Sept. 3, 1983 in Atlanta and recorded his first big-league hit, a single, off the Dodgers' Orel Hershiser at Los Angeles on July 4, 1984. His final two seasons as a player came with the Giants' Triple-A affiliate in Phoenix in 1988 and 1989.

He has worked with four players who have won NL Gold Gloves under his watch: J.T. Snow (1999, 2000), Omar Vizquel (2005, 2006), Brandon Crawford (2015, 2016, 2017) and Joe Panik (2016).

Curt Casali — Advisor to Baseball Operations

Curt Casali joined the Giants as an advisor to baseball operations prior to the 2026 season. Casali played 11 years in the Majors with the Tampa Bay Rays (2014-2017), Cincinnati Reds (2018-2020, 2023), San Francisco Giants (2021-2022, 2024) and Seattle Mariners (2022).

The former catcher played 543 games across 11 seasons, batting .218 with 157 runs, 61 doubles, a triple, 48 home runs and 162 RBI. Defensively, Casali had a career catcher's ERA of 3.57, with his best in a full season coming in 2021 with the Giants (2.72).

Casali, who retired following the 2024 season, appeared in 1,030 career games between the Majors and minors from 2011-2024.

Javier López — Advisor to Baseball Operations

Javier López joined the Giants as an advisor to baseball operations prior to the 2026 season. López, a 14-year MLB veteran from 2003-2016, pitched seven seasons with the Giants (2003-2016), winning three World Series (2010, 2012 and 2014) while also being named a Willie Mac Award winner in 2016.

A key member of the Core Four bullpen on the 2010, 2012 and 2014 World Series Champion teams, his 25 postseason games are tied for third-most in franchise history for a pitcher and his 446 career games pitched as a Giant are eighth-most. In his seven seasons as a Giant, López posted a 5.3 bWAR, 17-8 record, 2.47 ERA and 184 strikeouts in 251.0 innings pitched.

Upon retirement, López spent the 2017-2025 seasons as a member of the Giants' broadcasting team, with color commentator duties on both television (NBC Sports Bay Area) and radio (KNBR).

Michael Holmes — Senior Director, Amateur Scouting

Michael Holmes returns as the senior director of amateur scouting, a role he has held since 2022 Holmes joined the Giants in 2019 as the director of amateur scouting.

Holmes began his professional baseball career in 1997, when he was selected by the A's in the 18th round of the draft out of Wake Forest. With the Demon Deacons, Holmes was a four-year standout from 1994-97 and was named the team's MVP in 1996. After spending four seasons pitching in the lower levels of the A's system, Holmes joined the Wake Forest coaching staff in January 2001. In addition to coaching at Wake Forest, Holmes spent his summer in 2001 as a pitching coach for Brewster in the Cape Cod League.

Holmes started his career as the A's area scout in the Carolinas and later served as the A's East Coast crosschecker before being named assistant scouting director, a position he held from 2009 until being hired by the Giants.

Joe Salermo — Senior Director, International Scouting

Joe Salermo is currently serving as the senior director of international scouting, a position he was promoted to in 2022. In his role, he oversees the scouting and acquisition of international amateur players as well as Cuban amateur and professional players, while also providing coverage with Asian professional baseball leagues and International professional winter leagues.

Salermo's first year as a scout was with the Mets in 1997, working as an associate scout before becoming the South Florida area supervisor with the Mets in 1999. Salermo later won the South Florida Scout of the Year award (2007). He first came to the Giants in 2009 as the Latin American crosschecker, then became an international crosschecker in 2013, and finally in 2015 became director of international scouting.

He was born in Manzanillo, Cuba and came to the United States with his family when he was 10 years old. Salermo played baseball at Monmouth University in New Jersey, and graduated from Kean University with a Bachelor's Degree in Education. He now resides in Hallandale Beach, FL.

Kyle Haines — Senior Director, Player Development

Kyle Haines currently serves as the senior director, player development, a position he was promoted to in 2022. During his time, he's seen the graduation to the Majors of top prospects such as two-time All-Star Logan Webb, two-time Gold Glove winner Patrick Bailey and All-Star OF Heliot Ramos, among others. In 2022, Haines helped transition the Giants' shift to Papago Park, the team's new minor league spring training and player development complex in Phoenix.

Haines was selected by the Giants in the 31st round of the 2004 draft and played 10 minor league seasons, including five within the Giants organization. He was brought back to the Giants organization in 2015 to serve as a minor league manager. In 2017, he served as the manager for the Richmond Flying Squirrels and was named "Best Manager Prospect" in the Eastern League by Baseball America. Haines also managed Salem-Keizer for two seasons (2015-2016) and spent the 2018 year as assistant director of player development of instruction before being promoted to director in 2019.

He graduated from Eastern Illinois University with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and sports management, along with a minor in business. He also has an associate's degree from Olney Central College. His brother, Andy, was the hitting coach for the Pittsburgh Pirates from 2021-2025 and is currently the minor league hitting coordinator for the Chicago Cubs.

Jose Bonilla — Senior Director, International Operations & Baseball Administration

NOTHING LIKE IT

DASHED HOPES: After a strong start to the season, the Giants did not end the year with a winning record, finishing at .500 (81-81) for the second time in franchise history (and second time in the last three seasons, also 2022)...when it was all said and done, SF finished in third place in the National League West, 12.0 games behind the division champion Dodgers...in terms of the NL Wild Card, the Giants finished just 2.0 games back of the final WC spot that was claimed by Cincinnati.

JUST A BIT OUTSIDE...: 2025 marks the eighth time in the last nine years (since 2017) in which the Giants have missed the Postseason with the 107-win 2021 season being the outlier.

MANAGERIAL CHANGE: The day after the conclusion of the 2025 season, the Giants dismissed MGR Bob Melvin with one year remaining on his contract...he finished his two-year tenure as Giants manager with a record of 161-163.

THE FANS SHOWED OUT: The Giants welcomed 2,925,823 fans through the turnstiles at Oracle Park for an average of 36,121 fans per game...that number represented a 3,024 fans/per game increase over last season.

- The 36,121 average home attendance was seventh-best in the Majors and sixth-best in the National League.
- The last time the Giants drew more than 2,925,823 fans in a season was 2018 when SF drew 3,156,185 fans.
- SF finished the season with 28 sellouts at Oracle Park, its highest total in a season since selling out 50 games in 2017...the 28 sellouts were three more than the Dodgers (who led MLB in attendance at 4,012,470 fans) announced in 2025.

SHORT PEAKS, DEEP VALLEYS: The Giants' season was defined by a streakiness that lasted the entire season.

- SF shot out of the gate to an 8-1 record (their best start since 2003) and were 19-12 at the conclusion of April but would not record another winning month until September when they went 13-12 to finish the season.
- At the 70-game mark, the Giants were 41-29 following a 6-2 win at the Dodgers in LA on June 13 and were in a first-place tie with LA in the NL West...it was, unfortunately the second and final time that the Giants would be a season-best 12 games over .500.
- Over the club's next 59 games from June 14-August 22, the Giants were 20-39 (.339) and owned the worst record in the Majors in that span (the next closest were the White Sox at 22-36)...the .339 winning percentage was the worst 59-game stretch by an SF team since 2017 when it happened four different times.
- A frenetic surge over the season's final 33 games saw SF go 20-13 to get back to .500 but their playoff chances evaporated when they went 5-12 in the midst of that stretch from September 6-23.

A TWO-HEADED MONSTER: The Giants went a combined 7-19 against the Dodgers and Padres in 2025 and were 74-62 against everyone else they played.

- Overall the Giants were 40-45 (.471) against teams that were .500 or better in 2025 and 41-36 (.532) against teams there were under .500.

ON THE SHORES...: SF finished the year 42-39 at home thanks to a three-game sweep of the Rockies at the end of the season that capped off a 13-6 mark over the team's final 19 home games dating to mid-August.

- The Giants' needed the 13-6 stretch because they went 1-15 over a 16-game home stretch from July 12-August 16...that stretch was the worst 16-game stretch at home in Giants history since 1901.
- Furthermore, SF was 7-22 over a two-month span at home from June 17-August 16...as a team they slashed .215/.289.328 for a .617 OPS in that time while averaging 2.83 runs per game.

ROSTER CONTINUITY: The Giants used a total of 53 players, a few under the league average mark of 56.4...the 53 players used were tied for the ninth-fewest of any club and five fewer than last year's club used (58).

- The average age of SF's batters was 28.1 years, just slightly over league average of 27.9 year...as for the pitchers, SF's average age of 29.8 years was tied for ninth-oldest in MLB (league average was 29.2 years).

SHOWTIME: Six different players made their MLB debut for the Giants, a drastic decrease from a season ago (13).

- The six players to debut were IF Christian Koss (April 1), RHP Carson Seymour (June 29), LHP Carson Whisenhunt (July 28), OF Drew Gilbert (August 8), RHP Joel Peguero (August 21) and IF Bryce Eldridge (September 15).
- The six MLB debuts were tied for seventh-fewest in the Majors...Miami and the Athletics led the Majors with 15 players apiece who made their MLB debuts.

TEAM BATTING NOTES

THE OFFENSE: The Giants had a .697 OPS that ranked 22nd of 30 MLB clubs and 11th of 15 teams in the NL.

- SF was closer to the middle of the pack in terms of runs per game, averaging 4.35 runs/game...that mark was 17th of 30 clubs and 10th of 15 National League clubs.
- Heading into the final six weeks of the season, however, SF was averaging 4.02 runs/game, 25th out of 30 clubs and third-lowest in the NL.
- An offensive surge that began on August 23 helped improve SF's overall numbers for the season...from August 23 through the end of the year, the Giants' 5.64 runs/game was best in the Majors, their .750 OPS was seventh-best in MLB (fifth-best in the NL) and their 47 homers were also seventh-best.
- The barrage started before August 23 in the form of an 18-game streak with at least one homer from August 17-September 5, the longest streak in the SF-era (1958-pres.) and second-longest in franchise history behind a 19-game streak by the 1947 New York Giants.

Consecutive Games with at least 1 Home Run, Giants Franchise History

Team	Games	HRs	Team	Games	HRs
1947 NY Giants	19	33	1962 SF Giants	16	22
2025 SF Giants	18	38	1947 NY Giants	16	37
1963 SF Giants	16	30	Two Tied	15

RIGHTY TIGHTY, LEFTY LOOSEY: SF was 11 games over .500 (64-53) when facing a righty starter...when facing a lefty starter, SF was 11 games under .500 (17-28, .378).

- The club's .378 win % in games started by a lefthander was fourth-worst in MLB and third worst in the NL ahead of only the Rockies (8-34, .190) and Nationals (18-30, .375).
- The Giants had a .645 OPS versus left-handed starters, third-lowest in the Majors ahead of only the Nationals (.616) and Marlins (.637)...against left-handed pitching overall (including relievers), the Giants had a .631 OPS, worst in the Majors.

WE ♥ WALK-OFFS: The Giants once again logged 11 walkoff wins, tied for most in the NL with Milwaukee and tied for second-most in MLB behind the Red Sox (12).

- Since 2022, SF has 39 walkoff victories, most in MLB.

OPS BY POSITION, A BREAKDOWN: Below is a chart of the Giants OPS by position and in parentheses is where that OPS ranked in the Majors...the Giants ranked above league average in just four of the nine spots.

Giants OPS Broken Down by Position with MLB Rankings – 2025

Pos	OPS	MLB Rank	Pos	OPS	MLB Rank
C	.600	28th	LF	.736	15th
1B	.622	30th	CF	.734	11th
2B	.616	27th	RF	.631	27th
3B	.813	2nd	DH	.760	14th
SS	.727	14th

- The Giants' left side of the infield combined for a .769 OPS, fifth-best in the Majors and second in the NL to only the MLB-leading Diamondbacks left side (.822 combined OPS).
- That left side also clubbed a combined 57 homers, third in the Majors behind the D-Backs (61) and Mets (58)...the 168 RBI from SF's left side were sixth-most in the Majors (third-best in NL).
- Conversely, the right side of the infield combined for a .619 OPS, 29th in the Majors ahead of only the Rockies (.614)...the 29 homers were 24th of 30 clubs while the 137 RBI were 22nd-most.

RED LIGHT: The Giants finished with the fewest stolen bases in the NL and second-fewest in MLB...SF stole 68 bases, 14 fewer than the next closest NL team (Atlanta, 82)...only Detroit had fewer steals than SF (61).

- Over the last two seasons, the Giants combined to steal 136 bases, fewest in the Majors.
- SF attempted 92 steals, fewest in the NL and second-fewest in MLB ahead of only Detroit (77)...SF's 182 stolen base attempts since 2024 are lowest in the NL and second-lowest in MLB ahead of Detroit (177).

ON THE BASEPATHS..: The Giants made 50 outs on the bases (does not include pickoffs, force plays or caught stealings), eighth-most in MLB and sixth-most in the NL.

- In terms of taking the extra base, the Giants were successful 42% of the time, right about league average.

TEAM PITCHING NOTES

SALES PITCH: The Giants pitching staff finished the season with the 10th-best ERA in the Majors at 3.82 (sixth-best in the NL)...four of the five teams in the NL with a lower team ERA than the Giants made the playoffs (all except Pittsburgh).

- Giants hurlers had a 0.90 HR/9ip mark that was lowest in the Majors) and allowed 143 homers overall, fewest in MLB...SF pitchers had a 3.77 FIP, second-lowest of any group in MLB behind only the Phillies' 3.74 FIP.

START HERE: In terms of the starting pitchers, SF's 4.10 starter's ERA was 17th of 30 MLB clubs but slightly better than league average (4.21).

- The quartet of RHP Logan Webb, LHP Robbie Ray, RHP Justin Verlander and RHP Landen Roupp posted a solid 3.58 ERA (258er, 648.0ip) in 117 starts (58 quality starts) with a 1.30 WHIP...those four had a 9.01 K/9ip mark, a 3.00 K/BB ratio and they averaged 5.2 innings pitched per game.
- The other 11 pitchers to make starts for SF combined for a 5.86 ERA (123er, 189.0ip) with a 1.48 WHIP, 8.71 K/9ip, 2.18 K/BB ratio and averaged 4.2 innings pitched per game.
- Giants starters threw 837.0 innings, up from the 778.2 innings the unit threw a season ago...still, SF's 837.0 innings from starters was 17th of 30 clubs.

PENMANSHIP: Despite trading away key bullpen pieces at the deadline, the Giants finished the season with the fourth-best bullpen ERA in MLB (3.48)...they trailed only San Diego (3.06), Boston (3.41) and Cleveland (3.44).

- Through July 31 (the Trade Deadline), the Giants had the second-lowest bullpen ERA in MLB (3.22) behind only the Padres (2.97)...after the trades, SF's bullpen unit posted a 3.97 ERA, 13th of 30 MLB teams.
- The Giants bullpen wasn't a heavy-strikeout group, registering a 7.93 K/9ip ratio that was fourth-lowest of any bullpen group in MLB and second-lowest in the National League ahead of only Colorado (7.86)...the 526 strikeouts by the bullpen were the fewest by a Giants club in a full season since the 2017 bullpen struck out 458 batters.
- The unit's BB/9ip ratio was third-best among MLB bullpens at 3.11...only the Cubs (2.95) and Rays (3.08) were better.
- Over the final two months, however, SF's bullpen K/9ip ratio of 7.16 was lowest in MLB while their 3.06 BB/9ip ratio was seventh-best.
- SF's pen had a 65.1% save percentage that was tied for ninth-best in the Majors, converting on 41-of-63 save opportunities.

TEAM DEFENSE NOTES

BY TRADITIONAL METRICS: A defense that seemed crisp early finished with 95 errors, sixth-most in MLB but second-most in the NL behind only Colorado (110).

- SF's .984 fielding percentage was 24th of 30 MLB clubs and third-lowest in the National League ahead of only Washington (.984) and Colorado (.981).

BY OUTS ABOVE AVERAGE: The drop off defensively from a season ago also was reflected in Baseball Savant's Outs Above Average metric, which had SF at -23 in 2025, tied for 23rd of 30 clubs and third-worst in the NL.

- SF infielders combined for a -5 OAA, 17th of 30 teams, while their outfielders were last at -18 OAA.

BY DEFENSIVE RUNS SAVED: According to Fangraphs, SF finished the year +18 defensive runs saved, a dramatic increase from a season ago when they finished the year at -3...still, the Giants at +18 were 16th of 30 MLB teams.

- Most of this gain came from catcher (+17), pitcher (+9) and second base (+13)...it was brought down by a -21 DRS from SF's outfielders.

FROM THE SIS COMPUTERS: The Giants ranked 11th with 168 Good Fielding Plays in 2025 and had 301 defensive misplays & errors, the 10th most in MLB... last year, the Giants ranked 22nd in Good Fielding Plays with 144 and their 333 defensive misplays and errors were tied with the Mets for seventh-most.

BEHIND THE DISH: The Giants allowed 92 stolen bases, sixth fewest in the Majors and a vast improvement over a season ago (146, third-most).

- SF had nine passed balls, tied for ninth-most in the Majors but down from 15 passed balls in 2024.

INDIVIDUAL HITTER NOTES

WILLY THE KID: IF Willy Adames shook off a tough first two months and surged to became the first Giant to hit 30 homers in a season since Barry Bonds slugged 45 homers all the way back in 2004.

- The 2025 Willie Mac Award winner led the team in home runs (30), RBI (87), extra-base hits (54), walks (80), runs scored (94) and games played (160).
- By leading the team in homers, Adames became the first Giants shortstop to lead SF in homers since Brandon Crawford led the 2015 Giants with 21 homers.
- This was the third straight season he led his team in homers (he led Milwaukee in 2023 and 2024)...he's just the third shortstop since the end of World War II to lead his team in homers in three consecutive seasons...the other two are Ernie Banks (seven straight from 1955-61) and Alex Rodríguez (four straight from 2000-03; counts only his seasons primarily paying SS).
- Adames' 30 homers were tied for most among Major League shortstops with NYM's Francisco Lindor while his 87 RBI were third-most among MLB shortstops... since 2021, Adames' 142 homers and 447 RBI are most among Major League shortstops.

CALL RAFI!: IF/DH Rafael Devers settled into the orange and black nicely following the June 15 trade that brought him to the Bay Area from Boston.

- He slashed .236/.347/.460 with 15 doubles, 20 homers and 51 RBI in 90 games for SF...his 20 homers and 51 RBI were second-most on the team after June 17 (his first game with the club) behind Willy Adames' 22 homers and 55 RBI in that time...Devers' .807 OPS was also-second-best on the team from June 17 onward behind Adames' .835 OPS.
- The 28-year-old slugger picked up his fourth career Player of the Week award when he was named co-NL Player of the Week for the period from August 25-31... he slashed .478/.556/.957 (1.512 OPS) with nine runs, two doubles, three homers and 10 RBI in six games.

- The 28-year-old was one of five players in the Majors with 100+ RBI and 100+ walks...the other four were NYY's Aaron Judge, LAD's Shohei Ohtani, PHI's Kyle Schwarber and NYM's Juan Soto...Devers was the first of the five to eclipse both marks.
- With the mid-season trade, Devers was able to play in 163 games for Boston and SF, the first MLB player to do so since Justin Morneau in 2008 with the Twins.

OL' CHAP: IF Matt Chapman finished his second season in the orange and black with a .770 OPS, 21 homers and 61 RBI in 128 games...his 3.7 fWAR was second-best on the team behind Willy Adames (4.0 fWAR).

- He reached the 20-homer mark for the sixth time in his career with his 21-homer season...Chapman's 48 homers in his first two years as a Giant are tied with Johnny Mize for fourth-most by a player in his first two seasons with the club (Stats, LLC).
- Defensively he was worth +5 Defensive Runs Saved and +4 Outs Above Average at third base.

MORE HARDWARE COMING: C Patrick Bailey won his second straight Gold Glove award at catcher.

- The 26-year-old remained the most elite pitch framer in the Majors, being worth +25 framing runs, nine more than the TOR's Alejandro Kirk who finished the year at +16...14 of those 25 framing runs came on balls outside of the zone, five more than the next closest catcher...Bailey's 47.7 shadow strike % was also best in the Majors among full time catchers.
- Bailey's pop-time to second base remained quick at 1.86s, tied for quickest among ML catchers...his +8 catchers caught stealing above average mark was third-best in MLB behind NYM's Luis Torrens (+12) and BOS' Carlos Narváez (+9).
- His 30.7 caught stealing percentage was third-best in the NL for catchers (min. 85 games).
- He improved on his blocking, netting the year at +5 blocks above average after finishing last year at -1.

JHL DELIVERED: OF Jung Hoo Lee finished his first full MLB season with a career-best (KBO or MLB) 150 games.

- Lee became the fifth Giant in the SF-era with 30+ doubles and 10+ triples in a season.
- From July 1 through the end of the season, Lee batted .298 with 14 doubles, six triples, two homers, 21 RBI, 27 runs scored and a .773 OPS...Lee's 12 triples were third-most in MLB.

INDIVIDUAL PITCHER NOTES

WEBBMASTER: RHP Logan Webb racked up a second consecutive All-Star nod in 2025 and then became the first SF starter with a 200-inning, 200-strikeout season since LHP Madison Bumgarner (2019)...he was the first Giants righty to do it since Jeff Samardzija (2017).

- Webb again paced the National League in innings pitched for a third consecutive season while leading the Majors overall in innings for the second time in the last three seasons (also 2023).
- He also set a career-best with his 224 strikeouts, reaching the 200-strikeout mark for the first time in his career...see Webb's full NL rankings in various categories below.

Webb's rankings, National League, 2025

Stat	Metric (rank)	Stat	Metric (rank)
ERA	3.22 (8th)	fWAR	5.5 (3rd)
Innings Pitched	207.0 (1st)	Ground Ball Rate	54.2% (5th)
Strikeouts	224 (1st)	FIP	2.63 (3rd)

Wins	15 (T-2nd)	HR/9	0.61 (4th)
Games Started	34 (1st)	Quality Starts	22 (T-1st)

- Webb became the first Giant since Bill Voiselle for the 1944 New York Giants to lead the National League in both innings pitched and strikeouts.
- He is also the first pitcher to lead the NL in innings in three consecutive seasons since Liván Hernández did so for three straight years in 2003-2005.
- The 28-year-old now has three consecutive 200-inning seasons, the first Giant to do so since Bumgarner had six straight seasons from 2011-16.
- Since the start of the 2022 season, Webb has thrown the most innings in the Majors (820.0)....the next closest player is Houston's Framber Valdez (767.2).

In addition to his pitching success, Webb also won his first career Gold Glove, taking home the honor for National League pitchers.

He is the second pitcher in franchise history to take home the award, joining Rick Reuschel who won in 1987.

Webb's seven defensive runs saved as a pitcher were second-most in MLB behind NYY's Max Fried (10) and were a drastic improvement from his 2019-24 seasons, when he was worth a cumulative -4 DRS. Additionally, his +5 Net Bases Prevented were tied for 13th-best in the Majors per Baseball Savant.

RAYGUN: LHP Robbie Ray had a resurgent return to form in 2025 that garnered him his second career All-Star nod...the 33-year-old made 32 starts, tied for the second-highest total of his career and most since his 2022 season in Seattle.

- Ray finished among the National League leaders in ERA (3.65, 10th), innings (182.1, 6th), quality starts (16, T-10th), and strikeouts (186, 11th).
- SF went 22-10 (.688) in Ray's 32 starts, tied for the third-best win percentage in a pitcher's starts by any team with NYY's Max Fried...only the Phillies in Cristopher Sánchez's starts (23-9, .719) and the Red Sox in Garrett Crochet's outings (23-9, .719) fared better.

JUST IN TIME: RHP Justin Verlander finished off the season as one of the Giants most reliable starters down the stretch...the 42-year-old logged a 2.60 ERA (21er, 72.2ip) with 70 strikeouts and a .228 opponent's average against over his final 13 starts of the season...SF went 6-7 in those 13 games, however, and Verlander himself was credited with a win only four times.

- Verlander allowed two earned runs or fewer in 10 of those final 13 starts...his 2.60 ERA from July 23 to the end of the season was fourth-best in the National Leauge (min. 60.0ip) behind only PIT's Paul Skenes (2.08), LAD's Yoshinobu Yamamoto (2.10) and MIL's Freddy Peralta (2.40).
- He ended up with only four total wins in 2025, increasing his career total to 266, which is tied with Bob Feller and Eppa Rixey for 34th-most all-time.
- He struck out 137 batters to give him 3,553 strikeouts in his illustrious career...he's now eighth on the all-time strikeout list just behind Don Sutton (3,574).

A STAR IS BORN?: RHP Randy Rodríguez received his first All-Star nod after a stellar first half campaign that saw him go 3-1-1 with a minuscule 0.86 ERA in 41 appearances...he struck out 55 batters in 41.2 innings in the unofficial first half and was one of three Giants to represent the club in Atlanta.

- The 26-year-old was the first Giants reliever that was a non-closer to make an All-Star team.
- Unfortunately for Rodríguez after being moved into the closer's role with the trading of Camilo Doval it was revealed in late August that he'd need Tommy John surgery to reconstruct the UCL in his right elbow.
- He underwent successful UCL reconstructive surgery on September 24 in Dallas, TX...Dr. Keith Meister performed the surgery...Rodríguez is expected to miss all of next season with his recovery time being listed as 12-14 months.

Giants Rainouts

Since moving to San Francisco in 1958, the Giants have had just 33 home games rained out, including six at Oracle Park. During one stretch, the team went 454 games (from April 10, 1976 through Oct. 2, 1981) without a cancellation. Oracle Park has the second-fewest rainouts among open-air stadiums (Petco Park has two). Here is a breakdown of the Giants' San Francisco rainouts:

Retired Uniform Numbers

In the storied history of Giants baseball, 14 former players or managers have enjoyed careers worthy of their jersey numbers being retired by the club. Only the New York Yankees (23) have retired more numbers. The 13 Giant greats are honored at Oracle Park with their names and retired uniform numbers displayed along the left field suite level facade.

Christy Mathewson and John McGraw, who both predated the use of numbers on jerseys, are recognized along with fellow New York Giants Bill Terry (#3), Mel Ott (#4), Carl Hubbell (#11) and Monte Irvin (#20). Willie Mays (#24), who played for the club on both coasts, leads former San Francisco stars Jeff Kent (#21), Will Clark (#22), Barry Bonds (#25), Juan Marichal (#27), Orlando Cepeda (#30), Gaylord Perry (#36) and Willie McCovey (#44) in this select group.

The Giants also honor Jackie Robinson, whose uniform number (42) was retired throughout Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of his arrival in the big leagues.

In 2004, the Giants commemorated two of baseball's greatest broadcasters with disks honoring Russ Hodges and Lon Simmons.

The Giants recognize the following individuals, who have been honored by the National Baseball Hall of Fame for their contributions to the game: Lindsey Nelson (Ford C. Frick Award, 1988), Leonard Koppett (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 1992), Bob Stevens (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 1998), Nick Peters (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 2009) and Jon Miller (Ford C. Frick Award, 2010).

Russ Hodges

BROADCASTER

HOF Honoree: 1980

"Voice of Giants" for 21-year run that spanned both coasts...began in New York Giants' radio booth in 1949, followed club west in 1958, and broadcast San Francisco Giants games through 1970... author of most famous call in franchise annals, and perhaps in baseball history, with his "Giants Win the Pennant!" description of Bobby Thomson's playoff-winning homer against Brooklyn Dodgers Oct. 3, 1951...his "Bye-Bye Baby" call became synonymous with Giants home runs...Ford C. Frick Award winner entered Hall of Fame in 1980.

Lindsey Nelson

BROADCASTER

HOF Honoree: 1988

Nelson spent three seasons on the airwaves with the Giants from 1979-1981 after spending 17 seasons working in the New York Mets radio booth from 1962-1978...was nicknamed "Mr. New Year's Day" for calling the play-by-play of the Cotton Bowl Classic for 26 seasons on CBS...Nelson also called many Army-Navy games and was also the first announcer during the first NFL game on CBS that used instant replay where he had to remind viewers the programming wasn't live...was the Ford C. Frick Award winner in 1988.

Lon Simmons

BROADCASTER

HOF Honoree: 2004

One of original voices of San Francisco Giants, teaming with fellow Hall-of-Famer Russ Hodges to form arguably finest broadcast team in sports history...brought trademark "Tell It Goodbye" home run call to Giants broadcast booth for 23 years over three different stints (1958-'73, '76-'78 and '96-2002)...is only man to broadcast debuts for each of club's three San Francisco ballparks–Seals Stadium in 1958, Candlestick Park in 1960 and Oracle Park in 2000...beloved for his wit and charm, Bay Area legend was inducted into Hall of Fame in 2004 as 29th winner of Ford C. Frick Award.

Jon Miller

BROADCASTER

HOF Honoree: 2010

Miller, who has gained accolades for his attention to detail and his intellect, has spent four decades calling Major League Baseball games for the A's, Rangers, Red Sox, Orioles and his current team the Giants...was voice of ESPN's national Sunday Night Baseball telecasts for 21 years... broadcast 13 straight World Series on ESPN Radio and 16 overall...his energy, preparation and thoroughness has helped bring game to life in homes and hearts of so many listeners...Miller was honored as 35th Ford C. Frick Award recipient during Hall of Fame Weekend 2010.

Al Michaels

BROADCASTER

HOF Honoree: 2021

Al Michaels, whose passionate and authoritative voice was the nationwide soundtrack of the game for more than a decade, was the lead announcer for the Cincinnati Reds in 1971 and then the San Francisco Giants in 1974. Michaels joined ABC Sports in 1976, the beginning of a 30-year tenure with the network. He became lead announcer of Monday Night Baseball in 1983 while calling an array of other sports, including nearly two decades of Monday Night Football and calling the Miracle on Ice at the 1980 Winter Olympics. Michaels becomes the 45th winner of the Frick Award.

Giants Wall of Fame

On September 23, 2008, the San Francisco Giants unveiled the team's Wall of Fame, which serves as a living tribute to the organization's greatest players and executives. It recognizes retired players whose records stand highest among their teammates on the basis of longevity and achievements. Those honored have played a minimum of nine seasons for the San Francisco Giants, or five seasons with at least one All-Star selection as a Giant.

60 Giants legends have plaques on the wall in honor of their achievements. Bronze plaques honoring these players and their baseball contributions line the wall of Oracle Park along King Street for all baseball fans to enjoy. As present and future generations of Giants players or executives meet the criteria, plaques celebrating their careers will join the Wall of Fame upon their retirement.

GIANTS POSTSEASON APPEARANCES

The Giants' 27 postseason appearances (since 1900) are the sixth-most all-time behind the New York Yankees (60), Brooklyn/Los Angeles Dodgers (39), St. Louis Cardinals (32), Boston/Milwaukee (31), Atlanta Braves/Philadelphia (30) and Kansas City/Oakland Athletics (29).

The Giants' eight championships are the sixth-most in Major League history. Only the Yankees (27), Cardinals (11), Dodgers (9), Red Sox (9) and Athletics (9) have more.

The Giants are one of five major American professional sports franchise in this century (2000-present) with three titles during a five-year span. The others are the New England Patriots (2001, 2003, 2004, 2015, 2017, 2019), Kansas City Chiefs (2020, 2023, 2024), Los Angeles Lakers (2000, 2001, 2002) and San Antonio Spurs (2003, 2005, 2007).

National League Wild Card

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PITTSBURGH PIRATES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 1 GAME TO 0)

The Giants defeated the Pirates, 8-0, in the National League Wild Card game backed by the arm of Madison Bumgarner and the bat of Brandon Crawford. Bumgarner threw a four-hitter while striking out 10 batters and Crawford hit a grand slam in the 4th inning off Edinson Volquez, sending the Giants from a winner-take-all wild-card game to a National League Division Series matchup with the Washington Nationals.

With the bases loaded in the 4th inning and nobody out in a scoreless game, Crawford turned on Volquez's hanging breaking ball and sent it to right field, landing a few rows deep and giving the Giants a 4-0 lead while silencing a PNC Park crowd of 40,629. Crawford became the first shortstop to hit a grand slam in postseason history and he joined Chuck Hiller (1962 World Series), Will Clark (1989 National League Championship Series) and Buster Posey (2012 NLDS) as the only Giants to hit a grand slam in postseason play.

Bumgarner, meanwhile, dominated one of the NL's best lineups, walking one and allowing just four singles on 109 pitches, 79 for strikes. Moments after finishing his shut-out, Bumgarner found himself surrounded by teammates in the middle of the diamond celebrating a playoff victory.

2016 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK METS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 1 GAME TO 0)

A game billed as a matchup between two of the Majors' most dominant pitchers proved exactly that as Noah Syndergaard and Madison Bumgarner matched zeroes for the first 7.0 innings. Syndergaard held the Giants hitless through 5.2 innings until a Denard Span single ended the no-hit bid. Bumgarner went the distance, scattering just four hits and two walks to go with six strikeouts.

With Mets closer Jeurys Familia on the mound and the game still locked in a scoreless tie in the top of the 9th, Brandon Crawford ripped a double to left-center on one of the few hard-hit balls of the night. Familia struck out Angel Pagan, then walked Joe Panik.

Next up was Conor Gillaspie, who crushed a three-run homer that accounted for all the game's runs. Gillaspie became the third player in Major League history whose first career postseason home run was a go-ahead homer in the 9th inning or later in a winner-take-all game.

Meanwhile, Bumgarner became the first pitcher in baseball history with multiple postseason winner-take-all complete game shutouts.

National League Division Series

1997 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. FLORIDA MARLINS

(MARLINS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 0)

San Francisco won its first National League West title since 1989 to become only the fourth team during the 20th century to win its division after finishing in last place the previous season.

The Giants outdueled the Dodgers in a classic pennant race for the N.L. West flag. Perhaps the crowning moment of San Francisco's magical ride came Sept. 18 when catcher Brian Johnson led off the 12th inning with a game-winning clout off Los Angeles' Mark Guthrie to put the Giants in a first place tie with nine games remaining.

New General Manager Brian Sabean revamped the Giants roster, bringing in 15 players who were not in the organization at the end of the 1996 campaign. He shocked the baseball world by acquiring All-Star pitchers Wilson Alvarez and Roberto Hernandez and 18-year Major League veteran pitcher Danny Darwin from the Chicago White Sox in exchange for six minor leaguers at the July 31 trading deadline.

The renewed Giants made their first postseason appearance in eight years when they faced the National League Wild Card entry Florida Marlins in the Division Series. Despite losing all three games of the series, San Francisco gave Florida its toughest test en route to its first World Championship.

Both Games #1 and #2 came down to the last at-bat, with Florida taking advantage of being the home club and posting 2-1 and 7-6 victories, respectively.

Despite two solo home runs by Giants' second baseman Jeff Kent in Game #3, the Marlins finished off the sweep on the strength of Devon White's 6th inning grand slam off Alvarez.

2000 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK METS

(METS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

San Francisco won its second National League West title in four years as the club posted a Major League-best 97-65 mark, only to see its October run stopped short by the Wild Card New York Mets, a club that would eventually win the NL flag.

The Giants enjoyed a truly magical regular season, its first in its new jewel of a home, Pacific Bell Park. Playing in front of 81 straight sellouts that accounted for a franchise-record 3,244,320 fans, San Francisco rattled off a 55-26 ledger, matching the Mets for the best home mark in the majors.

Dusty Baker won his third NL Manager of the Year award after guiding his troops to a Major League-best 51-26 record after the All-Star Break, resulting in an 11-game cushion, the Giants' largest winning margin since 1913.

San Francisco produced its most prolific offensive attack in 70 years, led by National League Most Valuable Player Jeff Kent. Teammate Barry Bonds, who finished second in the MVP voting, clubbed 49 home runs.

The Giants jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the NLDS with a 5-1 victory in front of a raucous Game #1 crowd at Pacific Bell Park. Livan Hernandez held New York to one run over 7.2 innings while Ellis Burks clubbed a three-run, 3rd-inning homer off the left field foul pole.

J.T. Snow's dramatic three-run, pinch-hit homer in the bottom of the 9th tied Game #2 4-4, but the Mets would rally to win 5-4 in 10 innings and even the series at a game apiece.

Unfortunately for San Francisco, its offense went south when the club went east, as the Giants could manage only two runs in 22 innings at Shea Stadium. New York's Benny Agbayani gave the Mets a 3-2 victory in Game #3 with a 13th inning solo home run, and Bobby Jones hurled a one-hit shutout for a 4-0 win in the Game #4 clincher.

2002 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ATLANTA BRAVES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 2)

Following a 3-0 loss at Florida on August 18, a stagnant San Francisco club stood at 66-56, four games behind Los Angeles in the NL Wild Card chase. From then on, the Giants would play like champions, going 29-10 down the stretch to capture the league's fourth playoff spot by three and a half contests over the Dodgers.

Despite a 95-win campaign that tied for the fourth-most victories in San Francisco history, the Giants entered the NLDS as heavy underdogs to the Atlanta Braves, who captured their 11th-consecutive division crown by an astounding 19.0-game margin.

Undaunted by their opponents and buoyed by the right arm of starter Russ Ortiz, the Giants stormed into Turner Field and won the series opener by an 8-5 count as Rich Aurilia, Benito Santiago and J.T. Snow all collected two RBI apiece.

Yet, the hope of Game #1 quickly turned into despair, as Atlanta backed the stout pitching of Kevin Millwood and Greg Maddux, respectively, with 17 combined runs in a pair of routs to take a 2-1 series lead.

Facing the prospect of a long winter, San Francisco turned to past playoff hero Livan Hernandez to work his magic once again in Game #4 at Pacific Bell Park. The big right-hander responded by hurling 8.1-strong innings, while Aurilia finished 3-for-4 with a homer and four RBI as the Giants won 8-3 to force a return trip to Atlanta.

In the decisive Game #5, Barry Bonds exorcised his demons of postseasons past, singling and scoring the Giants' first run in the 2nd and clubbing an opposite-field, solo homer in the 4th that gave SF a 2-0 lead. Ortiz became the first Giants pitcher to win two games in the same postseason series since Carl Hubbell went 2-0 in the 1933 World Series, yet San Francisco's 3-1 victory was in doubt until the end. With two men on and none out in the 9th, closer Robb Nen struck out Gary Sheffield then induced Chipper Jones to ground into a series-ending double play.

2003 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. FLORIDA MARLINS

(MARLINS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

For the first time since 1936-37, the Giants earned consecutive appearances in postseason play, as the club won its third National League West title in seven years and became only the second team in franchise history to go wire-to-wire with an overall finish of 100-61.

A flurry of offseason moves brought new faces to San Francisco as the team introduced first-year manager Felipe Alou and four new starters to the lineup. The revamped club breezed by their opposition, ending their campaign 15.5 games ahead of the Dodgers for the Giants' largest advantage in 91 years.

General Manager Brian Sabean garnered Executive of the Year accolades for constructing the team with the third best record in baseball and Barry Bonds earned his unprecedented sixth National League Most Valuable Player Award.

Headed into Game #1 of the NLDS rested and primed for success, pitching ace Jason Schmidt thrived in the intense atmosphere at SBC Park, tossing a complete-game three-hitter as the Giants blanked the visiting Marlins 2-0.

A sudden turn of events plagued the Giants in Game #2, as San Francisco saw their 4-1 lead quickly vanish as Gold Glovers made costly miscues and the Marlins escaped SBC Park with a 9-5 win.

Knotted up at 1-1, both teams headed to South Florida, but the Giants' run of bad luck seemed to follow. After taking a 3-2 advantage in the 11th inning of Game #3, SF let the Marlins slip back into the contest after a dropped fly ball by Jose Cruz, Jr. allowed the tying run on base. With two out, the bases loaded and a 1-2 count on Ivan Rodriguez, Tim Worrell's next pitch was drilled into right field for a game-winning, two-run single.

In Game #4, San Francisco's furious comeback in the 9th fell short as J.T. Snow was thrown out at the plate on Jeffrey Hammonds' two-out single to left, giving the Marlins a 7-6 victory and ending the Giants' hopes for another playoff run.

2010 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ATLANTA BRAVES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

After clinching the 2010 NL West Crown in the final game of the regular season, the Giants entered the NL Division Series at home vs. the Atlanta Braves. In order to get there, Giants' General Manager Brian Sabean had built a pitching staff that led the Majors in ERA with a 3.36 figure, while also revamping his offense throughout the season by acquiring difference-making outfielders Pat Burrell and Cody Ross as well as bringing up eventual 2010 NL Rookie of the Year Buster Posey from the minor leagues in late May.

San Francisco made a push for the 2010 NL West title on August 27. Entering that day, SF was 6.0 games back of the San Diego Padres, however the Giants were red hot in the season's final month, posting an 18-8 record, which was the second-best winning percentage in baseball.

The Giants would win the NLDS over the Braves 3-games-to-1 behind their stalwart pitching as all four games in the series were decided by a one-run margin, which marked the first time in postseason history in which every game was decided by one run. The pitching staff posted a 1.66 ERA as Tim Lincecum was dominant in his postseason debut, tossing a two-hit, 14-strikeout shutout during the Giants' 1-0 win in Game #1.

San Francisco lost Game #2 as the Braves' Rick Ankiel hit a splash hit home run in the top of the 11th frame to help Atlanta pull ahead 5-4.

The next two games were won in dramatic fashion as SF rallied past the Braves 3-2 in Game #3, thanks in part to three fielding errors by Atlanta second baseman Brooks Conrad.

Madison Bumgarner came up aces in Game #4 as he held Atlanta to two runs in 6.0 innings in his postseason debut.

However, it was Cody Ross who played hero in the clinching game as he homered in the 6th inning to break up Derek Lowe's no-hit bid, while also driving in the go-ahead run in the 7th inning as SF won 3-2 and clinched their first division series since 2002.

2012 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. CINCINNATI REDS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 2)

The 2012 edition of the Giants won the division title despite crushing injuries and unexpected slumps. All-Star closer Brian Wilson was lost for the year after a second Tommy John surgery, Freddy Sanchez never returned after battling back and shoulder issues, Melky Cabrera, acquired in the offseason, was lost in mid-August after testing positive for testosterone and two-time Cy Young award winner Tim Lincecum was having the worst season of his career.

Meanwhile, the Dodgers, with an influx of cash, shook the baseball world with a nine player trade with the Red Sox, centered around slugger Adrian Gonzalez going back to the West Coast.

However, All-Star catcher and 2012 MVP Buster Posey, along with mid-season acquisitions Marco Scutaro and Hunter Pence, ignited the Giants and after trailing the Dodgers by 7.5 games as late as May 28, they slowly chipped away and ended up winning the West by a whopping 8.0 games, their second division title in the last three seasons.

Their first round opponent in the playoffs, the Cincinnati Reds, led by Joey Votto and Brandon Phillips, stormed into San Francisco and took the first two games from the Giants, winning by scores of 5-2 and 9-0.

Facing the daunting task of being down 2-0 in the best-of-five division series, the Giants now had to win three consecutive games on the road, something that had never been accomplished in postseason baseball history.

With all the local and national media counting the Giants out, Pence stood up and fired up his teammates with a football-like huddle and rallying speech in the dugout prior to Game #3, a game in which SF won 2-1, avoiding a sweep.

In Game #4, Angel Pagan hit the first leadoff home run in Giants' postseason history, and Gregor Blanco and Pablo Sandoval connected later for an 8-3 victory that evened the series at 2-2.

Not just any comeback would get SF back to playing for a pennant. It would take one of Giant proportions and Posey helped make it happen as he hit the third grand slam in Giants' postseason history and San Francisco pulled off an unprecedented revival, moving to the LCS with a 6-4 victory over the Reds in the deciding Game #5.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. WASHINGTON NATIONALS
(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

San Francisco defeated the heavily favored Washington Nationals, three-games-to-one in the National League Division Series.

Jake Peavy pitched no-hit ball for 4.0 innings and didn't allow a run in his 5.2-inning outing in Game #1. Hunter Strickland bailed Peavy out of a bases-loaded jam in the 6th by striking out Ian Desmond. Bryce Harper and Asdrubal Cabrera each hit solo homers off Strickland in the 7th as the Nationals cut a 3-0 deficit to 3-2. Sergio Romo worked out of a jam in the 8th and Santiago Casilla retired all three hitters in the 9th for the save.

What became the longest-ever postseason game in terms of time (6:23) and tied for the longest in terms of innings had seemed headed for a conclusion in the 9th in Game #2. Washington's Jordan Zimmermann had a 1-0 lead, was working on a three-hitter and had retired 20 consecutive batters before walking Joe Panik with two outs in the final frame. Manager Matt Williams then brought in Drew Storen to face Buster Posey, who hit a first-pitch single, and then Pablo Sandoval tied the game by slicing a double into the left-field corner to bring home Panik. The Nats' relay was just in time to cut down Posey at the plate. The game soon spun into extra innings. Yusmeiro Petit threw 6.0-shutout innings, during which he allowed one hit and struck out seven. Leading off the 18th, Brandon Belt drove a Tanner Roark pitch over the right-field wall to put the Giants in front. Strickland preserved the edge in the bottom of the inning to pick up the save.

The Giants' 10-game postseason winning streak ended with an error in Game #3. Madison Bumgarner and Doug Fister were locked in a scoreless matchup in the 7th before the San Francisco ace inaccurately threw to 3rd after fielding Wilson Ramos' sacrifice bunt. Two runs scored on the errant throw.

A bases-loaded walk to Gregor Blanco and an RBI groundout by Panik gave the Giants a 2-0 lead in the second inning of Game #4. Hunter Pence made one of the Giants' top defensive plays of the postseason in the 6th when he banged into the right-field wall as he tracked down Jayson Werth's drive. However, Bryce Harper homered off Strickland in the following inning to tie the game at 2-2. The Giants regained the lead for good in the bottom of the inning on Aaron Barrett's wild pitch on which Panik came home. With two outs and the bases empty in the 9th, Casilla walked Harper before getting Wilson Ramos on a grounder to Panik at second. The Giants soon would spray champagne and prepare to meet the Cardinals in the NLCS.

2016 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. CHICAGO CUBS
(CUBS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

The heavily favored Cubs defeated the Giants three-games-to-one in the best-of-five division series. Jon Lester outdueled Johnny Cueto in Game #1, a 1-0 Giants loss. Both Lester and Cueto logged 8.0 innings each, with the difference, a solo home run off the bat of Javier Baez in the 8th inning off Cueto making the Cubs Game #1 winners.

Game #2 pitted Jeff Samardzija against Kyle Hendricks and both starters lasted less than four innings, with Hendricks being removed due to injury and Samardzija getting roughed up for four runs on six hits in just 2.0 innings of work. Cubs relief pitcher Travis Wood homered off George Kontos and the Giants could not overcome an early 4-0 deficit as they dropped a 5-2 decision to go down 0-2 in the series.

The Giants needed a win in Game #3 or they would find themselves packing their bags for the offseason. It took 13.0 innings, but the Giants outlasted the Cubs by a 6-5 score to get into the win column. The Giants rallied for three runs off LHP Aroldis Chapman in the 8th to go ahead 5-3, then the Cubs stormed back to tie the score at 5-5 in the 9th. Four innings later, Brandon Crawford led off the 13th with a double and Joe Panik followed with a double off the right field wall, giving San Francisco the walk-off win.

Game #4 will leave a sour taste in Giants' fans mouths for a while as the team led 5-2 in the 9th and were just three outs away from pushing the series back to Chicago for a deciding fifth and final game. However, the Giants' bullpen, a problem for SF the latter part of the season, unraveled by giving up four runs on four hits and an error in the final frame to allow the Cubs to take a 6-5 victory.

Giants starter Matt Moore had one of his best starts of the year, allowing just two runs on two hits with 10 strikeouts in 8.0 innings of work.

2021 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. LOS ANGELES DODGERS

(DODGERS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 2)

The 2021 NL West Champion Giants concluded their 139th regular season of play by winning their sixth NL West title and first since 2012, beating the Dodgers by just 1.0 game in the division with an overall record of 107-55, the Giants' best record in franchise history.

The Giants and Dodgers matched up in the Division Series, the first time these teams faced one another in the postseason. It was the first-ever postseason meeting that two teams played one another after winning at least 105 games in the regular season (LA won 106 games).

Game #1 pitted Logan Webb against Walker Buehler, with Webb outdueling the Dodgers ace by pitching 7.2-scoreless innings with 10 strikeouts. Webb became the fourth Giant to strike out double-digit batters in his first career postseason game and was the only one of the four to not allow a walk in the Giants 4-0 victory

The Dodgers dominated Game #2 by winning 9-2, scoring seven of the nine runs in the final four innings.

Game #3 was a matchup between former Dodger Alex Wood and Max Scherzer. Evan Longoria provided the game's only run in the 5th inning by hitting a solo homer and the Giants took a two games to one series lead. It marked the Giants' 100th career postseason win and their 27th postseason shutout all-time.

Anthony DeSclafani, making his postseason debut, lasted just 1.2 innings, allowing two runs on five hits in his Game #4 start as the Giants dropped the fourth game by a 7-2 count. Mookie Betts led the Dodgers with three RBI.

In the fifth and final game of the series on October 14 at Oracle Park, the Dodgers and Giants were tied at 1-1 heading into the 9th inning before LA took a 2-1 lead on a Cody Bellinger RBI single. That was all LA needed as Max Scherzer closed out the victory to advance the Dodgers to the NLCS.

National League Championship Series

(PIRATES WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

After winning its first National League West crown, San Francisco entered the National League Championship Series as the favorite against Eastern Division titlists Pittsburgh. The Giants had posted nine wins in 12 contests vs. the Pirates during the regular season.

However, the Giants ran into the hot hitting of Pirates' first baseman Bob Robertson, who clubbed four home runs to lead Pittsburgh to a three games-to-one series victory.

Since staff ace Juan Marichal pitched San Francisco to the NL West flag in its season finale at San Diego, future Hall of Famer Gaylord Perry got the call in Game #1. The right-hander scattered four runs (three earned) and nine hits over his complete game effort as Willie McCovey and Tito Fuentes each delivered two-run home runs in the fourth inning to power SF to a 5-4 victory.

Then Robertson took over. He clubbed a NLCS record three home runs in Game #2 to lead the Pirates to a 9-4 triumph. The first baseman finished 4-for-4 with four runs scored and five RBI as Pittsburgh's victory ended a six-game losing streak at Candlestick Park.

Marichal pitched a four-hitter when the playoffs shifted to Three Rivers Stadium for Game #3, but home runs by Robertson and Richie Hebner gave the Pirates a 2-1 victory behind Bob Johnson and Dave Guisti. The Bucs advanced to the World Series when they tattooed Perry for seven runs and 10 hits over 5.2 innings in the fourth and final game of the series.

1987 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(CARDINALS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

The Giants became only the fourth team in Major League history since 1900 to finish first within two years of a 100-loss disaster. SF rattled off a 90-72 mark to win the 1987 National League West crown after going 62-100 in 1985.

San Francisco battled back from a five-game deficit on Aug. 7 and went 37-17 the rest of the way to capture its first NL West title in 16 years.

Jeffrey Leonard, whose "one-flap-down" home run trot was the story of the series, became the first player on a losing team to capture the NLCS MVP honor when he hit .417 with four home runs and five RBI despite the Giants falling to the Cardinals in seven games. San Francisco split the first two games of the series in St. Louis, with Dave Dravecky, who was acquired from the San Diego Padres in a seven-player deal on July 4, shutting out the Cardinals on two hits in Game #2. When the series moved to Candlestick Park, the Giants took a 4-0, fifth-inning advantage in Game #3 but the Cardinals roared back to post a 6-5 victory and take a 2-1 lead in the series.

Leonard responded by crushing a two-run clout in the fifth inning of the fourth game to push San Francisco to a series-evening 4-2 triumph. His four homers in four games tied the Championship Series record for a league playoff of any duration.

The Giants took a three games-to-two series advantage back to St. Louis after posting a 6-3 victory in the fifth contest. However, San Francisco didn't score a run in either of the last two games.

1989 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. CHICAGO CUBS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

Will Clark carried the Giants to their first NL pennant in 27 years when San Francisco defeated the Chicago Cubs in five games.

Clark provided offensive bookends in the series, starting with six RBI in the opener and ending with a two-out, bases-loaded, series-winning two-run single in the eighth inning of Game #5. "Will the Thrill" established new NLCS standards for average (.650), hits (13), runs (eight), total bases (24) and slugging percentage (1.200).

Included in those opening-game six RBI for Clark was his fourth-inning grand slam off Cubs' starter Greg Maddux, which gave San Francisco an 8-3 lead. The Giants' first baseman finished the contest 4-for-4 with four runs scored, a double and two home runs.

The Cubs claimed victory in Game #2, so the series headed to San Francisco tied a game apiece. However, Robby Thompson clubbed a two-run, 7th-inning homer off Les Lancaster to give the Giants a 5-4 victory in the third game.

In one of the most intense at-bats in Giants' postseason history in Game #4, Matt Williams locked up with lefty Steve Wilson in a 12-pitch plate appearance that resulted in a two-run blast which propelled San Francisco to a 6-4 victory.

As broadcaster Hank Greenwald said, "27 years of waiting have come to an end" when the Giants posted a 3-2 come-from-behind victory in Game #5. Clark once again delivered the game-winner, a two-run single up the spine of the infield off Mitch "Wild Thing" Williams.

2002 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

Following a furious late-season run to capture the Wild Card berth and a stirring five-game NLDS victory over Atlanta, the Giants provided the only truly fitting encore—they won the club's first NL pennant in 13 years by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals in a scintillating and highly competitive five-contest NLCS.

San Francisco began its run to the Fall Classic by winning each of the first two contests in St. Louis. The Giants pounded Cardinals ace Matt Morris early and often en route to a 9-6 victory in Game #1, while Jason Schmidt turned in a dominating Game #2 performance. The right-hander struck out eight and carried a shutout into the eighth inning, while Rich Aurilia's two-homer, three-RBI effort spurred a 4-1 triumph.

Despite Barry Bonds' dramatic three-run, fifth-inning homer into McCovey Cove that briefly tied Game #3 at Pacific Bell Park, a solo clout by St. Louis' Eli Marrero and stingy pitching by the Cardinal bullpen gave the visitors a 5-4 win and renewed hope.

St. Louis jumped out to a 2-0, 1st-inning lead in Game #4 and appeared on its way to evening the series until a pair of Giants veterans turned the tide. In the 6th, J.T. Snow delivered a two-out, two-run double that knotted the contest. Following a two-out intentional walk to Bonds in the eighth, Benito Santiago cemented his series MVP honors by clubbing a full-count offering from Rick White into the left field bleachers for a 4-2 lead. Robb Nen struck out the final two hitters in the 9th to strand the tying run at third and close out a 4-3 SF victory.

Giants' lefty Kirk Rueter and Morris engaged in a classic October pitchers' duel in a Game #5 that was scoreless until St. Louis broke through with a run in the 7th. Bonds tied the contest 1-1 with an eighth-inning sacrifice fly, thus setting the stage for one of the most dramatic moments in San Francisco history.

Morris retired the first two Giants hitters in the bottom of the 9th inning, but was chased by consecutive singles from David Bell and Shawon Dunston. St. Louis turned to reliever Steve Kline, and Kenny Lofton greeted the southpaw by lining his first pitch into right-center field for a single that scored a sliding Bell as the jubilant NL champion Giants poured onto the field.

David Bell slides into home plate on a single from Kenny Lofton as the series-clinching run as the Giants clinched the National League pennant to advance to the World Series for the first time since 1989.

2010 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The Giants again relied upon the strength of their pitching in the League Championship Series as they went on to win the best-of-seven LCS from the Phillies to clinch their 18th National League Pennant and fourth while in San Francisco.

Tim Lincecum outdueled Roy Halladay in Game #1 as Cody Ross hit a pair of solo home runs off of the eventual 2010 NL Cy Young award winner to help the Giants defeat the Phillies 4-3 in the opener.

Game #2 did not go as scripted for San Francisco as the Phillies' Roy Oswalt allowed just one run in 8.0 innings and Jimmy Rollins drove in four runs as the Phillies won 6-1. Ross was the lone bright spot for Giants' offense as he connected for his third home run of the series, which tied the game at one apiece in the 5th inning.

San Francisco grabbed a 2-1 edge in Game #3 with a 3-0 shutout behind Matt Cain, who stymied the Phillies in 7.0 innings, allowing just two hits. The Giants scored in the 4th as once again it was Ross who delivered a run-scoring single, which helped cement his status as the NLCS MVP.

Juan Uribe delivered a walk-off sacrifice fly off Roy Oswalt with one out in the 9th inning as SF took Game #4 by a 6-5 count. Buster Posey also contributed offensively going 4-for-4 and becoming the first rookie in the San Francisco era and second in club history to record four hits in a postseason game.

The Giants entered Game #5 just one win away from clinching their 18th NL Pennant and had their ace on the mound with Lincecum. However, the Phillies countered with Roy Halladay, who was pitching with an injured right groin. The injury did not deter him as the Phillies won 4-2, which sent the series back to Philadelphia.

Early during Game #6 it appeared as if the series would go to seven games, as Giants' starter Jonathan Sanchez worked just 2.0 innings, allowing a pair of runs. However, the bullpen was stellar, combining for 7.0-scoreless innings to keep the Giants in the game. Juan Uribe hit an opposite-field home run that barely cleared the right-field wall in the 8th inning, sending the Giants' dugout into a frenzy. Brian Wilson was called upon after Lincecum, and, allowed consecutive one-out singles in the 8th. Wilson got Carlos Ruiz to lineout into a double-play to escape the frame. The Giants' closer then made things interesting in the 9th, issuing walks to Jimmy Rollins and Chase Utley, before striking out Ryan Howard looking to end the game.

2012 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

After a historic win over the Cincinnati Reds in the Division Series, the Giants faced the St. Louis Cardinals in the League Championship Series for the third time in postseason history. It marked the first time in LCS history that the previous two World Series winners had met.

The clubs split the first two games in San Francisco, with Carlos Beltrán and David Freese each hitting two-run home runs to lift the Cardinals to a 6-4 victory in Game #1. In Game #2, Marco Scutaro hit a two-run single in San Francisco's four run 4th inning before leaving with a hip injury and the Giants received their first home win in the postseason, with a 7-1 victory to even the LCS at one game apiece.

The series shifted to St. Louis and the Cards took advantage of the home field as Matt Carpenter hit a two-run home run after subbing for Beltrán, and the Cardinals chased Matt Cain before a three and a half hour rain delay in the 7th inning of a 3-1 Red Bird Game #3 win.

The Giants were routed 8-3 in Game #4. Adam Wainwright threw 7.0 innings of four-hit ball and St. Louis' offense roughed up Tim Lincecum and the Giants' bullpen.

Facing elimination for the fourth time in the 2012 postseason, the Giants' sent Barry Zito to the mound in Game #5 and the soft-tossing lefty was at his best, pitching San Francisco back into the series with a 5-0 win that narrowed SF's deficit to 3-2. Zito resembled the same guy who won the 2002 AL Cy Young Award with the A's, as he retired 11 consecutive batters in one stretch while striking out six in 7.2 innings.

Back in San Francisco for a Game #6, the Giants chased opposing starter Chris Carpenter to an early exit in their 6-1 victory that forced the series to a decisive Game #7. Ryan Vogelsong finished with nine strikeouts, a career-high for any game.

Hunter Pence got the Giants going with a weird double, Cain pitched his second clincher of the postseason and the Giants closed out Game #7 of the LCS in a rainstorm, routing the Cardinals 9-0 to advance to the World Series for the 19th time in franchise history, the fifth time since moving to San Francisco and for the second time in the last three seasons.

San Francisco won its record-tying sixth elimination game of the postseason, completing a lopsided rally from a 3-1 deficit. Scutaro recorded his sixth multi-hit game of the series and matched an LCS record with 14 hits and Pablo Sandoval drove in a run for his fifth straight game. After falling behind in the series 3-games-to-1, the Giants outscored the Cardinals 20-1 over the final three games behind stellar pitching performances from Zito, Vogelsong and Cain.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

The underdog Giants beat the Cardinals four-games-to-one in the National League Championship Series.

In Game #1, Madison Bumgarner (named the NLCS MVP) threw 7.2 innings, extending his road postseason scoreless streak to a major-league-record 26.2 innings. He allowed four hits, struck out seven and walked one. Sergio Romo and Santiago Casilla retired the final four St. Louis hitters in order.

Game #2 was one of the Giants' best postseason games in 2014. St. Louis led 2-0 before the Giants scored single runs in the 5th, 6th and 7th innings to go in front 3-2. Cardinals rookie Oscar Taveras hit a pinch-hit homer off Jean Machi in the bottom of the 7th to tie the game. In the following frame, Matt Adams homered off Hunter Strickland to make it 4-3, Cardinals. With men at first and second and two outs in the 9th, Trevor Rosenthal uncorked a wild pitch on a 3-2 delivery to Joe Panik. Going on the pitch, pinch-runner Matt Duffy motored home for a 4-4 game. The tie didn't last 9th inning by hitting an 0-1 pitch from Romo into the right field seats, giving the Cardinals a 5-4 win.

The Giants won Game #3, 5-4 in 10 innings. Tim Hudson had a 4-0 lead before the Cardinals would whittle the margin to 4-3 and tie the game on Hudson's final pitch. Brandon Crawford opened the bottom of the 10th inning by drawing a walk from lefty Randy Choate. Juan Perez then lined a single to left before Gregor Blanco followed by dropping down a bunt between the mound and the third-base line. Choate grabbed it and made an errant throw to first base allowing Crawford to score the winning run.

After St. Louis built a 4-1 lead in the 3rd off Ryan Vogelsong in Game #4, the Giants answered with two in the bottom of the inning, getting two-out RBI singles from Buster Posey and Hunter Pence. Yusmeiro Petit blanked the Cardinals over the next three innings to pick up the win.

Game #5 was perhaps one of the most memorable postseason games in Giants history. Panik put SF up 2-1 in the 3rd inning after hitting a two-run homer off Adam Wainwright. However, Matt Adams and Tony Cruz hit solo HRs off Bumgarner in the 4th, giving the Cards a 3-2 lead. Bumgarner did not allow a baserunner after Cruz's homer, setting down the final 13 men he faced. Wainwright had retired 10 straight through the 7th, but Pat Neshek replaced him to begin the 8th. Pinch-hitter Michael Morse greeted Neshek with a drive over the wall in left to tie the game and send the AT&T Park crowd into a frenzy. The Cardinals sent Michael Wacha to the mound in the 9th. Pablo Sandoval opened the inning with a single, and Joaquin Arias pinch-ran for him. With one out, Wacha lost all contact with the strike zone, throwing four consecutive balls to Brandon Belt and falling behind Travis Ishikawa 2-0. Ishikawa proceeded to etch his name next to Bobby Thomson's for hitting a home run that propelled the Giants to the World Series.

World Series

1905 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

The Fall Classic returned after a year's hiatus and Hall of Famer Christy Mathewson made it his showcase, leading the Giants to their first World Championship with three shutout victories.

The 25-year-old right-hander, who had 32 victories in 1905 to register his third straight 30-win season, shut down the Philadelphia Athletics in New York's five-game victory. In the space of six days, he pitched three shutouts and permitted just 14 hits overall.

Mathewson even played a part in the Giants' offense during a 3-0 Game #1 victory in Philadelphia. He ignited a two-run rally in the fifth inning to break open a scoreless contest, then went on to shut out the Athletics on four hits.

New York skipper John McGraw, who boycotted the 1904 World Series vs. the Boston Red Sox, didn't have to rely solely on Mathewson to get him the title. He also had Red Ames and Joe McGinnity, who won 22 and 21 games during the regular season, respectively, in his rotation.

Those two hurlers worked in Game #2, but McGinnity was ticketed with the defeat after surrendering three unearned runs in a 3-0 defeat.

Mathewson was staked to a 2-0, 1st inning lead in Game #3 and responded by blanking Philadelphia on four hits. First baseman Dan McGann was the Giants' big gun in the 9-0 romp, collecting two singles and a double while driving in four runs.

McGinnity rebounded from his Game #2 defeat to shut out Eddie Plank and Philadelphia in a classic 1-0 pitchers' duel in Game #4.

But it was Mathewson who got to finish off the job he started when he blanked the Athletics 2-0 in the fifth and deciding game.

1911 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

(ATHLETICS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The "running" Giants, who established a league record with 347 stolen bases, persevered through the rebuilding of the Polo Grounds and posted 99 victories to capture the National League pennant. New York had to play its home games through early June at the park of the American League's New York Highlanders (later the Yankees) after the Polo Grounds burned to the ground in April.

However, New York's offense was limited to only four stolen bases in its six-game World Series defeat to the Philadelphia Athletics.

1905 Series hero Christy Mathewson still anchored John McGraw's pitching staff, going 26-13 during the regular season. The Hall of Famer got New York off to a great start vs. Philadelphia in Game #1 of the Fall Classic, tossing a six-hitter in the 2-1 triumph.

The Athletics rebounded to take Games #2 and #3 with Frank "Home Run" Baker clubbing dramatic home runs in both outings.

Then the rains came. The World Series was put on hold for six days due to Mother Nature.

When the Fall Classic resumed exactly a week after Game #3 had been played, Mathewson was outdueled by Chief Bender in a 4-2 decision that gave the Athletics a three-games-to-one advantage.

1912 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. BOSTON RED SOX

(RED SOX WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3 - 1 TIE)

The Giants, bolstered by lefty Rube Marquard's modern Major League record 19-game winning streak, lived a storybook 1912 campaign. That's until the 10th inning of the final game of the World Series, when usually-reliable center fielder Fred Snodgrass dropped a fly ball that opened the door for a two-run Boston rally that gave the Red Sox the title.

New York, which featured two 20-game winners in Marquard (26) and Christy Mathewson (23), posted 103 victories during the regular season and coasted to the pennant with a ten-game cushion.

Newcomer Jeff Tesreau, who won 17 games for the Giants, got the nod in Game #1 but suffered a 4-3 defeat to the Red Sox.

Despite a see-saw contest that saw four lead changes, Game #2 was a wash as it was called due to darkness, thus making the 1912 World Series an eight-game affair.

The Giants evened the score in Game #3, posting a 2-1 victory behind Marquard before the Red Sox got the better of Tesreau again in the fourth contest, this time by a 3-1 count.

Trailing two-games-to-one, the Giants posted 5-2 and 11-4 wins, respectively, in Games #6 and #7.

The Series came down to the 10th inning of the eighth and final game, as the Giants and Red Sox were deadlocked at 1-1 after nine innings. New York took a 2-1 lead in the top half of the 10th before the wheels fell off in the bottom half. Boston pinch hitter Clyde Engle opened the frame with a routine fly ball that Snodgrass was camped under and then dropped.

Boston eventually won the game 3-2 on a sacrifice fly in the 10th and ruined New York's magical season.

1913 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

(ATHLETICS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

New York won its third straight National League flag, but couldn't get over the hump in the World Series for the third consecutive year, falling four-games-to-one to the Philadelphia Athletics.

After winning the pennant with a twelve-game cushion, the Giants were beset by injuries during the Fall Classic. First baseman Fred Merkle was limited to 13 at-bats due to a bad leg. Center fielder Fred Snodgrass played in only two games and made three trips to the plate after suffering from a severe charley horse. Chief Meyers, the Giants' catcher, was shelved for the Series after suffering a fractured finger in practice preceding Game #2.

The Athletics jumped out to a 1-0 series advantage after shelling Rube Marquard for five runs and eight hits in five innings for a 6-4 victory in the opener.

Once again, Christy Mathewson provided New York with a fine postseason performance when he tossed a 3-0, 10-inning shutout in Game #2. He even drove in the game-winning run with his single in the 10th.

That was last highlight for the Giants as the Athletics rolled to the World Championship by posting victories in each of the last three contests.

Mathewson, pitching in what would be his final World Series, wound up with a 5-5 lifetime mark in the Fall Classic—he was 4-0 at one point—after splitting two decisions in 1913.

1917 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. CHICAGO WHITE SOX

(WHITE SOX WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The Giants' run of bad luck continued in their fourth straight World Series defeat as they fell to the Chicago White Sox in six games.

In the sixth and deciding game, New York was in a scoreless deadlock with Chicago heading into the fourth inning. That's when the Giants' penchant for mistakes at inopportune times reared its ugly head once again. This time, Chicago second baseman Eddie Collins led off the frame with a grounder to New York third baseman Heinie Zimmerman, who made a two-base throwing error on the play. Joe Jackson's ensuing fly ball was dropped by right fielder Dave Robertson, positioning White Sox at the corners.

Chicago center fielder Happy Felsch then grounded back to the pitcher, Rube Benton, who saw Collins break from third and threw to Zimmerman in an attempt to get Collins hung up. Zimmerman ran Collins toward the plate, but the runner bounded past catcher Bill Rariden to make it a Zimmerman-Collins race to the plate. The White Sox second baseman won the footrace and distracted the Giants' defense enough to allow the baserunners to advance to second and third. Both Chicago runners would score on an ensuing base hit. That's all the White Sox would need to salt away the World Championship as they went on to win Game #6 by a 4-2 count.

Famed Olympian and footballer Jim Thorpe was on the 1917 Giants' club, but made only one "appearance" during the World Series in Game #5. He was slated to start in right field, but never took the field. The right-handed hitting Thorpe was removed for a left-handed pinch hitter after the White Sox lifted lefty hurler Reb Russell in favor of right-hander Eddie Cicotte.

1921 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 5 GAMES TO 3)

The Giants snapped a four-World Series losing streak when they outdueled the rival Yankees in a thrilling eight-game series. With both clubs playing their home contests at the Polo Grounds, it was the first Fall Classic to be played in its entirety at one stadium.

The National League champions were headlined by third baseman Frankie Frisch, right fielder Ross Youngs, first baseman George Kelly and left fielder Irish Meusel, while Babe Ruth and his 59 home runs was the sparkplug for the Yankees.

The American Leaguers jumped out to a two games-to-none lead after posting consecutive 3-0 victories. The Giants battled back from a 2-0, 2nd inning deficit in Game #3 to post a 13-5 victory. John McGraw's club knotted the Fall Classic at two games apiece when it logged a 4-2 triumph in the fourth game, despite Ruth's first World Series home run.

Ruth, hobbled by knee and arm ailments, spirited the Yankees to a 3-1 victory in Game #5 when he started the go-ahead rally with a bunt base hit.

However, the Bambino couldn't continue and the Giants took advantage of the situation to run off three straight victories and give the franchise its first World Championship since 1905. Art Nehf got the National Leaguers over the top with his four-hit, 1-0 victory in Game #8.

1922 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0 - 1 TIE)

The Giants, playing the second of four consecutive World Series, earned their berth by taking the National League pennant with a seven-game cushion.

John McGraw's club brought home its second straight title after defeating its fellow Polo Grounds tenants, the Yankees, in a four-victory sweep that actually took five games to complete due to a tie.

Third baseman Heinie Groh, who was acquired from Cincinnati the previous winter, led the Giants to a 3-2 triumph in the opener after logging a 3-for-3 showing. The National League entrant had been shut out by Joe Bush through seven innings, before it stormed back from a two-run deficit on Irish Meusel's two-run single and Ross Youngs' sacrifice fly.

Meusel got back in the act quickly in Game #2, drilling a three-run home run off Bob Shawkey in the 1st inning. However, the Yankees battled back to tie the contest at 3-3 and it was inexplicably called because of "darkness" after the 10th inning by umpire George Hildebrand, despite at least a half-hour of daylight remaining.

Jack Scott, who went 8-2 in just 17 games for the Giants, tossed a four-hitter at the Yankees in Game #3 and led the National Leaguers to a 3-0 victory.

The Giants managed to post 4-3 and 5-3 victories in the fourth and fifth games, respectively, to advance to their second straight title. It also helped that the Giants' pitchers shut down Babe Ruth over the final three outings, holding him 0-for-9.

The 1922 World Championship would prove to be the third and final one in the illustrious career of the Giants' winningest skipper, John McGraw.

1923 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

It was an all-New York World Series for the third straight year, but there were a few changes. First, the Yankees moved into their own ballpark, Yankee Stadium. Second and most importantly, the American League entrant ended the Giants' two-year reign as World Champions.

The man who proved to be a thorn in the side of the Yankees was a Giants' outfielder who would later become synonymous with the club from the Bronx–Casey Stengel.

The 34-year-old outfielder christened World Series play in Yankee Stadium when he lined a ninth inning Joe Bush offering into left-center field that got between the outfielders for an inside-the-park home run, breaking a 4-4 draw and giving the Giants a 5-4 triumph in Game #1.

The Yankees, who had not defeated the Giants in their last nine World Series meetings (eight defeats, one tie), finally broke through in Game #2 when Babe Ruth clubbed two home runs in the 4-2 victory.

When the Series returned to Yankee Stadium for Game #3, Stengel shared the stage with pitcher Art Nehf. The outfielder broke open a scoreless duel with a home run into the right field stands. Nehf finished off the American Leaguers after allowing five singles and a double in the 1-0 win.

That was all she wrote for the Giants as the Yankees rattled off three consecutive victories to win their first World Championship. The American Leaguers coasted to 8-4 and 8-1 victories in Games #4 and #5, respectively.

In the sixth and final contest, Ruth got the Yanks off to a great start with his first inning, upper deck blast. But the A.L. entrant would need a five-run 8th inning to post the 6-4 decider.

1924 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. WASHINGTON SENATORS

(SENATORS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

The Giants made their fourth straight appearance in the Fall Classic, but they faced someone other than the Yankees for the first time during that span when they squared off with the Washington Senators.

New York was the National League representative in the World Series for the eighth time in 14 years, but it had to scramble to win the flag by one-and-a-half games over Brooklyn.

With the World Series tied at three games apiece, horrored legacies of Merkle, Snodgrass and Zimmerman returned to longtime Giants' fans. Despite making three errors in the final contest, New York was done in twice by the infield at Washington's Griffith Stadium.

New York took a 3-1 advantage into the 8th inning of that final contest. With two outs and the bases-loaded, Senators' second baseman/manager Bucky Harris hit a grounder that skipped over the head of 18-year-old third baseman Freddie Lindstrom. Two runs scored on the bad-hop single to tie the game.

The contest remained deadlocked until the bottom of the 12th inning, when Giants' catcher Hank Gowdy tripped over his mask and dropped a Muddy Ruel pop. The Washington catcher responded with a double down the third base line. One batter later with runners on first and second, center fielder Earl McNeely grounded to third. But once again, the ball skipped over Lindstrom's head and Ruel came around to score the winning tally.

This would prove to be the final World Series appearance for Giants manager John McGraw. Although he owned a 3-6 lifetime mark in the Fall Classic, only one other manager appeared in more series – Casey Stengel with 10 trips.

1933 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. WASHINGTON SENATORS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

New York, in its first full season under new manager Bill Terry, won the National League pennant on the strong pitching of Carl Hubbell and Hal Schumacher.

The Giants entered the World Series as the underdog to the high-powered offense of the Washington Senators. However, the New Yorkers tacked up a 1.53 ERA (8er, 47.0ip) en route to their four games-to-one series victory.

Hubbell and Schumacher, who had combined for 17 shutouts during the regular season, were selected to start the first two contests vs. the Senators.

Hubbell, the second winningest pitcher in Giants history, struck out 10 and didn't allow an earned run in the 4-2 victory. Outfielder Mel Ott accounted for three of New York's four runs, with his two-run home run and RBI single. Schumacher followed Hubbell's lead and allowed only a solo home run in the Giants' 6-1 Game #2 victory.

The good pitching turned on the Giants in Game #3 as Washington's Earl Whitehill tossed a five-hit shutout to give the Senators a 4-0 triumph.

Hubbell, who led the National League with 23 wins, carried a 1-1 game into the 10th inning in Game #4 when the Giants edged ahead on third baseman Travis Jackson's bunt single, a sacrifice and shortstop Blondy Ryan's single. King Carl escaped a one-out, bases-loaded jam in the bottom half of the inning with a double play to preserve New York's 2-1 victory.

Schumacher helped himself offensively in the decisive Game #5 with his two-run single in the 2nd inning. Then 43-year-old reliever Dolf Luque took over a 3-3 game and worked the final four-and-one-third innings to get the Giants in position to win. Ott took care of the offense when he drilled a solo blast into the center field stands at Griffith Stadium in the top of the 10th inning to give New York a 4-3 victory.

1936 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The Giants locked horns with their cross-town rivals, the Yankees, in the Fall Classic for the fifth time after winning the National League flag by a five-game margin.

The Yankees, who were without Babe Ruth but had Joe DiMaggio, captured the Series in six games to start a run that saw them win 16 of the next 27 World Championships.

The National Leaguers rode the arm of Hall of Famer Carl Hubbell to their 11th World Series. The 33-year-old left-hander won his last 16 decisions of the regular season to finish with a 26-6 ledger that included a 2.31 ERA.

King Carl was on the mound for the Giants in Game #1 and got the National Leaguers a 6-1 victory after allowing just seven hits, including a third inning home run by George Selkirk. Trailing 1-0 in the 5th inning, shortstop Dick Bartell launched a solo blast of his own before the Giants added another run in the 6th and four more in the 8th.

The National Leaguers' victory in Game #1 snapped a 12-game winning streak owned by the Yankees in World Series action.

The Yankees went on to win each of the next three games, outscoring the Giants by a cumulative 25-7 count.

Staving off elimination, the Giants scored a 5-4, 10-inning victory in Game #5. Manager Bill Terry, playing in the next-to-last game of his playing career, drove in the game-winner with a sacrifice fly.

The American Leaguers finished off the Polo Grounds tenants in Game #6 as they pounded out 17 hits en route to their series-clinching 13-5 victory.

1937 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

The two New York teams squared off once again in the Fall Classic, but the Yankees' offensive firepower proved to be too much for the Giants as the American League entrants took home the title in a five-game series.

The Giants, who boasted two 20-game winners in Carl Hubbell and rookie Cliff Melton, only had one big bat to combat the Yankee arsenal. Mel Ott clubbed 31 home runs and drove in 95 runs.

However, that was no match for the Yankees' lineup that had five different 100-RBI men in Lou Gehrig, Joe DiMaggio, Tony Lazzeri, Bill Dickey and George Selkirk.

Hubbell was once again the Giants' Game #1 starter and was coasting along with a 1-0 lead into the bottom of the 6th. Then the Yankees produced one of their vaunted big-run innings, posting a six-run frame. The American Leaguers went on to post the 8-1 victory.

It was much of the same in Games #2 and #3 as the Yankees posted 8-1 and 5-1 triumphs, respectively.

The Giants turned the tables in Game #4 as they plated six runs in the 2nd inning, with the big blows coming from center fielder Hank Leiber. He opened the frame with a single and scored before capping off the rally with a two-run single. The National Leaguers had Hubbell on the hill and he shut down the Yankees on six hits for the 7-3 victory.

The Yankees captured their second straight title with a 4-2 win in the fifth contest.

1951 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The 1951 World Series was overshadowed by an event that took place the day before it began – "The Shot Heard 'Round the World."

Bobby Thomson's three-run, 9th-inning homer off the Dodgers' Ralph Branca in the National League-deciding playoff game put an exclamation on one of the greatest stretch drives in the history of baseball.

Manager Leo Durocher's club trailed Brooklyn by 13-and-a-half games on Aug. 11. Then the Giants rattled off 16-straight victories and won 37 of their last 44 regular-season games to force a best-of-three playoff series with the Dodgers for the National League pennant.

The momentum seemed to carry over to the next day for the opener of the World Series as Monte Irvin stole home in the first inning to register the first swipe of home since the Yankees' Bob Meusel did it in 1928. The Giants' left fielder finished the contest 4-for-5 and spearheaded a 5-1 victory.

Irvin would once again lead the National Leaguers' offense in Game #2, but his three hits weren't enough to overcome the Yankees in a 3-1 defeat.

Click or Scan for Series Stats

Shortstop Eddie Stanky inspired a five-run, fifth-inning rally in Game #3 when he kicked the ball out of Phil Rizzuto's glove on a failed stolen base attempt and scrambled to third. The Giants would move on to a 6-2 triumph at the Polo Grounds.

Despite holding a two-games-to-one series lead, the Giants couldn't finish off the Yankees as the American Leaguers ran off three straight victories to claim the title.

1954 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. CLEVELAND INDIANS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0)

Willie Mays got the National League champion Giants off to a great start in the 1954 World Series when he made perhaps the greatest defensive play in baseball history.

With New York and Cleveland tied 2-2 in the 8th inning of Game #1 at the Polo Grounds and two Indian runners on base, the Hall of Fame center fielder made an over-the-shoulder catch of a 460-foot smash off the bat of the Indians' Vic Wertz.

The Giants went on to win 5-2 when pinch-hitter Dusty Rhodes hit a three-run, 10th-inning home run off Indians' starter Bob Lemon. Ironically, the game-winning clout went only 260 feet.

The Giants would go on to sweep the Indians in four games to register their last World Championship in an upset over the highly-touted American League champs.

Rhodes, who hit .341 in part-time duty and as a pinch-hitter deluxe during the regular season, also delivered the game-winning hits in both Games #2 and #3. However, his services weren't needed in the fourth and final contest as New York jumped out to a 7-0 advantage and coasted to the 7-4 championship-clinching victory.

New York was the surprise National League champion. After finishing fifth in 1953, the Giants were led by Mays, who won the N.L. batting title with a .345 mark that included 41 home runs and 110 RBI. The center fielder had returned to the Giants after missing the 1953 campaign due to military service.

Johnny Antonelli, another newcomer who was acquired from Milwaukee in exchange for Bobby Thomson in the off-season, won 21 games to help New York to the N.L. flag.

1962 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

A matter of inches was the difference between the Giants bringing a World Championship to San Francisco for the first time or losing to the New York Yankees in the Fall Classic for the fifth time.

With the Giants trailing 1-0 with two outs and runners on second and third in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game #7, San Francisco's clean-up hitter Willie McCovey stepped in to face Ralph Terry. The Giants' Hall of Famer lined a one-ball, one-strike pitch toward right field, but Yankees' second baseman Bobby Richardson moved slightly to his left and threw up his glove to register the final out and the Yankees' 20th World Series crown.

San Francisco captured the National League flag by posting a late-season rally to catch Los Angeles and force a three-game playoff, which the Giants won 2-1.

The Giants carried a 2-2 tie into the 7th inning of Game #1 at Candlestick Park until Clete Boyer drilled a solo home run to spur the Yankees onto a 6-2 triumph.

Jack Sanford fired a three-hit shutout to even the Series at one-game apiece in San Francisco's 2-0 Game #2 victory. In a seesaw World Series, the Yankees would log a 3-2 Game #3 win before Giants' second baseman Chuck Hiller drilled a grand slam in the seventh inning of the fourth game to propel San Francisco to a 7-3 victory. It was the first bases-loaded clout by a National League player in World Series history.

Despite Sanford's 10-strikeout effort in seven-and-a-third innings, the Yankees posted a 5-3 win in Game #5.

As the Series moved back to San Francisco, there was a five-day delay due to a travel day and three rainouts. Once play resumed, Billy Pierce pitched a three-hitter and Orlando Cepeda posted three hits and two RBI to force a seventh game with a 5-2 Game #6 win.

1989 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. OAKLAND ATHLETICS

(ATHLETICS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0)

The Bay Bridge Series, which pitted the Giants against their local rival, the Oakland Athletics, will always be remembered more for the Loma Prieta earthquake than the four-game brooming by the American Leaguers.

That might be a good thing for the Giants, as they were outclassed in almost every phase of the game by the Athletics, as was evidenced by the 32-14 cumulative run total.

A's Game #1 starter Dave Stewart set the tone for this Fall Classic when he hurled a five-hit shutout at the Giants. He was backed by solo home runs from Dave Parker and Walt Weiss off San Francisco starter Scott Garrelts.

In much the same fashion, Oakland rolled to a 5-1 victory in Game #2 behind the pitching of Mike Moore.

Then it happened. Something that would make this four-game Series sweep stand out in history. At 5:04 p.m. on Oct. 17, an earthquake with a 7.1-Richter scale reading rocked the Bay Area and the 60,000 fans at Candlestick Park. With reports of damage throughout the Bay Area, the ballpark was evacuated and the game was cancelled.

Finally, 10 days later, the Athletics picked up where they had left off, as they drilled five home runs on their way to a 13-7 rout in the rescheduled Game #3. The five-homer effort, two by Dave Henderson along with single clouts from Jose Canseco, Carney Lansford and Tony Phillips, tied a Series record set by the 1928 Yankees.

The A's never trailed in the series as Rickey Henderson opened Game #4 with a home run off Giants' starter Don Robinson. The Giants would close it to 8-6 in the seventh, but that was as close they would get in the 9-6 finale.

2002 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ANAHEIM ANGELS

(ANGELS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

In the first World Series between two Wild Card teams, the Giants and Anaheim Angels lived up to the moniker, combining to set numerous offensive records in a memorable seven-game Fall Classic.

Anaheim emerged from the fireworks with its first World Championship in franchise history, while San Francisco was saddled with heartbreak after seeing a title slip away just five outs from the pinnacle.

The clubs split the first two contests in Anaheim, with Barry Bonds grabbing the spotlight in his first appearance on the World Series stage. San Francisco's left fielder clubbed a solo homer in his first at-bat to spark a 4-3 Giants win in Game #1, then connected for a mammoth 9th-inning shot in Game #2. Not to be outdone, the Angels' Tim Salmon homered twice as Anaheim won an 11-10 slugfest to even the series.

When the scene shifted north, the Angels seemed to take control with a convincing 10-4 win in Game #3. As they had all season, the Giants battled back in Game #4, rallying from a 3-0 deficit to earn a 4-3 victory on David Bell's two-out, RBI-single in the 8th inning.

Game #5 belonged to San Francisco, as the home club delighted the 42,713 fans at Pacific Bell Park with a 16-4 rout. Jeff Kent tied Giants World Series records with four runs, two homers and four RBI, Rich Aurilia drove in three runs to establish a franchise playoff mark with 17 RBI overall, and J.T. Snow had two of his series-high 11 hits.

The Giants were eight outs from their first World Series title since 1954, as Shawon Dunston's two-run homer, Bonds' record eighth post season clout (fourth of Series), and Kent's RBI-single propelled SF to a 5-0 lead in Game #6. But the ultimate prize was wrested away as Scott Spezio's three-run, 7th-inning homer and series MVP Troy Glaus' two-run, 8th-inning double highlighted Anaheim's rally to a 6-5 victory.

San Francisco scored first in Game #7, but ultimately could not overcome the pitching of John Lackey and the bat of Garret Anderson, who delivered the deciding three-run, 3rd-inning double in Anaheim's 4-1 triumph.

2010 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. TEXAS RANGERS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

It was a different story for the San Francisco Giants during the World Series as the club was bolstered by their offense and pitching to win their sixth World Championship and first since they moved from New York to San Francisco in 1958 to capture the 106th Fall Classic, 4 games to 1 over the Texas Rangers. It marked the club's first World Series win since 1954, ending the Majors' third-longest drought without a championship at that time, behind the Cubs (102 years) and Indians (62 years) as the top 2 teams at the time.

The Giants' bats were on fire as they battered Cliff Lee and the Rangers' bullpen with an 11-7 victory in the opening game of the 2010 World Series. What was originally penned as a pitchers' duel between Lee and Tim Lincecum turned out to be an offensive outburst by both teams. Freddy Sanchez finished with four of the Giants' 14 hits as Aubrey Huff went 3-for-4 with an RBI and Juan Uribe capped a six-run 5th inning with a three-run home run, which set off the fog horn and blasts from water cannons out in right field. San Francisco took a commanding two game lead after Matt Cain held the Rangers' bats at bay in a 9-0 shutout in Game #2. Cain tossed 7.2-scoreless frames to extend his postseason scoreless innings total to 21.1 frames, while Edgar Renteria led the offense as he homered and drove in three runs.

The only mishap for the Giants was during Game #3 as they fell to the Rangers 4-2 at Texas. However, the team resorted back to their pitching heavy strategy in Game #4 as rookie Madison Bumgarner took to the mound and fired off 8.0-shutout innings as the Giants shut out the Rangers 4-0 on Halloween night. Huff (two-run home run) and Buster Posey (solo home run) supplied the club with enough offense as the team was one game away from winning their first Championship in over 54 years.

Lincecum and World Series MVP Renteria helped deliver the title in Game #5 as Lincecum outdueled Cliff Lee in a game that was scoreless until Renteria hit a three-run home run with two outs in the 7th inning. Lincecum defeated Lee for the second time in a week, allowing just three hits over 8.0 innings while recording 10 strikeouts. The game was scoreless until Cody Ross and Juan Uribe both singled to open the seventh inning before Huff laid down the first sacrifice bunt of his career to move the runners. Renteria stepped to the plate and sent a 2-0 pitch over the left-center field wall silencing a sold out crowd of 52,045. Brian Wilson was summoned for the 9th and retired Josh Hamilton on a called 3rd strike, getting Vladimir Guerrero on a grounder to shortstop and then struck out Nelson Cruz to cap the best season in San Francisco Giants history.

Brian Wilson strikes out Nelson Cruz for the final out of Game 5 of the World Series at Texas, giving the Giants their first World Series Championship in San Francisco history.

2012 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. DETROIT TIGERS
(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0)

Playing in the World Series for the 19th time in franchise history and the fifth time since moving to San Francisco in 1958, the Giants were set to face the Detroit Tigers, the first time these two storied franchises had ever met in a postseason series.

Pablo Sandoval and Barry Zito both shined for the Giants in Game #1 as Sandoval hit three home runs, and joined Reggie Jackson, Babe Ruth and Albert Pujols as the only players to accomplish that in the Fall Classic, and Zito outdueled Justin Verlander, the reigning Cy Young winner, as the Giants won 8-3. Sandoval homered in his first three at-bats, hitting a solo shot in the 1st inning, a two-run blast in the 3rd that set off the fog horns and capped it with yet another solo shot to center that sent the festive AT&T Park crowd into a frenzy.

In Game #2, Madison Bumgarner tossed 7.0-scoreless innings, then the Giants took advantage of a bunt that stayed fair to scratch out the go-ahead run in a 2-0 win for a 2-0 advantage in the Series.

The Giants took a commanding 3-0 lead in the Fall Classic with a 2-0 win on a chilly night in Detroit in Game #3. SF won their franchise-record sixth straight post-season game as Ryan Vogelsong blanked the Tigers for 5.2 innings and Gregor Blanco hit an RBI triple and Brandon Crawford drove him home with a single in the 2nd inning. The Giants became the eighth team to post consecutive World Series shutouts and the first to accomplish the feat since the 1966 Baltimore Orioles.

Nearly knocked out in the playoffs time and time again, the Giants completed a four game sweep of the Tigers to win their second title in three seasons. Marco Scutaro's go-ahead single with two outs in the 10th inning lifted the Giants to a 4-3, 10-inning victory. Sergio Romo got Triple Crown winner Miguel Cabrera to look at strike three for the final out and the Giants finished the month of October with seven straight wins and their seventh World Series championship.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. KANSAS CITY ROYALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

Backed by the eventual World Series MVP Madison Bumgarner, the Giants beat the Kansas City Royals in seven games to capture their third championship in five years.

Kansas City hadn't lost in this postseason before the Series, but the Giants ended that streak at eight games with a 7-1 win in Game #1. SF scored three times in the 1st inning off James Shields; Pablo Sandoval hit an RBI double and Hunter Pence crushed a two-run homer to right-center. Bumgarner carried a shutout into the 7th before Salvador Perez homered, ending Bumgarner's World Series scoreless-innings streak at 21 and his road postseason scoreless-innings streak at 32.2. His three-hit, 7.0-inning performance gave the Giants the jump in the Series.

Gregor Blanco opened Game #2 by jumping on a 3-2 pitch from Yordano Ventura and jolting it over the wall in right. That lead was short-lived as the Royals scored single runs in the 1st and 2nd innings off Jake Peavy. The game was 2-2 in the 6th when the Royals put a five-spot on the board and finished it off with a 7-2 win.

Tim Hudson, made his first World Series appearance in Game #3 and retired 12 in a row in one stretch – but took the loss. The Royals scratched out a run in the 1st and added two in the 6th, the final run scoring on Eric Hosmer's single off Javier Lopez. Michael Morse's pinch-hit RBI double keyed the Giants' two-run 6th, but that would be the extent of SF's offense. Kansas City relievers Kelvin Herrera, Brandon Finnegan, Wade Davis and Greg Holland combined for four hitless innings.

Ineffective pitching by Ryan Vogelsong and bad defense by the Giants allowed the Royals to score four two-out runs in the third to grab a 4-1 edge in Game #4.

However, another three shutout innings from Yusmeiro Petit, enabled the Giants to mount their comeback. The Giants scored one in the 3rd and two in the 5th to tie the game. Joe Panik's two-run double highlighted a four-run 7th, and helped the Giants secure an 11-4 win.

The Giants' final home game of the postseason was highlighted by Bumgarner, who threw another four-hit shutout to become the Giants' first pitcher since 1962 to throw a complete game (Billy Pierce) and shutout (Jack Sanford) in the World Series.

In Game #6, the Royals scored seven runs in the 2nd inning to put the game away early. Yordano Ventura held the Giants to three hits in seven innings, setting up Game 7.

Sandoval went 3-for-3 and scored twice, Morse drove in two runs and Jeremy Affeldt earned the win with 2.1 innings of shutout relief. However, it was Bumgarner who stole the show for the Giants and helped the team win its eighth championship. On just two days' rest, he entered the game in the 5th inning. After allowing a single to Omar Infante, the first batter he faced, Bumgarner retired the next 14 hitters. With two outs in the 9th, Alex Gordon lifted a single into left-center that Blanco misplayed. Gordon wound up at third, 90 feet from tying the game. On a 2-2 pitch, Bumgarner got Salvador Perez on a foul pop clutched by Sandoval, who then collapsed in joy. Bumgarner, who had been the NLCS MVP, was the only choice for Series MVP. He went 2-0 with a save and gave up all of one run and nine hits in 21 innings.

Oracle Park Facts & Figures

Opening Date: April 11, 2000

Design: Classic urban ballpark with an old-time feel and all the amenities of modern ballparks. Inspired by Wrigley Field and Fenway Park and modeled after Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Jacobs Field and Coors Field.

Construction: Commenced on December 11, 1997. Construction lasted 28 months, with Opening Day on April 11, 2000.

Name Change: Ballpark originally opened as Pacific Bell Park; name was changed to SBC Park on January 1, 2004; changed to AT&T Park on March 1, 2006 and then the name was changed to Oracle Park on January 10, 2019.

Financing: Oracle Park, the first privately financed Major League ballpark to be built in 38 years, cost $357 million. The financing plan included $172 million from naming rights, other sponsorships, pouring rights, concession rights and the selling of charter seats; a $170 million bank loan; and $15 million in tax increment financing from the City's Redevelopment Agency.

LEED Certification: In 2019, Oracle Park achieved LEED Platinum Certification for Existing Building Operations and Management, making Oracle Park the first Major League Baseball stadium to achieve this honor. The certification was achieved through numerous greening and sustainability programs the park has implemented and refined throughout the years since its first LEED Silver Certification in 2010.

Green Glove: Major League Baseball named the San Francisco Giants as recipient of the 2023 Green Glove Award, which recognizes the MLB Club with the highest waste diversion rate, nearly reaching 100 percent. The Giants, who collected nine consecutive awards between 2008 and 2016, have won 14 total Green Gloves, including three since 2020.

Field Measurements:
Right Foul Line: 309 feet;
Center Field: 391 feet;
Left-center Field Alley: 382 feet;
Right-center Field Alley: 415 feet

Location: The 13-acre site is bounded by King, Second and Third Streets, and by the China Basin Channel. The site is owned by the Port of San Francisco and is leased to the Giants at fair market value.

Stadium Operator: San Francisco Giants

Seating Capacity: 40,260

Surface: Overseeded Bermuda grass with a DuraEdge infield and crushed brick warning track.

Outfield Fences: 8 feet high from left field to center with 19-foot span that reaches 11 feet high at its peak in left field; 7 feet high from left of center to the Triples Alley notch in right center; 25 feet high in right field.

Distance from Stands to Home Plate: 48 feet from first row of seats behind home plate.

Lighting: Prior to the 2024 season, the Giants upgraded their lighting system that included the replacement of sports lights with fully programmable LED fixtures and full color spectrum capabilities. Twelve (12) moving light fixtures are now mounted along the upper rim of Oracle Park with camera tracking and custom "Go Between Optics" capabilities. All lights are also now fully controllable for show-stopping lighting effects.

Videoboard: The 153.28' wide by 70.87' high Mitsubishi Diamond Vision was installed prior to the 2019 season at Oracle Park. The $10 million project represented tye largest single capital improvement the Giants have undertaken at the ballpark since it opened in 2000. The board covers 10,700 square feet, more than three times the area of the old board it replaced.

Oracle Park Public Address Announcer

Carolyn McArdle

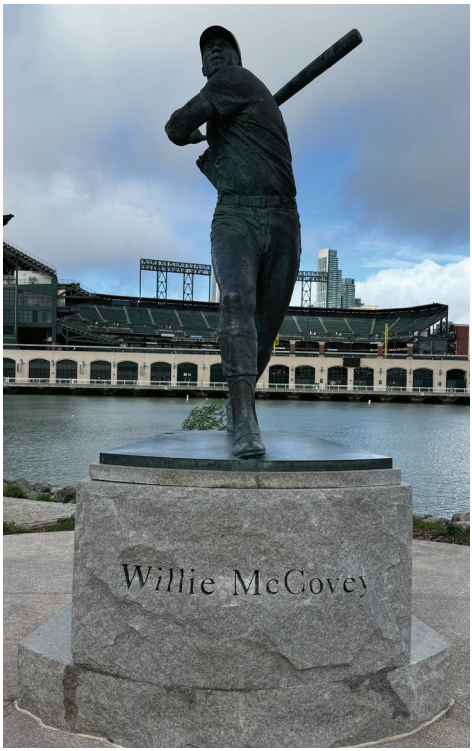
McArdle is entering her second full season as SF's Public Address Announcer after the Giants named her Oracle Park PA announcer on July 26, 2024. With over 20 years of Bay Area radio experience, McCardle joined the Giants from their Triple-A affiliate Sacramento River Cats, where she served as the PA announcer for five years between 2020-2024. She has been a fixture on iHeart radio's 98.1 The Breeze as the morning show co-host since it started in 2016 and also serves as the station's music director. McCardle began her sports PA career in 2018 at University of the Pacific, where she worked softball games. She also worked PA duties at Stanford University for swimming and gymnastics, and the University of California, Berkeley, where she worked softball, gymnastics and football as the field-level PA announcer for the Cal Bears. McCardle graduated from San Francisco State University with a bachelor's degree in radio and television in 1994 and also part of the university's swim team.

Oracle Park Statues

Since the opening of Oracle Park in 2000, the San Francisco Giants have dedicated five statues of their greatest players donning a Giants uniform. Sculptures of Hall of Famers Willie Mays, Willie McCovey, Juan Marichal, Orlando Cepeda and Gaylord Perry were created by well-known American sculptor William Behrends and have been placed outside of Oracle Park for everyone to enjoy.

Behrends' portrait sculptures have been widely praised for their likeness, quality of detail and sensitive evocation of character. Unlike many other sculptors, Mr. Behrends was personally involved in every phase of the creation of the five bronze sculptures, including research, molding and bronzing.

March 31, 2000 – The Giants unveiled a nine-foot bronze sculpture of Hall of Fame outfielder Willie Mays, located at the corner of Third and King Streets. The statue depicts Mays in the graceful conclusion of his powerful swing. The sculpture was developed over a 12-month period.



May 4, 2003 – A nine-foot tall bronze statue of Giants Hall of Fame first baseman Willie McCovey was unveiled. When unveiled, the statue was featured at the northeast portion of Oracle Park, which was officially designated as McCovey Point by the San Francisco Port Commission. Upon the building of the Mission Rock neighborhood, the statue was relocated to its current spot just across McCovey Cove. The statue of Willie McCovey pays tribute to a man who exemplifies the spirit and leadership shown by many of those who have worn the Giants uniform.

May 21, 2005 – Former Giants great and Hall of Fame pitcher Juan Marichal had his statue dedicated in 2005. The nine-foot bronze statue is located at Oracle Park's Lefty O'Doul Plaza and features Marichal's famous high-leg kick.

September 6, 2008 – The Giants dedicated a bronze statue in honor of Hall of Fame first baseman Orlando Cepeda. The statue, which stands at nine feet tall on a five foot base, is located at the Second Street entrance to Oracle Park. The sculpture portrays a youthful and smiling Cepeda.

August 13, 2016 – The Giants dedicated a bronze statue in honor of Hall of Fame pitcher Gaylord Perry. The statue, which stands at nine feet tall on a five foot base, is located at the Second and King Streets entrance to Oracle Park. The sculpture portrays Perry's intensity and focus on the mound at the point of his follow through.

Giants Portwalk Plaques

There have been countless memorable on-field moments at Oracle Park since it opened its doors ahead of the 2000 season. Some of the best of those moments have been given a plaque out on the Portwalk beyond right field walking from the right field line towards center field. In total there are 26 plaques on the Portwalk with the most recent being laid to commemorate the 100th Splash Hit Homer by a Giant, which was hit by LaMonte Wade Jr. on June 2, 2023. Below are photos of each of the 26 plaques that sit on the Portwalk.

Pablo Sandoval went deep three times in Game 1 of the 2012 World Series, the fifth three-homer game in World Series history.

The Giants celebrated their second World Series title in three seasons in 2012.

Tim Lincecum tossed his second career no-hitter on June 25, 2014 vs. San Diego. It was the 16th no-no in franchise history.

Travis Ishikawa helped the Giants clinch the NL Pennant in 2014 with his walk-off homer vs. the Cardinals.

SF won its third World Series title in five years in 2014 thanks to a heroic effort from Madison Bumgarner.

LaMonte Wade Jr. clubbed the 100th Splash Hit by a Giant in Oracle Park history on June 2, 2023 vs. Baltimore.

ATTENDANCE FACTS

2025 Attendance Notes

- The Giants averaged 36,121 fans per game at Oracle Park, a 9.1% increase from the 2024 season and the highest average since 2018. San Francisco's total attendance ranked seventh in MLB, which was a big increase from ranking 12th in 2024. The Giants had 28 home sellouts in 2025 with the largest crowd being 41,163 on July 25 vs. New York-NL.

Other Attendance Notes

- SF's yearly total attendance has been above the Major League Baseball average total attendance per team in each year since 2000.
- The Giants have finished in the Top 5 in attendance 14 times since moving into Oracle Park (2000-2005, 2011-2018).
- The Giants' NL-record sellout streak ended on July 17, 2017. 530 consecutive regular season dates, plus 25 dates in the postseason, for a total of 555, were sold out. It was the second longest sellout streak in MLB history. The streak began with the last three regular season dates in 2010, starting on October 1, continued through the next six full seasons, through the game of July 9, 2017.
- The old NL sellout streak record was 257 regular season games, plus 16 in the postseason, for a total of 273, by Philadelphia from 2009 to August, 2012. Boston holds the MLB record of 820 straight sellouts (794 regular season, 26 postseason) from 2003 through Opening Day 2013.
- Attendance has topped three million in 17 of the 25 years at Oracle Park, including eight straight years from 2000 through 2007, and also in nine straight years from 2010 through 2018.
- The only teams to draw three million more often than the Giants are the Dodgers (37 times), the Cardinals (25), and the Yankees (25). All these teams play in ballparks with a higher capacity than Oracle Park.
- In 2015, the Giants surpassed 50 million in attendance at Oracle Park, reaching this level faster than at any ballpark in Major League history. This total was achieved in the park's 16th season, and on the 1,261st regular season date played there.
- The old record was held by Baltimore, who reached 50 million at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1,311 dates, and in that park's 17th season. San Francisco, Baltimore, Colorado, and Toronto are the only teams to reach 50 million in attendance at a ballpark in less than 1,500 regular season dates.
- In their first year at Oracle Park, the Giants drew 3,244,167 (40,051 per date, all sellouts). This was up 1,165,768 (56.1%) from Candlestick Park in 1999. That increase in total attendance was the 5th best gain in Major League history.

SPLASH HIT FACTOIDS

- Carlos Beltran's "splash hit" on September 14, 2011 marked his 300th career home run.
- Ryan Klesko and Joc Pederson are the only players to have splash hits as both a Giant and as a visitor.
- Joc Pederson is the only player to record a splash hit for three different teams (Giants, Dodgers & Cubs).
- Tyler Colvin's "splash hit" on May 12, 2014 was also his first hit for the Giants and came on his first at-bat at Oracle Park since joining the team.
- During the postseason, the Giants have one "splash hit" (Bonds) and opponents have recorded two (Rick Ankiel & Bryce Harper).
- Of visiting players who have hit the cove, Carlos Delgado, Adam LaRoche and Max Muncy have performed the feat the most, doing it three times each.
- Daulton Varsho became the first visiting player to hit his first career home run with a "splash hit".
- Mike Yastrzemski became the first to hit two walk-off "splash hits" with all four in Oracle Park history coming against left-handed pitchers.
- LaMonte Wade Jr. recorded the Giants' 100th "splash hit" in ballpark history as he lead off the bottom of the 1st inning on June 2 against the Orioles.
- On May 29, 2023, Jack Suwinski became the second player in Oracle Park history to have multiple splash hits in a game, joining Barry Bonds - May 10, 2000 and May 18, 2002. They were the first two splash hits of his career.
- On September 15, 2024, Heliot Ramos became the first right-handed hitter in Oracle Park history to hit a splash hit. The feat coincided with Roberto Clemente Day and the Giants' celebration of life for Orlando Cepeda. Ramos, a fellow Puerto Rican, wore Clemente's No. 21 as he hit his 21st homer of the year for SF.

ENGLISH BROADCASTERS

Jon Miller

Opening Day 2026 will mark the 52nd anniversary of Jon Miller's first season as a Major League Baseball broadcaster. Honored by the National Baseball Hall of Fame as the 2010 Ford C. Frick award winner for baseball broadcasting excellence, the "Voice of the Giants", enters his 30th season in the broadcast booth on KNBR Radio, NBC Bay Area and NBC Sports Bay Area. 2024 marked the 50th anniversary of Miller's first Major League broadcast when he debuted with the Oakland A's in 1974. Miller was thrilled to broadcast his 16th World Series in 2014 as the Giants won it all for the third time in five years. Miller was inducted into the National Radio Hall of Fame in 2014. In 1990 when ESPN TV first began its coverage of Major League Baseball, Miller was chosen as the first play-by-play commentator on the award-winning ESPN Sunday Night Baseball game of the week broadcast. Miller and his Hall of Fame partner, Joe Morgan, teamed up on the prime time telecast for 21 seasons. During his tenure at ESPN, he was nominated twice for a national Emmy Award, and broadcast 13 consecutive World Series on ESPN Radio. He has broadcast 16 World Series overall. In 2020 Miller was named "one of the 50 most significant off-field figures in baseball in the past 50 years" by the Society of American Baseball Research (SABR). It was one of a series of such lists published as part of the 50th Anniversary of SABR's founding. He was also nominated six times for an "ACE" award, emblematic of cable television excellence, and won the award in 1991 - the first ESPN play-by-play announcer to win the award, and 1996. Miller was named National Sportscaster of the Year by the American Sportscasters Association (ASA) in 1998. That same year, Miller was inducted into the Hall of Fame of the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association America (NSSAA). In 2018, Miller received a Northern California Emmy Award, the fourth local Emmy for his Giants television work. Prior to his work on ESPN, Miller broadcast an occasional game on NBC-TV with either Tony Kubek or Joe Garagiola. Miller spent 14 years with the Baltimore Orioles before coming to the Giants. Prior to joining Baltimore in 1983, the talented broadcaster spent two seasons with the Texas Rangers (1978-79) and three seasons with the Boston Red Sox (1980-82). Miller got his first baseball play-by-play job in 1974 at age 22 calling radio and TV for that year's World Series Champion Oakland Athletics. The Bay Area native has also broadcast NHL hockey, NBA basketball and championship soccer games on national television in his distinguished career. In 2018, Miller was inducted into the College of San Mateo (CA) Hall of Fame. Miller began his broadcasting career as a student at CSM and broadcast baseball, football and basketball games on KCSM, the college's radio and TV stations. Jon and his wife, Janine, reside in San Francisco. They are parents to three daughters, Misha, Holly (married to Paul Gallagher) and Emilie, and a son, Alexander (married to the former Christina Vanoverbeke).

Duane Kuiper

Duane Kuiper, a 13-time Emmy award-winning broadcaster, begins his 42nd season as a Major League announcer. He embarks on his 33rd consecutive year in the NBC Sports Bay Area, NBC Bay Area and KNBR Radio broadcast booths in 2026. He was named California's 2024 and 2020 Sportscaster of the Year as selected by the National Sports Media Association. Kuiper was one of 10 finalists for the 2026, 2025, 2024, 2023 and 2014 Ford C. Frick Award for baseball broadcasting excellence. Kuiper and his NBCSBA broadcast partner, Mike Krukow, were both named as one of 10 finalists on the 2025 and 2024 Frick Award ballot. Kuiper emerged as one of the top three fan selections in online voting in 2014. The former 11-year big league infielder has received 13 local Emmy awards for his distinguished broadcasting career: On-Camera talent (9); Sports Live Broadcast (2); and Sporting Event/Game-Live (2). He provided commentary for the Giants from 1987-92 and served a one-year stint with the expansion Colorado Rockies in 1993. The former infielder spent the last four years of his career with the Giants, following seven campaigns with the Cleveland Indians. In 2004 he was voted by Cleveland fans as one of the 100 greatest players in Tribe history. After retiring in 1985, Kuiper provided commentary on Giants radio and TV broadcasts through the end of that season, and had his own radio show on KNBR from 1982-85. Kuiper's scorecards from Barry Bonds' historic 756th home run game, Randy Johnson's 300th career victory, Matt Cain's perfect game in 2012 and the scorecard from Gaylord Perry Day (August 13, 2016 - BAL @ SF) are displayed at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. The Wisconsin native previously served as a board member of the Giants Community Fund and was a member of the Junior Giants Committee and the former Chair of the Junior Giants Glove Drive. Kuiper lends his time and support to ARF (Animal Rescue Foundation, http://www.arflife.org). Kuiper, along with his NBCSBA partner, Mike Krukow, served as an ambassador for the UTAC (Until There's A Cure) campaign in 2023. A graduate of Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, IL, Kuiper resides in Lafayette. He and his late wife, Michelle, are parents to two children, Cole (married to Rachel Jensen) and Dannon (married to Zach Rease), and have two granddaughters, Andy and Kit, and one grandson, Jamie.

Mike Krukow

Mike Krukow enters his 36th season in the television booth, and his 32nd full season on the radio side. A 13-time Emmy award winner, Krukow is the broadcast team's color analyst on NBC Sports Bay Area and NBC Bay Area telecasts, and on KNBR Radio broadcasts. Krukow was inducted into the Bay Area Radio Hall of Fame (BARHOF) in 2025. He was one of the finalists for the 2025, 2024 and 2017 Ford C. Frick Award for baseball broadcasting excellence. Krukow and his NBCSBA broadcast partner, Duane Kuiper, were both named as one of 10 finalists on the 2025 and 2024 Frick Award ballot. He was named California's 2023, 2017 and 2015 Sportscaster of the Year, as selected by the National Sports Media Association (NSMA). The former big league pitcher has received 13 local Emmy awards: On-Camera talent (7); Sports Live Broadcast (2); Sporting Event/Game-Live (2); Arts/Entertainment-Program/Special (1); and Executive Producer Baseball Ballet (1). In 2021, he was inducted into the National Polish-American Sports Hall of Fame. Krukow's playing career in the Major Leagues spanned 14 years and three teams: the Chicago Cubs (1976-81), Philadelphia Phillies (1982) and San Francisco Giants (1983-89), where his enthusiasm both on and off the field made him a fan favorite. "Kruk", named as the starting right-handed pitcher to the 1980's Giants All-Decade Team in a vote by Bay Area media in 1999, is noted for his deep knowledge of the game and tremendous sense of humor. A 20-game winner for the Giants in 1986, Krukow retired after the 1989 season with a 124-117 career record and a 3.90 ERA. In 2008, Kruk was honored as a member of the inaugural class of Giants alumni with a plaque in the Giants Wall of Fame which lines the wall outside of Oracle Park. Krukow's scorecard from Tim Lincecum's no hitter in 2014 is displayed at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. Krukow supports Canine Guardians (www.canineguardians.org), a non-profit organization that provides trained service dogs to assist and enrich the daily lives of wounded veterans with PTSD, diabetics, children with cancer and others with disabilities. Krukow, alongside his NBCSBA partner, Duane Kuiper, served as an ambassador for the 2023 UTAC (Until There's A Cure) campaign. Krukow resides in Reno, NV with his wife, Jennifer. The couple has five children, Jarek (married to Siobhan O'Neill), Baker (married to Celina Roberge), Tessa (fiancé Matthew Lewis), Chase (married to Alix Roe) and Weston (married to Ted Keener), three grandsons, Coen, Max, and Harper Michael and two granddaughters, Reagan and Sailor Lucille.

Dave Flemming

Dave Flemming begins his 24th year of broadcasting for the Giants. The 49-year-old will join Jon Miller and Duane Kuiper as the team's primary play-by-play voices on KNBR radio broadcasts and NBC Sports Bay Area telecasts. In addition to his work with the Giants, he serves as a lead play-by-play voice for ESPN television, working college football, Major League Baseball, basketball and golf, providing coverage of the PGA Championship and The Masters. Flemming was named California's 2019 Sportscaster of the Year, as selected by the National Sports Media Association. He has previously called Major League Baseball on FOX, and for six years was the play-by-play voice of Stanford football and basketball. In 2008, Sports Business Journal named Flemming "the best of the new generation of baseball announcers". He has won three Northern California Area Emmy Awards for his Giants play-by-play work. The Alexandria, VA native received a Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Stanford, and a Master's degree in Broadcast Journalism from Syracuse University. For more than a decade, Flemming has served on the board of the Good Tidings Foundation, a Bay Area charity that has worked closely with the Giants in building and refurbishing baseball fields and other athletic facilities across Northern California. Good Tidings also grants college scholarships for economically disadvantaged students who have demonstrated extraordinary community service, and builds art studios in underserved schools and neighborhoods. In 2017, Good Tidings presented Flemming with the Nate Thurmond Medal, in recognition of lifetime contributions to community service. Since 2011, Dave has participated in the Giants Community Fund's annual Education Day pre-game program where 60 Harmon and Sue Burns scholars and their guests learn about the importance of higher education. Flemming has also participated in the Willie Mac Award Luncheon and the Junior Giants Commissioner's Meeting. Flemming and his wife, Jessica, reside in San Francisco with their twin daughters, Katie and Carter, and son, David Henry.

Javier Lopez

Javier Lopez enters his ninth season in the NBC Sports Bay Area TV booth and will broadcast select road games, and begins his first season in the Giants baseball department as an advisor to baseball operations. In addition to broadcasting games for the Giants, Lopez previously broadcast college baseball games for ESPN's ACC Network. López spent seven years of his 14-year playing career in San Francisco as a member of the "Core Four" bullpen that helped the Giants win three World Series titles in five seasons from 2010-2014. A member of the Giants Wall of Fame, López pitched in 446 regular-season games in a Giants uniform from 2010-2016 with a 2.47 ERA. In 25 postseason games with San Francisco in 2010, 2012, 2014, and 2016, López was 1-0 with a 1.38 ERA in 13.0 innings with 14 strikeouts. In his 14-year playing career for Colorado (2003-2005), Arizona (2005), Boston (2006-2009), Pittsburgh (2010), and San Francisco (2010-2016), López was 30-17 with a 3.48 ERA in 839 games. In addition to his three World Series rings with San Francisco, López was also a member of the 2007 World Champion Boston Red Sox. Lopez attended the University of Virginia and earned a degree in psychology despite leaving early to begin his baseball career. A left-handed specialist known for his sidearm delivery, Lopez, along with teammate Brandon Crawford, won the Willie Mac Award in 2016. The award honors the Giants' most inspirational player. Lopez lends support to the Word of Honor Fund (www.wordofhonorfund.com). Lopez is married to Renee, and they reside in Suwanee, GA with their two children, Kylan and Cristian.

Hunter Pence

Hunter Pence enters his fifth season in the NBC Sports Bay Area TV booth and will broadcast select road games. He is a former Major League Baseball player, broadcaster, gamer, entrepreneur, and philanthropist. Pence's 14-year MLB career includes two World Series Championships as a member of the San Francisco Giants (2012 and 2014), four All-Star appearances, and four Heart and Hustle Awards. Pence made his Major League Debut with the Houston Astros in 2007 and went on to play for the Philadelphia Phillies (2011-2012), San Francisco Giants (2012-2018, 2020), and the Texas Rangers (2019). Now in retirement from baseball, Pence has established himself as a national sports broadcaster and motivational speaker. Pence is the founder of the Healthy Planet Project and co-owner of Coral Sword Gaming Café in Houston, Texas. Follow Hunter Pence on social media @hunterpence.

Joe Ritzo

Joe Ritzo enters his fourth season in the KNBR radio booth. He initially joined the Giants in 2017 on spring training broadcasts before making his regular season radio debut in a fill-in role during the 2019 campaign. Ritzo became a member of the Giants broadcast team prior to the 2023 season and has since handled radio play-by-play duties primarily on road games. In addition to his work with the San Francisco Giants, Ritzo continues as a radio and television broadcaster for the San Jose Giants, a role he has held since joining the organization at age 19. Ritzo's other work behind the microphone has included play-by-play for MLB Network and nine years as the primary broadcast voice for Santa Clara University women's basketball. A graduate of Santa Clara University, Ritzo is a native of Palo Alto, CA. Ritzo and his wife, Emily, reside in Castro Valley with their two children, Benjamin and Elijah.

FP Santangelo

FP (Frank Paul) Santangelo enters his fourth season in the KNBR radio booth and will broadcast select road games for the club in the 2026 season. The El Dorado Hills (CA) native served as a fill-in radio announcer during the 2023 season. Drafted in 1989 by the Montreal Expos, his Major League career included stints in Montreal, San Francisco, Los Angeles (NL) and Oakland. After his playing career ended, Santangelo co-hosted a talk show on KHTK Radio in Sacramento from 2006-2008. In 2010, he became a host on KNBR's SportsPhone 680 and worked as a fill-in color analyst for Giants telecasts on CSN Bay Area. In 2011, the former outfielder returned to the organization with which he spent over half his playing career (Expos relocated to Washington in 2005), and was named the color analyst for the Washington Nationals' telecasts on MASN (Mid-Atlantic Sports Network). Santangelo returned to San Francisco in 2022, where he hosted the Giants pre-game show on KNBR as well as the station's late night call in show. Santangelo resides in San Francisco and has two children, Frank-Paul Jr. and Summer.

Shawn Estes

Shawn Estes returns to the Giants broadcast booth after a two-year absence, and will begin his fifth year in the NBC Sports Bay Area TV booth on select road telecasts. Estes pitched for the Giants (1995-2001), Mets (2002), Reds (2002), Cubs (2003), Rockies (2004), Diamondbacks (2005), and Padres (2006, 2008). Estes had his best professional season in 1997, when he went 19-5 with a 3.18 ERA for the Giants. He was selected to the NL All-Star team in 1997. He also had four career home runs and 28 RBI, including a grand slam in 2000. Estes initially committed to play college baseball at Stanford, but instead signed with the Seattle Mariners after being selected in the first round of the 1991 MLB Draft. In 2010, he was honored with a plaque on the Giants Wall of Fame that lines the wall outside of Oracle Park. Estes began his broadcast career as a television color commentator for the Reno Aces of the Pacific Coast League in 2011. He has appeared as a pre and post-game show analyst on Giants telecasts on NBC Sports Bay Area since 2011. He supported the Multiple Sclerosis Read-A-Thon as a player, and continues his active support of charity work through his involvement with the Wender Weis Foundation for Children (www.wenderweis.org) and the Challenged Athletes Foundation (www.challengedathletes.org). In 2021, Estes received the Community Philanthropy Award from the Wender Weis Foundation (WWFC). The WWFC focuses on improving the lives of underserved children in the Bay Area. Estes and his wife, Nathalie, have four children and reside in Phoenix.

Glen Kuiper

Glen Kuiper begins his first season in the Giants radio booth working select regular season road games, and select Spring Training broadcasts on KNBR Radio. Kuiper previously broadcast 22 seasons in the Athletics television booth as the club's lead play-by-play voice. He has covered the Bay Area baseball scene for NBC Sports California since 1992, serving as pre-game host and fill-in play-by-play announcer for both A's and Giants telecasts. He also worked on Comcast SportsNet's Golden State Warriors and San Jose Sharks telecasts, along with numerous collegiate assignments and sideline reporting duties for select National Football League games on FOX Sports. Kuiper has won 13 Northern California Emmy Awards for his coverage of Bay Area sports teams. Glen is the youngest brother in a talented broadcasting family. His oldest brother, Duane, is an Emmy Award winning member of the San Francisco Giants broadcast team while older brother, Jeff, produces the telecasts on NBC Sports Bay Area. Glen co-hosts the very popular postgame show Friday Night Kuips live from The Gotham Club at Oracle Park with his brother Duane after every Friday night home game. Kuiper graduated from San Francisco State University with a bachelor's degree in broadcasting. He also attended the University of New Orleans and spent two years in the minor leagues. A native of Racine, WI, Kuiper resides in Danville with his wife, Amanda. The couple has two children, Jack and Annette.

SPANISH BROADCASTERS

Erwin R. Higueros

Erwin Higueros, a 38-year veteran of Bay Area sports broadcasting, begins his 28th full season, his 29th overall in the Giants' Spanish language radio booth. In addition to his broadcast responsibilities, Higueros is a member of the Giants front office, working in both the media relations and Hispanic marketing departments, and serves as the official Spanish language translator for the Club. In 2016, Higueros received a Northern California Area Emmy Award in the category of Outstanding Achievement Sporting Game Live for the first Giants game to be televised in Spanish on Telemundo/KSTS-Channel 48. In 2018, Higueros was awarded a second Emmy for Outstanding Achievement Sports-News Feature/Segment (Spanish). In 2019, he was awarded a third Emmy for Outstanding Achievement Commercial-Single Spot or Campaign (Spanish). A multi-talented announcer, Higueros was the host for Conversación Gigante, a 30-minute show that aired on Telemundo-48 with in-depth interviews with Giants Latin players that allowed each individual to tell the story about his personal journey to the Majors. During Fiesta Gigantes in 2023, Higueros became the 22nd recipient of the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum's Pioneer Award. An active participant in community programs, last November Higueros was the host for the virtual walk experience for the National Kidney Foundation Walk that originated from Oracle Park. In addition, prior to the 2020 presidential election he was the MC for a special voter engagement Chalk Talk that featured California Secretary of State Alex Padilla. In 2019, Higueros was the Spanish play-by-play radio announcer for the Anaheim Ducks first-ever hockey game in Spanish. The Ducks hosted the Vancouver Canucks as part of the celebration of Día de los Muertos at the Honda Center. In 2023 Higueros again provided the play-by-play for the Ducks' Día de los Muertos game vs. Toronto. Higueros began his broadcasting career with the Oakland A's (1988-97), and was the play-by-play announcer for games that were televised on Telemundo-Channel 48 from 1995-97. A versatile broadcaster, Higueros was the Spanish play-by-play voice for a number of Bay Area professional sports teams including the San Francisco 49ers in 2000 and 2012-2013 seasons, the San Jose Sharks in 1995, and the Oakland Raiders in 1995-96 and 2002-06. He also handled the radio play-by-play duties on Spanish radio for the Fresno State Bulldogs football team (2009-14). Higueros broadcast the League Division Series for FOX Sports International in 2004-06. In 2013, Higueros was the recipient of the Community Service Award from the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum. Born in Guatemala, he moved to the United States when he was 12 years old. A graduate of Fremont High School in Oakland, he attended Cal State Hayward and the Columbia School of Broadcasting. Higueros resides in Brentwood with his wife, Maria. The couple has two grown children, Claudia and Erwin, Jr., and two grandchildren, Alison and Erwin, III.

Tito Fuentes

Tito Fuentes returns to the Giants' Spanish language broadcast booth for his 22nd season. Fuentes previously served as a member of the Spanish language broadcast team from 1981-92, and in 1996-2004 he broadcast for FOX Sports International which is aired in Latin America. In 2008, Fuentes was honored with a plaque in the Giants Wall of Fame which lines the wall outside of Oracle Park. That same year, Rigoberto "Tito" Fuentes was inducted into the inaugural Leones del Escogido Hall of Fame class of 2008. Fuentes was a standout player who played with the Leones from 1965 to 1974. He excelled as a second baseman and contact hitter for the Leones, and was a member of the 1968-69 championship team. In 2002, he was inducted into the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum. A former Major League second baseman who played for the Giants from 1965-74, Fuentes saw big league action with San Diego, Detroit and Oakland. The Havana, Cuba native was initially signed as an 18-year-old amateur before the start of the 1962 season and was the last baseball player signed directly out of Cuba before the United States embargo against Cuba. The former infielder was playing with the Cuban national team in the 1961 Campeonato Mundial Amateur in Costa Rica when he was signed by the Kansas City A's, but being underage his father vetoed the contract. The Giants signed him in 1962 as an amateur free agent. In 1958 he represented the Cuban national team at the Campeonato Mundial Juveni in the Dominican Republic. A .268 hitter over his 13-year career, he was voted the starting second baseman on the Dream Team for the Giants 25th Anniversary team by San Francisco fans in 1982. Fuentes set an NL record in 1973 with a .993 fielding percentage at second base, the best for any regular second baseman in league history at the time. In his best offensive year with the Detroit Tigers in 1977, he batted .309, with career highs in walks (38) and OPS (.745). He also led the Tigers with 10 triples that season. An active participant in the Giants' marketing efforts, he is a regular participant in the Giants Fantasy Camps. In 1997, "23" was inducted into the Cuban Baseball Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Maritza, reside in Reno, NV.

Carlos Orellana

Carlos Orellana is entering his 18th season as a Spanish radio engineer and producer in Major League Baseball and his 15th overall with the San Francisco Giants (2009-2011, 2015-present). Orellana began his radio career with the Giants in 2009, at the age of 18, as an assistant producer for KIQI Radio. He was the Oakland Athletics Spanish radio network producer from 2012-2014. In 2015, he rejoined the Giants Spanish radio booth as one of the producers for ESPN Deportes Radio and has remained a part of the broadcast team since. In addition to his producing duties, Orellana has been serving as the back-up play-by-play announcer for Erwin Higueros since the 2015 season. Aside from producing baseball games, the multi-talented San Francisco native has worked with the San Francisco 49ers (2009) and the Oakland Raiders (2013-2019). Orellana has also produced international broadcasts, including the NFL International Series Games in Mexico City (2016 and 2017) and the 2016 NHL Stanley Cup Final for Viasat Sports (Finland). In his young career Orellana has also engineered and produced prestigious events including the 2010 MLB World Series, 2012 and 2013 ALDS, 2012 NFC Divisional Playoffs, 2014 AL Wild Card, 2014,'16, and '21 NLDS, 2016 AFC Wild Card, and Super Bowl 50 Radio Row. He currently resides in Hayward with his wife, Daniela, and his son, Diego Alberto, who was born in February of 2026.

Giants Spanish language broadcasters Erwin Higueros, Carlos Orellana and Tito Fuentes joined Lou Seal at the annual Carnaval Parade in the Mission District of San Francisco.

Giants Spanish language broadcasters Erwin Higueros and Tito Fuentes speak during the World Series Parade and Civic Celebration on Friday, October 31, 2014.

Ford C. Frick Award Winners

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the broadcaster, National League President, Commissioner, and Hall of Famer, has been presented annually since 1978. Frick was a driving force behind the creation of the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and he helped foster the relationship between radio and the game of baseball.

Mel Allen and Red Barber were the first two recipients in 1978. A single winner has been selected in each year following.

The annual Frick Award ballot is created by a subcommittee of the voting electorate. A new election cycle has been established starting with the 2017 Award, rotating annually between Major League Markets (team-specific announcers); National Voices (broadcasters whose contributions were realized on a national level); and Broadcasting Beginnings (early team voices and pioneers of baseball broadcasting). This cycle will repeat every three years.

The Frick Award Committee casts ballots during November, and the results are announced during the Baseball Winter Meetings in December. The Frick Award electorate is comprised of the living Frick Award recipients and four broadcast historians/columnists.

Voters are asked to base their selections on "Commitment to excellence, quality of broadcasting abilities, reverence within the game, popularity with fans, and recognition by peers." To be considered, an active or retired broadcaster must have a minimum of 10 years of continuous major league broadcast service with a ball club, network, or a combination of the two.

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually during Hall of Fame Weekend. Each award recipient (not to be confused with an inductee) is presented with a calligraphy of the award and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

Below is a list of Giants broadcasters who have been recipients of the Ford C. Frick Award:

Russ Hodges

Frick Award Winner: 1980

"Voice of Giants" for 21-year run that spanned both coasts...began in New York Giants' radio booth in 1949, followed club west in 1958, and broadcast San Francisco Giants games through 1970...author of most famous call in franchise annals, and perhaps in baseball history, with his "Giants Win the Pennant!" description of Bobby Thomson's playoff-winning homer against Brooklyn Dodgers Oct. 3, 1951...his "Bye-Bye Baby" call became synonymous with Giants home runs...Ford C. Frick Award winner entered Hall of Fame in 1980.

Lindsey Nelson

Frick Award Winner: 1988

Nelson spent three seasons on the airwaves with the Giants from 1979-1981 after spending 17 seasons working in the New York Mets radio booth from 1962-1978...was nicknamed "Mr. New Year's Day" for calling the play-by-play of the Cotton Bowl Classic for 26 seasons on CBS...Nelson also called many Army-Navy games and was also the first announcer during the first NFL game on CBS that used instant replay where he had to remind viewers the programming wasn't live...was the Ford C. Frick Award winner in 1988.

Lon Simmons

Frick Award Winner: 2004

One of original voices of San Francisco Giants, teaming with fellow Hall of Famer Russ Hodges to form arguably finest broadcast team in sports history...brought trademark "Tell It Goodbye" home run call to Giants broadcast booth for 23 years over three different stints (1958-'73, '76-'78 and '96-2002)...is only man to broadcast debuts for each of club's three San Francisco ballparks–Seals Stadium in 1958, Candlestick Park in 1960 and Pacific Bell Park in 2000...beloved for his wit and charm, Bay Area legend was inducted into Hall of Fame in 2004 as 29th winner of Ford C. Frick Award.

Jon Miller

Frick Award Winner: 2010

Miller, who has gained accolades for his attention to detail and his intellect, has spent four decades calling Major League Baseball games for the A's, Rangers, Red Sox, Orioles and his current team the Giants...was voice of ESPN's national Sunday Night Baseball telecasts for 21 years...broadcast 13 straight World Series on ESPN Radio and 16 overall...his energy, preparation and thoroughness has helped bring game to life in homes and hearts of so many listeners...Miller was honored as 35th Ford C. Frick Award recipient during Hall of Fame Weekend 2010.

Al Michaels

Frick Award Winner: 2021

Al Michaels, whose passionate and authoritative voice was the nationwide soundtrack of the game for more than a decade, was the lead announcer for the Cincinnati Reds in 1971 and then the San Francisco Giants in 1974...Michaels joined ABC Sports in 1976, the beginning of a 30-year tenure with the network...he became lead announcer of Monday Night Baseball in 1983 while calling an array of other sports, including nearly two decades of Monday Night Football and calling the Miracle on Ice at the 1980 Winter Olympics...Michaels becomes the 45th winner of the Frick Award.

2025 Community Relations Highlights

Each season, the Giants strive to serve our community by raising awareness for important causes, providing memorable experiences for our fans and inspiring the next generation of baseball and softball players. Here are some of our favorite moments from 2025 that celebrate the incredible people that make up the Giants Family.

25 YEARS AT ORACLE PARK

2025 marked the Giants' 142nd year of baseball, the 67th in San Francisco, and the 25th anniversary of Oracle Park – a celebration of the team's past, present, and future. Opening Day honored this legacy with a special pregame ceremony recognizing community partners who have stood alongside the Giants for 25 years and beyond. That same spirit of enduring collaboration continues through programs that have long defined the Giants' community work. Signature events – including Until There's A Cure, Girls Day, Donate Life, the SFUSD AAA High School Baseball Championship Game, Family Safety Festival, and Strike Out Violence – have been fixtures at Oracle Park since its opening, raising awareness, empowering women and girls in sports, and uniting advocates to end violence. All of the work embodies the Giants' commitment to compassion, inclusion, and impact – proving that for the Giants, community is a legacy.

PEDIATRIC CANCER AWARENESS

The Giants partner with MLB, BP28, and local hospitals and nonprofits to support children battling cancer through hospital visits, fundraisers, and community events. For more than two decades, this commitment has centered on the annual Pediatric Cancer Awareness game, which raises awareness and funds for lifesaving research while honoring patients, families, and caregivers. The 2025 game on August 31 welcomed more than 400 guests from a dozen Bay Area hospitals and nonprofits and featured patient-designed locker nameplates, a bell-ringing ceremony, and a special event item presented by UCSF Health benefiting BP28 and UCSF Benioff Children's Hospitals.

GIANTS IN THE COMMUNITY

From players and coaches to front office staff, the Giants remain deeply engaged with the community – showing up to serve, connect, and make a difference across the Bay Area and beyond. Ryan Walker led teammates including Patrick Bailey, Robbie Ray, Tristan Beck, and others in volunteering on the road through Big League Impact, participating in service projects in cities the team visited. Giants family members also joined in, supporting volunteer events on road trips as well as Oracle Park initiatives like the Prom Series Back-to-School event and the Armed Forces Weekend kit-building project.

CA VERSUS HATE

The Giants teamed up with CA vs. Hate to reinforce the values of inclusivity, safety, and respect for all. At each of the Giants' cultural and heritage games, CA vs. Hate hosted an information table, connecting with fans and providing resources on how to recognize and report hate acts, support victims, and access community services. Their presence helped raise awareness and encouraged fans to take an active role in creating safer, more welcoming environments inside and outside of Oracle Park.

BP28 GALA

Buster and Kristen Posey, along with the Giants, hosted the BP28 Gala – an event dedicated to improving outcomes for children with pediatric cancer through increased awareness and critical funding. Since its launch in 2016, the BP28 Gala has raised $7M+ in direct support of pioneering research and treatment. These funds fuel the work of the V Foundation for Cancer Research and UCSF Benioff Children's Hospitals, helping advance lifesaving therapies for young patients.

EAT. LEARN. PLAY.

The Giants collaborated with Steph and Ayesha Curry's nonprofit Eat. Learn. Play., along with Thirty Ink, to host 60+ students from Oakland schools for a special day at Oracle Park. In support of Bay Area children's well-being through health, education, and joyful experiences, students enjoyed access to batting practice and a private reading of "Sports Superheroes: Stephen Curry" by author Josh Bycel, followed by a Q&A session.

GIANTS COMMUNITY FUND

The Giants Community Fund, the 501(c)(3) public charity of the Giants, uses baseball and softball to promote health, education and character development to propel youth in underserved regions to be positive forces in their communities. Through a variety of free youth baseball, softball and scholarship programs, including Junior Giants and Willie Mays Scholars, the Fund empowers youth to be Giants on the field, in the classroom and in the community.

JUNIOR GIANTS

Junior Giants, the flagship program of the Giants Community Fund, is a free, noncompetitive, coed baseball and softball program for youth 5-18 years old. The program aims to introduce youth to important lessons in health, education, bullying prevention and character development throughout the eight week program. The program has come a long way since its inception in 1994 when it was home to 19 leagues.
